NEW METHODIST PASTOR.

Mr. Peart Said to Be a Man of Striking Appearance and a Strong Speaker.

In the ministerial assignments of the Episcopal church for the coming year clientelle in this city." Rev. Isaac Peart is accredited to the Asteria pulpit. Mr. Peart has been two years in Corvallis, where he built up a strong church. He is said to be a man of striking appearance and a strong speaker.

The conference, which adjourned Monday night, settled the university question by wiping out Portland university, consolidating it with Willamette at Salem. Methodists throughout the state are pleased with this arrangement of an old difficulty.

Rev. C. S. Kline, of Portland, was expelled from the ministry on account of falsehood and unministerial conduct.
