

BAREFOOT SANDALS

We have them in sizes 2 1/2 baby's to 7 large.

The Boot Shop
ASHLAND OREGON

WEAR A FLOWER FOR MOTHER

A colored flower in honor of mother living and a white one in memory of mother dead, should be worn by all next Sunday. The second Sunday in May has been set apart for this observance, and each and every one should pay this tribute of respect to the mother living or to the memory of one who has gone before. Carnations both white and colored have been raised expressly for this beautiful custom at the Ashland Greenhouses, Oak and Heiman streets, and can be provided in any quantity desired. Baskets of flowers can also be furnished at this establishment which make a most acceptable gift for "Mothers' Day."

The Social Realm

Eastern Stars Surprise Member.
Alpha Chapter of the Eastern Star held initiation ceremonies at their regular meeting last Tuesday evening, after which a social session followed, welcoming two new members into the fold. Mrs. N. B. Reynolds then entertained the Chapter with two beautiful piano solos. This event was further enlivened by the observance of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. H. Day, one of the most prominent and most dearly beloved members of the Chapter. In some manner the number of years in which Mrs. Day has resided on this terrestrial sphere had become known to the members of the Chapter, and a little surprise was planned for this estimable lady as a token of the esteem in which she is held by her friends. When the doors to the dining room were thrown open for the refreshments to be served, Mrs. Day was escorted to the table on which was placed a huge birthday cake surrounded by a number of lighted candles, one for each year of Mrs. Day's life. Congratulatory addresses were given by F. D. Wagner, Mrs. A. Schuerman, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Mrs. J. H. Turner and were gracefully responded to by Mrs. Day and her husband. The recipient of this honor was presented with a birthday book in which all present ascribed their names and the date of their births. The evening's festivities were concluded with the old-time favorite, the Virginia Reel, after which the company disbanded wishing Mrs. Day as many returns of her birthday anniversary as she had already celebrated.

Surprise Party.

A number of the friends of Miss Gertrude Biede surprised her at her home last evening. The event was in honor of her birthday, and the young lady was totally unprepared for the invasion of her home which took place about 8:30. The self-invited guests made themselves at home and arranged the mode of entertainment, which consisted of card-playing and dancing. A fine luncheon was furnished by the attendants, among which were two beautiful birthday cakes ornamented with candles. The recipient of all these honors received a host of unique gifts, the opening and displaying of which caused much amusement. Winners of the card prizes were Miss Helene Casey and Millard Grubb, while O. C. Hinds carried off the booby prize. The attendants at the party were: Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock, Misses Georgie Coffee, Calla Biegel, Helene Casey, Gertrude Biede, Helene Biede, Mrs. Emma Coffee, and Messrs. C. D. Stoddard, Earl and Milton Biegel, Roy Cairns, Millard Grubb and Bert Freeman.

Big Double Bill at the Vining.

The story of "How Could You, Jean?" starring Mary Pickford, deals with an aristocratic young girl who when her income ceases thru unfortunate circumstances, is obliged to work for a livelihood. She shocks her friends when she accepts a position as cook in the house of a literary couple. Presently there appears the son of a grouch millionaire and, won by her beauty, he obtains employment in the same household as a servant in order that he might woo the girl of his heart. There are many interesting moments, including a man chase, a barn fire and other incidents, all of which have their thrill and heart appeal, especially when this camouflaging couple ultimately find their proper stations in life and come to a realization of their mutual love. This is an unusually fine picture in which "Our Mary" is seen at her best.

On the same program will be seen Fatty Arbuckle in his latest 2-reeler, "Love." "Fatty" rides into this picture on an old-fashioned, high-wheeled bicycle and he falls off it into—Love—boiling, palpitating love!

And there's a villyun. He comes and cops the girl and under the load that encases "Fatty's" fragile bones, a heart that was cooing with affection darn near busted.

Wedded Last Night.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pratt on Factory street Thursday evening at 8 o'clock when the latter's sister,

Vining Friday and Saturday

TWO BIG STARS:

Mary Pickford, in "How Could You Jean"

and Fatty Arbuckle "In Love"

ROSCOE FATTY ARBUCKLE
MANAGEMENT - AMUSEMENT - LITERATURE

When "Fatty" fell in love he headed straight to the point—the girl.

Obstacles? "Fatty" should worry! Rival? Out of the way, Fido! Mother? Sit down and ket your breath. Fun? You know. It's "Fatty"! The one and only "Fatty."

Coming Sunday and Monday—
Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"

Miss Dorothy Trefren became the wife of William McFurson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church, and the bride was attended by Gladys Norton as bride's maid. Aside from the members of the Pratt family other guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Trefren, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Norton. This wedding had been planned to take place next Sunday, but yesterday Mr. McFurson received a message stating that his mother was seriously ill, so the marriage took place last night and the bride and groom left on the midnight train for San Francisco. The bride is a popular Ashland young lady and has many friends here who extend best wishes for her future happiness. Mr. McFurson is a deputy sheriff of Jackson county and is well known thru-out the county. On their return Mr. and Mrs. McFurson will make their home in Ashland.

C. E. Business Meeting.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church met for regular business meeting at the Manse Tuesday evening. Reports read showed the society at work and had netted a neat sum for Foreign

"A man can borrow money on what he puts into a home. He can't on what he pays out for rent."
"I want to see every wage-worker own his own home."
—W. B. Wilson, U. S. Sec'y of Labor.
We have several choice homes as well as bargains in acreage. Some can be sold on small payments and easy terms.

Beaver Realty Co.

THE POPULAR REALTY CO.
211 E. Main St., Phone 63

Missions from the King's Highway entertainment. Plans for the Daniel Poling meeting, May 17th, were discussed. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Lilly Poley; Vice President, Pauline Clift; Secretary, Edith Herrin; Treasurer, Walter Miksch. These officers will be installed Sunday evening next. Refreshments that were truly refreshing followed and after singing "Brighten the Corner where you are" the meeting adjourned.

Surprised Their Neighbor

Friends and neighbors surprised H. Hash on Oak street Saturday evening. A splendid program was rendered during the evening. Mesdames Wilks, Starr and Dollahide helped to make the evening enjoyable by vocal solos, and Mr. Denny, Jr., rendered a number of violin solos. About 40 sat down to a feast and fared sumptuously. After showering the host with handkerchiefs, the friends departed, all declaring they had enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Bridge Party.

Twelve tables were arranged for lady Elks at the Temple Tuesday afternoon at their twice a month bridge party. Of these two tables were devoted to visiting players from Medford. Mrs. N. G. Bates and Mrs. G. N. Kramer were hostesses. The next meeting will take place the third Tuesday in the month, May 20, at which the hostesses will be Mrs. Ella B. Mills and Mrs. Victor V. Mills.

Senior Class Play.

The Seniors of the Ashland high school are preparing a class play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," which they will present to the public Friday evening, May 16, at the high school gymnasium. This is a three-act comedy and is full of thrilling situations and amusing features that will make this play one of unusual interest. A large number of the senior talent will take part in this production.

Boy Scouts Give Play.

The play, "A Strenuous Afternoon," given by the Boy Scouts last Wednesday evening in the high school gymnasium attracted a large and appreciative audience. The play absorbed virtually all the members of the troop and was a very creditable performance. A neat sum was netted for the benefit of the Scouts.

Card Party.

Trinity Guild of the Episcopal church will give another card party in the Parish House on Thursday afternoon, May 15th. Bring your fancy work or enjoy Five Hundred. Admission, 25c.

E. E. BAGLEY DIED

AT MILBANK, S. D.

Ashland residents were shocked when tidings reached here Monday containing the sad news that E. E. Bagley, former prominent resident of this city, had died suddenly that morning at Milbank, S. D., where he had been located in business for the past year. The news of Mr. Bagley's death was sent here by night letter to his sisters, Mrs. C. W. Nims and Mrs. Stuart Saunders. Details were lacking, but the deceased had been a sufferer from hardening of the arteries for some time, and it is supposed that his death resulted from that malady.

Elmer E. Bagley was 58 years of age and had been a resident of Ashland with his family for about eleven years, altho he had had business interests in this vicinity two or three years previously. The Bagley family had been closely identified with the business and social affairs of the city, and have made many close friends during their residence here. About a year ago Mr. Bagley went to Milbank, South Dakota, where he assumed the office of secretary and treasurer of the real estate department of the Milbank bank. He had been to his home in Ashland recently on a short visit and only a few weeks ago returned to his business in Milbank.

Surviving Mr. Bagley are his wife, a daughter, Miss Doris Bagley, who is in Portland, and son, Elmer Jr., a student of the Oregon Agricultural College. Three sisters, Mrs. Nims and Mrs. Saunders of Ashland, and Mrs. Hall of Haward, Ill. The body was taken to his former home in Marengo, Ill., for burial, the funeral taking place Thursday.

George Andrews, the well known musical director of Medford, is very ill, suffering with paralysis. While attending the Choral Society meeting Tuesday night he became suddenly ill with what at first was thought to be acute indigestion. It will be several days yet before his attending physicians can state the outcome of his sickness.

ASHLAND TIDINGS

—FOR—

SALES BOOKS

We are prepared to supply all kinds of SALES BOOKS

NON-DUPLICATE, DUPLICATE, TRIPLICATE AND QUADRUPPLICATE

Either with carbon leaf or carbon on the back

We Meet All Competition

Give us a chance at your sales book business

TELEPHONE 39 AND SALESMAN WILL CALL

Comply With the Law

AND USE

Printed Butter Wrappers

ACCORDING to the ruling of the Oregon Dairy and Food Commission all dairy butter sold or exposed for sale in this state must be wrapped in butter paper upon which is printed the words "Oregon Dairy Butter, 16 (or 32) ounces full weight," with the name and address of the maker.

To enable patrons of the Tidings to easily comply with this ruling this office has put in a supply of the standard sizes of butter paper and will print it in lots of 100 sheets and upward and deliver it by parcels post at the following prices:

- 100 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces $1.50
- 250 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces $2.25
- 500 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces $3.00

Send your orders to us by mail accompanied by the price of the paper and it will be promptly forwarded to you by parcel post, prepaid.

We use the best butter paper obtainable, and our workmanship is of the best. Let us have your order and you will not regret it.

Ashland Tidings
Ashland, Oregon