Army Airplanes May Land In Ashland Next Sunday

According to dispatches from Portland the squadron of army airplanes that passed over here last Monday to participate in the Rose Festival at Portland, will leave that city on the return trip early Saturday. Lieutenant Colonel Watson, commanding officer of the squadron, announced that the planes would return by way of Albany, Springfield and Cottage Grove, staying at the latter city Saturday night. Sunday they would come to Grants Pass and Ashland, reaching Grenada, Calif. at night, and Monday morning resume their journey to Mather field, Sacramento.

If the program given out on the trip north is carried out stops will be made at the cities passed over on that flight. These will include Ashland, where a landing field was arranged during the visit of the officers two weeks ago. Efforts will be made to learn the time as nearly as possible, when the planes will be looked for to land here, and the citizens will be informed so that all may have an opportunity to witness the landing and flight of the aircraft should they make a stop here.

From unofficial reports that have come to the Commercial Club it is thought the airplanes will arrive here early Sunday afternoon, as they will leave Cottage Grove in the morning and stop at Grants Pass for an exhibit on the way here. Undoubtedly more definite news will reach the city in time to notify the citizens to be on the lookout for the planes when they arrive at the landing field east of here.

We Have To Help The Celebration

We are all interested in boosting Ashland. The celebration is worth while. It is an assured coming attraction and indications are for a crowd equal to 1917. The committee needs your help.

No doubt there are many who will give financial aid if personally solicited, and it is quite probable the committee may miss seeing some. Would it not be nice for those patriotic citizens with spirit of fairness and helpfulness to voluntarily go to Treasurer Eubanks, at State Bank and leave their contribution. Every dollar helps.

The committee is employing airplanes for 3 day exhibition, 3, 4, 5, and it takes money to do this. It is hoped there will be no slackers. Please help.

Auto Show Opens Celebration July 3

A grand opening auto show will be staged in Chautauqua park, Ashland, at 10 a. m., Thursday, July 3, as the opening feature of the great three day celebration. This will be an open air event under most beautiful conditions, and will be heralded by a band concert, followed by an address by Mayor "Pop" Gates of Medford, in high and low gear, reverse and forward, soft pedal, good pedal, facts, figures and fun. Good roads, bad roads, cause and effect, and nothing but the truth. No one can afford to miss this greatest of opening events.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Grubb have moved into their residence on the Boulevard and Liberty street from their ranch east of the city which they recently sold. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maxey, who occupied the Grubb residence, have taken the Ray Minkler house just vacated by W. T. Coie, who has gone to San Francisco.

CHAUTAUQUA BOARD IMPROVING GROUNDS

The Chautauqua board has men with a team at work on the grounds surrounding the auditorium, engaged in leveling the knoll, grading and widening the walks. The dirt taken from the hill is being put in the hole left by the tearing down of the old Park Hotel, and this space will be filled and leveled off into a fine lawn. They expect to have this work finished before the coming Chautauqua season next month.

Boy Scouts Given Ride and Banquet

This has been Boy Scout week all over the country, and in Ashland in particular practically everything has made way for the boys. This is one occasion at least when the old adage about children being seen and not heard has been honored in the breach. The boys in Ashland have been seen and heard, and have been encouraged by their elders who for a time have been boys with them.

Starting Tuesday afternoon the Boy Scouts were treated to a dandy automobile ride over the country by some of the generous hearted citizens whose interests in the boys will never wane. The cars belonging to O. F. Carson, E. V. Carter, J. W. Hoyt, C. B. Lamkin, R. P. Neil and T. A. Schall were filled with members of the two troops of Boy Scouts, and at 3 o'clock started out on a 40 mile joyride over the county, touching at Jacksonville, Gold Hill, Central Point, Medford and on home again. This was a never-to-be-forgotten outing that was hugely enjoyed by the young boys and the older boys who accompanied them.

The Scouts returned in time to partake of the sumptuous banquet which was tendered them by the citizens of Ashland in the Hotel Austin. Fifty guests sat down at the tables at 6 o'clock with appetites whetted by the long ride in the open, and after the first keen edge was taken off, Rev. C. F. Koehler served as toastmaster and presented a number of speakers who gave short interesting talks. The first of these was Rev. C. A. Edwards, who spoke on the topic, "The True-blue Scout." He was followed by "What a Scoutmaster Expects from a Scout," by Scoutmaster King, Edwin Mowat, assistant scoutmaster, gave an inspiring talk to the young people on "What Scouting is Doing for Me," and Mayor Lamkin closed the addresses with a talk on "What Scouts Can Do for the City of Ashland." A short business session followed, and a troop of tired but happy boys adjourned to their welcome awaiting beds.

Wednesday's activities consisted of an exhibit by Troop 1 on the Plaza at 4 o'clock, followed by a mass meeting in the Chautauqua auditorium at which several prominent speakers delivered addresses to the boys. Thursday the members of the two troops left for a three days' camp on the Applegate.

WANT TAX ON ICE CREAM REPEALED

After setting in motion machinery which they hope will redound to the benefit of the small boy who likes ice cream cones, the Retail Confectioners of the Northwest ended the business session at their convention in Portland Tuesday night.

The newly-formed Pacific coast confectioners' association forwarded to the congressional delegations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California, Montana, Utah, Nevada and Colorado, copies of resolutions protesting against the war on ice cream and confectionery, as unfair and discriminatory, and urging its repeal.

REST CURE WILL BE ESTABLISHED HERE

Dr. Maude I. Hawley is fitting up her rooms in the First National Bank building to meet the needs of a rest cure. New baths equipment will be established, allowing for vapor, spray and sitz baths, and she will add new beds rooms to meet the demands for the rest cure she will provide. As soon as completed this will be the only establishment for a milk-diet rest cure in this part of the state.

Many Seats Sold For Coming Concert

The seat sale for the Madame Schumann-Heink concert to be given in the Chautauqua auditorium Wednesday evening, June 18, is good throughout Ashland and the surrounding country. Sales are being made in Medford, Rogue River, Jacksonville, Grants Pass, Central Point and all the intervening country, and indications point to a successful termination of the project which grants the people in this vicinity an opportunity of hearing one of the world's greatest singers. For this event the management hopes that the public will support this attraction strongly, as it will guarantee future entertainments of a like nature should this concert prove a success. A large guarantee has to be raised, and if this is met by the seat sales it will encourage the promotion of other notable attractions.

Portland Gets 1920 Shrine Convention

Portland, Ore., was selected over New Orleans for the 1920 meeting of the Imperial council of the Order of the Mystic Shrine. Portland sent a special train carrying the Al Kader band, Arab patrol, chanters and dancing "girls" together with many western Shriners, all of which made a big impression on the Indianapolis convention and gave a sample of what may be expected in the way of entertainment at the next annual meeting.

Portland Shriners served 15,120 drinks of loganberry juice at the convention.

DEFEAT OF DAYLIGHT SAVINGS BILL PROBABLE

Washington, June 12.—A rider repealing the daylight savings law, effective when the clocks are turned back in October, has been added to the agricultural appropriation bill by unanimous vote of the senate agricultural committee.

Court Hall Sells Crater Lake Garage

Court Hall and son have sold their interest in the Crater Lake Motor Co. to E. E. Waters of Oklahoma, for $6,500.

In buying the Crater Lake Motor company Mr. Waters has purchased the largest automobile repair business between Portland and Sacramento. No change will be made in the present mechanics, and Seely V. Hall will be retained as foreman and chief mechanic. Several other mechanics will be added within the next few days, one of them being Wm. Sullivan, a former Medford man, who has left the Packard agency at Boise, Idaho, to report to the Crater Lake Motor company.

Mr. Waters is an experienced garage man, and will endeavor to keep a sufficient force of mechanics to turn out work promptly.

ASHLAND TRADING CO. WILL BE PLEASED TO QUOTE YOU PRICES ON SEASONABLE GROCERIES.

Girls Camp to be Started in Park

Not to be outdone by the Boy Scouts who have been much before the lime light in the city during the past week or so, an effort is being started to organize the girls of the Rogue River valley into a society to afford them an outing and summer study of a short term. This will include all girls from 15 years and upward who wish to avail themselves of a short study course in Bible and Sunday school work, and have a delightful camping trip in the bargain.

Thru the efforts of Miss Helen Cerlton of Elizabeth, N. J., who is touring the coast for the purpose of organizing young girls' study classes and camping projects, an interdenominational Christian conference for girls has been arranged to take place in Ashland park, beginning this afternoon of July 14, the week

Salvation Army In France Portrayed

An interested audience was present at the Elks Temple last night and listened to the vivid portrayal of the work of the Salvation Army during the world war given by Dr. Charles T. Wheeler, who was sent to France as a special envoy to look up the work and conditions of this religious order in the front line trenches. Dr. Wheeler had a wonderful story to relate of the work carried on by the Salvation Army lasses in the trenches, and made the statement that not once did he hear a complaint against these people, not only in their war work but in all the civil life of the cities in which they are established. Dr. Wheeler was one of the most interesting speakers to give a talk on this war that has visited Ashland. The speaker was introduced to the audience by Prof. Irving E. Vining.

Death Of Former Citizen At Etna

The Slaktyou News of Yreka contained the following account of the death of a former Ashland resident which occurred at Etna Mills last Friday:

On Friday morning the community was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Hans Jordan Christal Werth. The meat market not being open at the usual hour, Charley Werth unlooked the market and found his father lying dead on a couch in the office. A coroner's jury found that death was due to natural causes.

Mr. Werth was a native of Germany, aged 48 years, 2 months and 19 days. He followed the butcher business and had resided in Etna 23 years. The funeral was held Monday from the Congregational church, with Miss Lamb of Fort Jones as pastor. The deceased is survived by Mrs. Werth and five children. Interment was in the Etna cemetery.

Delegates Present Convention Echoes

An instructive meeting was held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at which the representatives of the local Sunday schools who attended the recent state Sunday school convention at Corvallis made their reports. As far as possible the convention program was carried out at the meeting Tuesday night. Convention songs were sung, conducted by G. H. Yeo, and the delegates gave talks on the various subjects that impressed them the strongest at the convention. Mrs. C. B. Lamkin spoke on the children's work and the cradle roll. Victor Dale told of the work of the organized classes. O. F. Carson gave a talk on religious education and the state Sunday School Association. Rev. J. W. Hoyt gave a demonstration of his pneumatic blackboard, which was also given at the convention. Two pleasing musical numbers, a piano solo by Miss Bernice Yeo and a vocal solo by C. A. King, were also given.

Sister Cities Will Help Handle Celebration Guests

Preparations are now complete whereby Talent, Phoenix, Central Point and Medford will handle their share of Ashland's 25,000 celebration visitors, July 3, 4, and 5. An accommodation bureau will be open day and night where visitors may register and be assigned to rooms in local hotels, if they prefer, or in private families.

The contract for the grand display of fireworks has been closed for the 4th and 5th. This exhibition will be handled by experts direct from the factory and many new and novel features are promised that have never before been shown in this country.

Airplanes will perform east of the city the three days of the celebration. This event alone will justify people going miles to see, and will cost around $2,000, but Ashland believes in doing things right and never skimps on money matters when it comes to entertaining the celebration visitors.
