

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Cliff Payne makes glove boxes.

David Whittle was an Ashland visitor from Hill several days last week.

Spring styles are in at Orres tailor shop.

Chief of Police J. W. Hatcher is about again after a siege of influenza.

N. W. McGee is in the city from Pullman, Wash., for a short visit with his nephew, J. H. McGee.

Purity pancake flour is self rising and delicious. Get it from your grocer.

Mrs. Ransie Morris of Klamath Falls was a recent visitor of Ashland friends.

Mrs. I. C. Williams was a shopper in Ashland from Talent Thursday afternoon.

Hemstitching and piecing 10 cts. per yard. Handicraft Shop, Medford, Ore. Orders called for and delivered at Enders' Store, same day. 52-5t

J. P. Wolf of the depot hotel has gone to San Francisco to spend a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Jones returned Thursday from Portland where they had been making a visit.

Mrs. May Austin spent several days in this city from Medford last week visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bishop arrived last week from Salem where they had been visiting for some time.

It will pay you to bring your car to us for overhaul and repair. We have real automobile mechanics. Pruitt-Hittson Auto Co., Medford.

Charles L. Hast came to Ashland Saturday evening from Weed to attend the funeral of the late C. M. Summers.

M. D. Wood of Centralia, Wash., came in last Tuesday for a short visit with his son, C. B. Wood, of the Eastern Supply company.

You can't afford to take chances. Our expert auto mechanics can fix it satisfactorily. Pruitt-Hittson Auto Co., Medford.

Bernard Spencer has been discharged from the army service and returned home last week from Camp Lewis where he was last stationed.

A. C. Nininger of the White House grocery, was called to Santa Ana, Cal., by the serious illness of his father. He left for that point Saturday evening.

Mrs. Cedric Myer and little son have returned to their home in Dunsmuir after spending several weeks in Ashland with Mr. and Mrs. William Myer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mizer are visitors from Red Cloud, Neb., and are looking over the rest with a view of locating in a good climate. They are much impressed with Ashland.

Buy It Now!

This is your opportunity to secure a first class five room bungalow with all modern conveniences, built in features, sleeping porch and large basement, electric hot water heater, all rooms wired for electric heat, kitchen range, stationary tubs; everything in splendid condition and ready for you to occupy. $500 down and $20 a month. Liberty Bonds accepted at full value. Good reasons for selling. Put some of your savings and your earnings in a nice home and enjoy it. Every man ought to plan to own his home and now is the time for you to make the start. Here is an opportunity for you to get big value for your money.

BILLINGS AGENCY
Real Estate and Real Insurance.
41 East Main Phone 211

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Concentrate Vigorously

Concentrate your efforts vigorously on a reserve fund.

Start an account with The Citizens Bank of Ashland and determine to make prompt deposits every week or month—it will give you reliable protection for emergencies.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Mrs. Pearl Kearney of Portland is a guest of her mother, Mrs. George L. Sheldon.

John W. Potter of Montague has accepted a position of clerk at the Hotel Austin.

By all wool suits. It pays in the end. See the fine assortment at Orres tailor shop.

A sister and niece of Mrs. P. N. Hogue of Birch street stopped off for a short visit with the Hogue family.

Harry Silver, who has been making a business trip to Washington, D. C., and Grensboro, N. C., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Barnard and two sons have come from Eugene and are making their home in Ashland this winter.

Mrs. A. L. Gaul of Medford visited her daughter, Mrs. R. J. McCafferty, on Skidmore street the latter part of last week.

The barber shop formerly conducted by the late R. W. Hastings in the Enders block, has been leased by J. B. Hart of Glendale.

Mrs. G. H. Ketchum has returned from Redding, Cal., where she had been spending several weeks with her father, A. Kiemmer, who had been sick.

The burning out of the chimney on the house of Mrs. S. A. Carlton on Union street brought out the fire truck Tuesday morning. The blaze did no damage to the property.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Doran and daughter Alice left Saturday morning for Berkeley where they will spend a month as guests of Mrs. E. C. Cole. Mrs. Cole is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doran.

Miss Lena Nelson, superintendent of the Granite City hospital, has returned from Arapahoe, Wyoming, where she had been called by the serious illness of her mother. The latter is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan, who have been living in Portland for several months where the former was engaged in the ship yards, have returned to their home in Ashland, the work in that department having been closed down at the expiration of war.

Sergeant Alfred G. Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moss of 954 Boulevard, returned last week from Fort McArthur, San Pedro, Cal., from where he received his discharge from the Coast Artillery service. He expects to remain at home.

Stove Bargains

25 Heating Stoves at Reduced Prices

Your old stove taken in Exchange

Phonographs on Easy Payments.

Provost Brothers

HARDWARE

A. E. Powell has plenty of fresh cider now on hand at 40 cents a gallon at the S. P. Depot stand. 3-2t

The quota for the Ashland-Talent-Phoenix district of the Armenian relief fund is $1,667 instead of $116.67 as stated in last week's Tidings. This amount has already been sent to headquarters in Portland from the Ashland War Relief Fund.

Mrs. Gen. John C. Kennedy of Denver, Colorado, is visiting for the winter in Ashland with her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Storm, 549 Auburn street, where she will be pleased to meet with her friends on Thursdays.

Miss Ruth Schall who has been spending the holidays with her parents of 423 Palm Ave., has secured a position with the Big Pines Lumber Company of Medford. Miss Schall was formerly stenographer for the public welfare bureau of Portland.

R. J. Smith, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, was an Ashland business visitor Thursday. Mr. Smith has charge of the California division with Ashland as a terminal, and expects to be a frequent visitor to this city henceforth.

Miss Frances Briggs has returned to San Francisco where she has a position after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Briggs, in Ashland. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. M. F. Cyester, who will visit there and at Los Angeles for a few weeks.

Mrs. Cordell and daughter, Mrs. V. V. Mills, left Saturday night for San Francisco where the former will remain with her son. Mrs. Mills received word that her husband, Lieut. V. V. Mills, had arrived in Virginia from France and she will remain in San Francisco until Lieut. Mills joins her.

I buy all kinds of hides and pay best prices. Also have some good furniture and junk. L. Gartner, 333 E. Main. Phone 79. 3-tf

Get an extra pair of trousers free with your suit at Orres tailor shop.

ANNE McCORMICK

County Food Demonstration Agent urges all women to Keep Household Accounts

OUR Home Economizer makes simple your book keeping for the home

NO ITEMIZING simply set down figures

Let us show you how easy it is

AT Poley's Drug Store
Poley & Elhart, Druggists

Lieut. Guy LaBelle has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George Cyester, in Ashland, during the past week. The young officer has been commanding returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where he was first in command of Company A of the University of Tennessee, and later had command of the S. A. T. C. unit at Maryville college. Lieut. LaBelle has been mustered out of the service.

J. W. Millner, of Ashland, was a visitor on January 15th at the big exhibit of Southern California products maintained free to the public in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. He also attended the lectures and moving pictures that are a part of the daily program. The exhibit is the largest of any in the country maintained by a commercial organization. Before returning home, Mr. Millner expects to visit several of the many other places of interest in the Southland.

Mrs. C. B. Lamkin received word Wednesday of the death of her brother-in-law, A. E. Stiles, which occurred in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Stiles had been ill for a long time, but the news of his demise was unexpected at this time.

Rev. Elva A. Hobart, pastor of the Free Methodist church, has the pleasure of holding a meeting every Wednesday at the County poor farm. Nearly all of the old folks are glad to join in the old-fashioned song services held there, and their voices always give a hearty welcome to the workers. Mrs. Wells, the matron, is always kind and loving to the inmates of the home, and every thing is always neat and clean.

J. P. Hern of Portland, a news vendor of the S. P. railroad, was taken from train No. 16 in an intoxicated condition Thursday evening by Patrolman Lowe, and locked up in the city hall over night. Friday he was given a hearing before Justice Gowdy, and was sentenced to sixty days in jail and $100 fine. The prisoner was also relieved of ten pints of booze. Sheriff Terrill came up from Jacksonville Friday evening and escorted Hern to the county jail.

Rev. Rhoda Burnett former pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city, will conduct a special meeting which began Sunday evening. Miss Burnett is so widely known in the city of Ashland that many will be glad to hear her speak. A party from Portland is expected to take charge of the praise and song service to begin at 7:30 every evening. "Constructive Religion" is the general topic from the platform of today. Rev. Burnett will preach the form of Christian religion and its essential truths that will lead a man in harmony with God's plan of development. The public is invited to all these services.

Pruitt-Hittson Auto Co.
Medford, Oregon

We have Just received a large shipment of Fisk and Goodyear Tires Plain Tread, Non-Skids and Cords

Also Have a Large Shipment of Chevrolets

Some Good Bargains in Used Fords

Contributions towards replenishing the exchequer of the canteen station have been coming in during the past week. Among the recent gifts of money for this service are $5 from Mrs. Mattern, $2 from Mr. Weisenberger and $2 from Mrs. C. F. Koehler.

VAUPEL'S QUALITY STORE

Now that the holiday rush is over we are preparing for a big spring business. Listed below you will find your needs in the dry goods line that are appropriate for this season of the year.

Athena Underwear

The right undergarment for women and children. It's made to fit. Full shaped in every respect. All styles and weights carried in stock at the usual prices. Be convinced, buy Athena.

Flannel Shirts

Don't overlook our values in Grey Flannel Shirts. Come in two styles—Negligee and Military Collar effect at the nominal price of $3.00 each. The best shirt in town for the money. Give us a trial.

Fine Line of Shoes

When in need of Shoes don't fail to investigate our Big Shoe Department. Full line of the Season's Fashions are always on hand. Our line of Shoes can be relied upon for style and wear at popular prices.

Dress Goods and Silks

If in need of a dress don't fail to give our complete stock the once over. We carry the best to be had in all fabrics and colors.

Don't Overlook Us

Bon-Ton Corsets

Best line in town. Prices range from $1.00 to $5.00 pair. Full line front and back lace carried.

Hose of Luxite

Hose of Luxite needs no introduction to the public for its fine wearing qualities. The best hose on the market for the money.

Sox 50c; Ladies' Hose 75c pair

Coopers Underwear for Men

We have the exclusive agency for the Original Cooper's Underwear. Nuff sed, Wear Cooper's and you will wear no other. Comes from $2.00 up to $5.50 per suit.

Knitted Toques and Scarfs

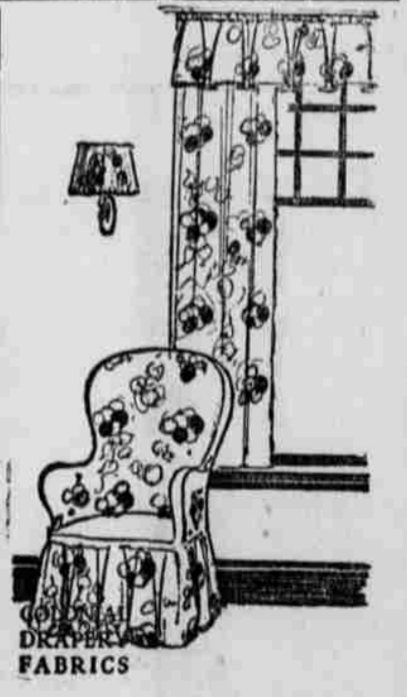

Just a few of these appropriate articles left in stock which we intend to close out at a special bargain. Come in and investigate these values. They will save you money on every article you buy. Don't delay as they are going fast.

Kimono and Outing Flannel

Complete stock and full range of designs on hand in this fabric to be had at 35c per yard. One of the necessities at this time of the year. Buy now while our stock is complete in every way.

Curtain Scrims and Nets

Spring house cleaning will soon be here. Anticipating your needs we have just received a beautiful line of Scrims and Nets for your new curtains. Prices range from 35c per yard up in a full line of patterns.

Any woman who wishes to beautify her home and make it distinctive can do so by using Colonial Drapery Fabrics.

It is a simple matter to make Colonial cretonne curtains as well as other useful cretonne articles that fit successfully into the plan and color scheme.

We have a large collection of Colonial Drapery Fabrics. See them at your earliest opportunity.