Manager Staples Arranges For Airplanes Here Fourth Of July

While in Medford Monday negotiating for the automobile exhibit to be one of the leading features of the Fourth of July celebration E. T. Staples witnessed the airplane exhibit given by the fleet that arrived there in the forenoon on its way from Mather Field to the Portland Rose Festival. During the stay of the fleet there Mr. Staples got in touch with Colonel Henry L. Watson, commanding officer of the expedition, to whom he laid the claims of Ashland for an exhibit during the celebration here, with the result that this city will, in all probability have these air visitors here during the three days of this celebration.

The management of the celebration have been negotiating with the Oregon Aero Club with the result that an exhibit is practically promised for that date, but the colonel of this fleet going north yesterday stated that he expects to take the matter up with the authorities when he reached Portland, and thinks that without doubt these planes will come back this way in time to arrive here for July 3, 4 and 5.

Ashland has an ideal site for airplane landing, according to the pathfinders who visited this section a couple of weeks ago, laying out a trail for the flight to the Rose Festival. This is just across Bear creek, in plain sight of the city, which was reported by the visitors to be the finest landing field in the state. Whether or not the airplanes that passed over Ashland yesterday will return here next month or sooner is not definitely known, but it is virtually certain that an air circus will be one of the leading attractions at the Fourth of July celebration.

Planes Pass City On Northern Trip

The army planes en route to Portland from Mather Field passed so far above Ashland yesterday morning that their presence was only glimpsed in the sky as they went over the valley on their way to Medford where they landed and gave an exhibit. According to the plans made at the time of the visit of the officers who were here locating landing fields for the flying circus, the cities omitted on the flight north would be visited when the air craft returned, so Ashland has that prospect for the future.

Word was sent to Ashland early in the morning that the planes had left Grenada, Calif., and would be due in a short time. For upwards of a couple of hours the inhabitants spent most of the time gazing heavenward, and about 10 o'clock their vigil was rewarded by seeing several tiny specks appearing over the southern horizon. The fire whistle then apprised the residents of the arrival of the air flight, and the greater majority of the population turned out to gaze aloft at six motes about the size of gnats floating in the ether. The whirl of the engines, however, proclaimed them honest to goodness airplanes as they made their way leisurely across the intervening stretch of the upper valley. Two had the kindness to return and circle a trifle closer so that the body and wings of the great machine could be distinctly seen with the naked eye.

On reaching Medford the planes went over the city to the landing field on the Jacksonville road where they went thru various maneuvers and took on a supply of gas before continuing their flight. The fleet separated at Medford, the first section stopping at Corvallis and Lebanon before reaching Portland, and the second visiting Roseburg, Eugene and Salem.

The seventh plane came along some time after the first six of the fleet and passed over the entire valley without stopping.

J. M. Alnutt, who has charge of the dance concessions for the Fourth of July celebration, left Monday night, accompanied by Claude Morton for Portland to engage music for this feature. The dancing public can be assured that the best music to be obtained will be secured for this occasion.

SNEAKTHIEVES TAKE OUTFIT FROM STORE

Sneakthieves entered the clothing department of H. G. Enders & Sons store last Sunday night, presumably for the purpose of securing a new outfit of wearing apparel, as a suit and hat were the only articles purloined so far as could be learned. In their place the marauder left an overcoat and hat. No clue to the former owner of the garments was left, save some picture postcards in the pocket of the coat with scenes from Redding.

Auto Show To Be Great Attraction

E. T. Staples, manager of the celebration office in the Hotel Austin block, visited Medford Monday and while there received information that points to information that every automobile dealer in that city will put cars in the auto exhibition that is going to be one of the leading features of the three day celebration July 3, 4 and 5. This show is going to stage exhibits of cars of every model from 1901 to 1920 and will be participated in by all dealers not only in Ashland and Medford, but all over the Rogue River valley.

This automobile show will be staged in the park and is going to be one of the most interesting features of the celebration, and will show the wonderful progress that has been made in motors within the past eighteen years.

O. A. C. HONORED ITS FALLEN HEROES

The memory of 50 men was honored at the Gold Star Memorial service at the Oregon Agricultural College Monday morning. A large company of parents and close relatives of the soldier dead was present at the ceremonies. Among those for whom gold stars have been placed on the honor roll are two Ashland boys who fell in the discharge of duty, Walter A. Phillips and Clement Summers.

Huns Have 5 Days To Sign Or Reject

PARIS, June 9.—The conference is considering plans for easing the terms upon which Germany may be admitted to the league of nations. She will be admitted if she shows a stable government, signs the treaty and loyally executes it. The replies to Germany will not be delivered before Friday.

It will be stipulated that Germany must accept or reject the treaty within five days. The delay in framing the reply to Germany is said to be due to divergent views of Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau.

Treaty a Peace Of Hate Says Austria

VIENNA, June 9.—The peace terms presented to Austria are impossible and mean the death of the country by starvation, President Seitz declared in his address opening the extraordinary session of the national assembly yesterday.

After declaring that the treaty was a peace of hate, Bauer released personal vials of wrath against the Czechs, who, he said, had taken all of Austria's sugar. The loss of German Bohemia to Austria, he added, meant not merely subjection of over 3,500,000 Germans to foreign rule, but the loss of the most valuable parts of German-Austria, industrially and culturally.

Dr. Bauer declared the Tyrol would never submit to the peace terms and that it, as well as the Germans of Bohemia, had the sympathy of all Germans.

Advertising Matter Ready To Distribute

All advertising matter for the big Rogue River Roundup, including 500 one sheets, 5,000 hand bills, 1000 window cards and 2000 road signs, are now in the hands of the advertising committee, and the problem of distributing this literature is one that has the committee guessing. There seems to be only one way to do it, and that is that every automobilist contemplating a trip to any part of the county take it upon himself to cover that particular territory, and must be done at once.

There are at least 500 miles of territory north, east, south and west of Ashland that needs attention, so it's up to the locals to get busy, and any one wishing to donate a little time for the good of the cause will please call at Ferguson's store and get what they are willing to handle.

Who will be the first one.

ECHO RALLY OF S. S. CONVENTION

An Echo Rally of the State Sunday School Convention at Corvallis will be held in the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mrs. C. B. Lamkin, Rev. J. W. Hoyt, Victor Dale and O. F. Carson will give talks on the convention. There will be special music. All are invited and Sunday school workers are especially urged to attend.

Alleged Horse Thieves Caught

G. L. Humphrey, sheriff of Klamath county, passed thru Ashland Monday morning from Jacksonville, where he apprehended Bob Smith and Charlie Vann, wanted in Klamath for horse-stealing. According to the report given out by the sheriff these boys are alleged to have gone up to Silver Lake in Klamath county and picked up eleven head of horses and were attempting to get them out of the country.

Last Saturday Chief of Police Hatcher was notified that the dog belonging to Fred Parker was stolen, and while looking around in the vicinity of the old Jake Walker place east of Ashland Chief Hatcher found a drove of horses in the corral at that point. Thinking they might be the horses missing in Klamath county, he telephoned to Klamath Falls about the animals. Later Sheriff Humphrey came on and with the assistance of Sheriff Terrill, one of the men was caught at Medford and the other on Butte creek. It is thought they became alarmed and left the horses at the corral here while they attempted to escape.

The suspects are only about 18 years of age and protest their innocence. They were taken back to Klamath county Monday morning by Sheriff Humphrey together with the horses that were picked up here.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN WILL BE CONDUCTED

A statewide occupation campaign will be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. thru the interstate committee for Oregon and Idaho, the object being to meet the needs of older boys and young men in rural communities and small cities. It is in the nature of an enlarged extension program. An appeal for co-operation of men in Portland is being made, and an additional contribution of from 25 to 40 per cent for state and international work is desired. The proposed program will make it possible to form county associations. Included in the proposed work are organizations for men in industries in Oregon and Idaho and provision for training men for employed officers in the association. W. J. Korr, of Corvallis, president of Oregon Agricultural college, is chairman of the interstate committee.

Billy Sunday May Open Chautauqua

John H. Fuller, superintendent of the Chautauqua Association, received a letter from "Ma" Sunday today, stating that she and Mr. Sunday will visit Ashland during the coming session of the Southern Oregon Chautauqua, next month, and that the latter will be one of the attractions on the program. It is probable that this noted speaker will open the Chautauqua on July 18.

Noted Pianist With Schumann-Heink

Accompanying Madame Schumann-Heink, who will sing in Ashland June 18, is Ernesto Berumen, the pianist, whose remarkable playing has been delighting audiences wherever he has appeared. At the age of three this young artist showed a marked inclination for the piano, playing by ear melodies which he had heard. He studied with the best teachers who could be obtained in Mazatlan, Mexico, where he was born, until such time as he was old enough to leave the parental home. After studying in Los Angeles he went to Paris where he studied with George de Lausnay. This was followed by a long stay in Leipzig. Here he became a pupil of Prof. Teichmüller, the famous pedagogue. Under his tuition the talents of young Berumen matured to ripe artistry and his concert appearances which began at this time, brought forth the most enthusiastic eulogiums from the press.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR COMING WEEK

Forecast for the period June 9 to June 14, 1919, inclusive. Pacific coast states: Generally fair with normal temperature.

Keymen Called To Strike Wednesday

A nation-wide strike of telegraph and telephone operators who are members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America was ordered Saturday to take effect next Wednesday morning at 8 a. m. standard time. The order was issued at general headquarters of the union in Chicago on telegraphic instructions from S. J. Koenekamp, international president, who was in Pittsburgh on his way to Chicago.

The strike order is declared effective against employees of the Western Union Telegraph company, the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, and its associated institutions.

It was estimated at the headquarters in Chicago that the strike would affect between 60,000 and 100,000 individuals, of whom nearly 25,000 were said to be members of the union. Outside of the union ranks it was said many wire workers had pledged themselves to support a strike.

The decision to call a nation-wide strike was reached by President Koenekamp after spending several days in Washington where he had directed a strike of union employees in ten southeastern states. That strike followed a strike of telephone workers in Atlanta, where telephone employees were said to have been discharged because of union affiliations altho the Southern Bell Telephone company denied that union membership had been the basis of any discharges.

BIG WOOL PURCHASE

Last week we sold our entire 1919 clip of wool to L. Gartner at 53½ cents per pound. The transaction ran into nearly a thirteen thousand dollar deal. This price is ½ cent higher than other dealers offered us and our transaction with Mr. Gartner has been highly satisfactory in every way. He has bought some other clips and says he will now make wool buying one of his chief activities every year in the future. It is a good thing for Ashland to have a large wool buyer like Mr. Gartner who has connections where he can take heavy holdings like we had this year for cash in hand.

Grants Pass Wins Game With Ashland

"Bud" Pernoll's aggregation of ball players from Grants Pass presented the game here without even playing for it—according to the version of the crowd, which was a fair representation of fans at Round-up Park Sunday.

Things went fair until the third inning with no score when Ashland's pitcher "went up." By the time the fracas was quieted down Grants Pass had stowed away nine runs—enough to win the game hands down.

Harris, whose arm has been sore all spring, went in and held the visitors down to two runs the balance of the game, which is a creditable showing under such a handicap.

The locals left their batting eye at home also—only annexing six hits off Frye who was in rare form. Pernoll, ex-leagues, was the star of the day with the willow, getting three drives into left field for extra bases.

The return game will be played at Grants Pass a week from Sunday as next Sunday a game is scheduled between the locals and the S. P. shop team at Round-up Park.

This will be THE game of the season and all the fans are anxiously waiting to see the great national game played in all its varied forms—with very few exceptions.

Epworth Leaguers Convene In Medford

The annual convention of the Klamath district Epworth League was in session in Medford three days, beginning Friday and lasting over Sunday. The sessions were held in the Methodist church and were attended by a large number of delegates and visitors. The opening session was held Friday afternoon, at which time several important addresses were given by League workers in the district.

A banquet was held at 6:30 and the evening service was opened with devotional conducted by H. S. Palmer of Ashland. Special music was furnished by the Ashland League, and the leading attraction were delineations and lectures, "Other Lands, America, the Beautiful," by F. W. Bross.

Saturday a sunrise prayer meeting was conducted by Miss Amy Leavitt of Ashland and the principal feature of this day was an automobile ride, a hike and a picnic dinner on Table Rock, with a big bonfire and feed by the river and a moonlight ride home again.

Sunday had a full program, with a sermon in the forenoon, "New Era of Reconstruction," by Rev. C. R. Carlos. In the afternoon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Rev. L. E. Belnap, assisted by other clergymen, and an address, "Life Service," by Rev. C. A. Edwards, of Ashland, followed by the installation of officers. The convention sermon in the evening closed a remarkably interesting and instructive convention.

NOTICE!

Five suit cases will be sold at auction to the highest bidder in front of the police office at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 14. J. W. HATCHER, Chief of Police.

This is Boy Scout week in which a nation-wide campaign is being made to secure 1,000,000 associate members, and the local troops are putting in a busy time in carrying out the program planned for the week. Owing to the severe cold which incapacitated Rev. C. F. Koehler from preaching the sermon to the Boy Scouts as announced, the members of the two troops attended the Baptist church in a body and listened to the sermon delivered there by the pastor, Rev. W. N. Ferris.

Today the boys are being given an auto ride, and after congregating at the Plaza for that purpose at three o'clock were taken out for an outing by various car owners who have loaned their automobiles for this purpose. This evening the banquet for the citizens of Ashland in their honor will take place at the Austin Hotel at 6 o'clock, at which many short addresses will be delivered.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, the Scouts of Troop 1 will give a free exhibition on the Plaza at 4 o'clock, and in the evening a public mass meeting will take place in the Chautauqua auditorium at which all are invited to attend.

Boy Scout Drive On For Membership

One million grown-ups over the United States will pay to the Boy Scouts a debt of gratitude incurred when the lads patriotically aided in putting over the Liberty Loans and the Red Cross drives. They will do it by joining the Boy Scout organization as associate members at one dollar a year during the campaign inaugurated last Sunday when boys in the khaki uniform stepped into Oregon churches and aided the pastors in explaining the purposes of the organization.

The chest of $1,000,000 will go to extend Boy Scout leadership in every community of the United States where there are red-blooded boys without direction in their playtime hours. The national drive leader, W. G. McAdoo, has set 58000 as the quota for Oregon. President Wilson has issued a proclamation asking public support for the campaign and the Red Cross asks members and former workers to assist in writing memberships.

Nearly two hundred troops of Boy Scouts carry on their activities in Oregon and exercise a powerful influence on Oregon's youth which will mean sturdy citizenship in later years. Leaders in the drive assert. The drive slogan is "Invest a dollar in boyhood to build manhood."

Come to the mass meeting Wednesday evening at the Chautauqua building.

Ashland Banks To Get State Funds

State Treasurer O. P. Hoff has designated 169 Oregon banks as state depositories and the United States National Bank of Salem is named as active depository for state funds. The law requires that one active depository be maintained in Salem. Among other banks in the state named as state depositories were the following:

Citizens Bank of Ashland and First National Bank of Ashland; Central Point State Bank, Central Point; Glendale State Bank, Glendale; Josephine County Bank and First National Bank of Southern Oregon, Grants Pass; the Gold Hill Bank, Gold Hill; Grants Pass Banking Company, Grants Pass; Bank of Jacksonville, Jacksonville; First National Bank and First State and Savings Bank of Klamath Falls; Jackson County Bank, Medford National Bank, First National Bank and Farmers and Fruitgrowers Bank of Medford, and State Bank of Talent, Talent, Ore.
