

Extraordinary Sale

Special for Monday and Tuesday.

- Black and Colored Serges $1.00 quality.....50c
Golf Plaid 40 in. 65c quality.....45c
English Flannelette 10c quality.....8c

McAILEN & McDONNELL,

470 Commercial St.

TO ASTORIANS.

The DAILY ASTORIAN will be found on sale in Portland at the well-known stationery house of J. F. Handley & Co., 391 Washington Street.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—Occasional rain today.

AROUND TOWN.

Cranberry picking is now on. O. G. Hughson is down from Portland. G. P. Bower, of Chadwell, was in town yesterday. T. H. Allen, of Denver, is in Astoria for a short time. Dr. Ray Logan, of Portland, is visiting in the city. A. McPharlan and wife are spending a day or two up the river. Collector Fox left for Portland yesterday on official business. Mrs. Captain G. W. Woods started for California yesterday, overland. Miss Hattie Tallent returned yesterday from a visit to the metropolis. Don't fail to see "Vanity Fair" at Fisher's opera house tomorrow evening. Fore rent—Furnished front room on Commercial street, enquire at this office. Miss Kate Shively returned yesterday from a three months' vacation in Portland. Captain H. F. Astrup was a passenger on the State of California on her down trip. We are headquarters for school supplies and prices away down. Shananhan's. The county board of equalization finished its labor yesterday and adjourned. Here is an item for deaf people. The thunder god beat his big base drum yesterday. W. E. Mullen, representing a Portland manufacturing firm, is in Astoria on business.

Mr. A. Miller, proprietor of the Star brewery, Vancouver, Wash., is in the city on business.

Lee Herring, of the National, has been appointed agent of the celebrated Star Hop Gold beer.

We have just received the largest line of golf capes, collarettes, maokintoshes, at lowest prices. Shananhan's.

Contractor Palmberg was awarded the contract yesterday for building the new residence for Mr. Trullinger.

You can find over 10,000 titles of novels at Hyland Bros.' old bookstore, Portland. Drop in and get something to read.

Wanted—A competent woman for general house work. The best wages will be paid. Address "W" Astorian office.

In the circuit court yesterday judgment by default was entered in the case of J. W. Slaughter vs. J. R. Wherry and N. Anderson.

A number of farmers and loggers from the Lewis and Clarke river were in town yesterday as witnesses in the Ingalls-Olsen lawsuit.

The elders of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold services in Fisher's hall Sunday at 2 p. m. All are invited to attend.

Herman Wise offers $1.50 to every person who buys a men's suit or overcoat from him and 10 per cent off on all the rest of his stock.

"Webfoot" is too feeble a word to represent present-day Oregonians. Finaglers and scoundrels are more appropriate in this cloudbursting year of 1899.

Mr. C. Rigler, connected with the circulation department of the Portland Evening Telegram, was in Astoria yesterday on business for his paper.

The British ship Lawton is expected to arrive off the river any day. She is out 130 days from Hamburg and is loaded with general merchandise for Portland.

Mrs. P. F. Woodford will give two lessons a week in shorthand at her home, 188 Commercial street, $6 a month. All interested call Tuesday evening, October 2.

All our 50 cent and 75 cent shirt waists to be closed out at 25 cents. All our $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 shirt waists to be closed out at 50 cents. Shananhan's.

C. G. Palmberg was awarded the contract yesterday for the construction of a new cottage for Will Trullinger.

The telegraph line to the cape was down yesterday morning and no report was received during the afternoon.

Huida Anderson, a Russian-Finn, was adjudged insane yesterday in the county court. She will be taken to the asylum tomorrow night by Sheriff Linville.

R. O. Lanfare and family, of Shalwater bay, who have been visiting with the family of Councilman Shernakau, for the last week, return to their home tomorrow.

Man put asunder another ill-mated pair yesterday. A decree of divorce was granted the plaintiff in the suit of Jos. D. Craig vs. Ida A. Craig, in the circuit court.

The two children of Mr. R. Dealey, who have been low with diphtheria for some time are now out of danger and the quarantine of the residence has been removed.

Lost—Between the new Olney school house and the Astorian office, the secretary's book of the Baptist Sunday-school. Finder will please return to the Astorian office.

Secure your seats at Griffin & Reed's for the performance of "Vanity Fair" at Fisher's opera house tomorrow evening. Don't wait until the doors open as there is sure to be a crowd.

L. W. Harper's Nelson county, Ky., whiskey. A gentleman's whiskey; a whiskey for the sideboard; a whiskey for the sick room. Sold by Ford & Stokes Company, Astoria, Oregon.

Divine services at Grace church today at 11 a. m.; evening prayer with address to the junior auxiliary at 8 o'clock. Evening prayer at Holy Innocent's chapel, Uppertown, at 7:30.

Olaf Peterson would like to inherit some distant relatives estate and, observing James Petty's apparent success, has accepted the position of dog catcher which Petty lately vacated.

The tramp steamer Queen Adelaide is expected off the river today from the Orient. She takes the place on the Oriental route of the steamer Columbia, recently chartered by the government.

The British ship Blytheswood, Captain Dixon, arrived in yesterday, 107 days from Liverpool, with a cargo of general merchandise. She will be towed up to Portland as soon as a towboat arrives.

The funeral of Mrs. A. R. Cyrus yesterday noon was largely attended by the friends of the deceased, and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. The services were held at the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Hollingshead officiating.

The run of tomcod in the river the past few days slackened up yesterday, and only a few were caught by the fishermen along the docks and on the sands abreast of the city. Their scarcity is supposed to be caused by the change in the weather.

A. J. Johnson, A. Danson, S. S. Gordon, John Olive, L. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mrs. O. B. Estes and daughter, R. M. Law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sherman, Benj. Young, Clara Young and Carl Young were among the Astorians in Portland yesterday.

Members of the Second division naval battalion, will assemble at the armory at 7 o'clock Monday evening, October 2, 1899, for the annual inspection by Colonel Jackson, inspector general, O. N. G. By order of Charles H. Abetz, comble, Lieutenant junior grade, commander.

Since the reduced fares have been in force travel on the trains have doubled. There is an animated scene at the depot when the trains arrive and especially when the evening passenger comes in. The boats, too, enjoy a brisk business, notwithstanding that this is not a rush season.

The White Collar line was awarded the contract for transporting the Thirty-fifth regiment from Vancouver to Portland, where it will board the transports. There will be about 1400 men and 500,000 pounds of equipment to move. The steamer Telephone will do the work Monday or Tuesday.

The Washington volunteer regiment will reach San Francisco next week. Governor Rogers and a number of Washington citizens will meet the regiment when it enters the Golden Gate. Plans for taking the regiment up to its home state will not be made until the wishes of the boys are ascertained.

Sheriff Linville sold, yesterday morning, under foreclosure of mortgage, the stock of groceries of the defunct Cash Grocery store on Duane street. The bidders were A. V. Allen, Ross, Higgins & Company and Johnson Bros. After some spirited bidding the entire stock was knocked down to Johnson Bros. for $210.

The transport Sikh left up for Portland early yesterday morning. She encountered stormy weather up the coast, but fortunately met with a pilot on arriving off the river. The bar was unusually rough on crossing in, but no accident occurred. The Thirty-fifth regiment will embark on the Sikh and City of Rio de Janeiro at Portland Tuesday.

Mr. Jackson the expert cutter for the Royal Tailors, of Chicago, will be at Herman Wise clothing store, day after tomorrow, (Tuesday) to take your measure. No matter whether you need a suit, overcoat, pants or vest now, come any way and have your measure taken by an expert for future use, no charge made for measuring.

The dispatch boat McCullough, which was with Dewey's fleet at Manila, is expected off the river this morning from Seattle. The McCullough is no longer under control of the war department, having been transferred to the revenue service. It is said the McCullough has been ordered to Portland to constitute one of the attractions of the Portland exposition.

Holmes' English and Business College at No. 414 Yamhill street, Portland, is prepared to accommodate a large number of pupils this year. Already the classes are well crowded, a fact that indicates the excellent character of the institution.

Why is Watson's restaurant in Portland patronized by thousands of people daily? Simply because it is the largest, finest and best equipped eating resort on the Pacific coast. Watson's restaurant has sixty-eight white employees on its pay roll. Remember the location, 109-11 Fourth street.

Smokers, read—All 15 cent cigars, 10 cents; El Palencia, 10 cents; El Belmont, 10 cents; General Arthur, 10 cents; Leland Stanford, 10 cents; Sanchez Y. Hyas, 10 cents; All 5 cent, 6 for 25 cents. J. F. Handley & Co., cut rate cigar and newsdealer. Perkins hotel building, Portland, Ore.

The Pernin method of shorthand is being taught by Mr. H. W. Behnke in the Oregonian building at Portland. The Pernin system is not only extremely legible after being written, but is exceptionally rapid. It is said that students under Mr. Behnke's direction attain success in one-half the time essential with either Graham, Munson or Pitman methods. This school is open day and night.

A tailoring establishment of some pretensions, located on Washington street, Portland, claims to have made 47 suits for dressy Astorians during the past six months. This statement is denied by the firm of Povey & Birchall, at 327 Washington street, near the Imperial hotel, who are patronized by the great majority of outside customers. Povey & Birchall make the swell suits for most of the stylish Portlanders, and feel that they are not excelled by any Portland firm for out of town patronage.

ermen along the docks and on the sands abreast of the city. Their scarcity is supposed to be caused by the change in the weather.

A. J. Johnson, A. Danson, S. S. Gordon, John Olive, L. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mrs. O. B. Estes and daughter, R. M. Law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sherman, Benj. Young, Clara Young and Carl Young were among the Astorians in Portland yesterday.

Members of the Second division naval battalion, will assemble at the armory at 7 o'clock Monday evening, October 2, 1899, for the annual inspection by Colonel Jackson, inspector general, O. N. G. By order of Charles H. Abetz, comble, Lieutenant junior grade, commander.

Since the reduced fares have been in force travel on the trains have doubled. There is an animated scene at the depot when the trains arrive and especially when the evening passenger comes in. The boats, too, enjoy a brisk business, notwithstanding that this is not a rush season.

The White Collar line was awarded the contract for transporting the Thirty-fifth regiment from Vancouver to Portland, where it will board the transports. There will be about 1400 men and 500,000 pounds of equipment to move. The steamer Telephone will do the work Monday or Tuesday.

The Washington volunteer regiment will reach San Francisco next week. Governor Rogers and a number of Washington citizens will meet the regiment when it enters the Golden Gate. Plans for taking the regiment up to its home state will not be made until the wishes of the boys are ascertained.

Sheriff Linville sold, yesterday morning, under foreclosure of mortgage, the stock of groceries of the defunct Cash Grocery store on Duane street. The bidders were A. V. Allen, Ross, Higgins & Company and Johnson Bros. After some spirited bidding the entire stock was knocked down to Johnson Bros. for $210.

The transport Sikh left up for Portland early yesterday morning. She encountered stormy weather up the coast, but fortunately met with a pilot on arriving off the river. The bar was unusually rough on crossing in, but no accident occurred. The Thirty-fifth regiment will embark on the Sikh and City of Rio de Janeiro at Portland Tuesday.

Mr. Jackson the expert cutter for the Royal Tailors, of Chicago, will be at Herman Wise clothing store, day after tomorrow, (Tuesday) to take your measure. No matter whether you need a suit, overcoat, pants or vest now, come any way and have your measure taken by an expert for future use, no charge made for measuring.

The dispatch boat McCullough, which was with Dewey's fleet at Manila, is expected off the river this morning from Seattle. The McCullough is no longer under control of the war department, having been transferred to the revenue service. It is said the McCullough has been ordered to Portland to constitute one of the attractions of the Portland exposition.

NEW BUSINESS LOCALS

Do you want a good meal when you visit Portland? If so, go to the Portland restaurant, 305 Washington street.

A good meal with meats rich in flavor and one you will enjoy with a relish, is just what you get at the Creamerie restaurant, 371 Washington street, near Third. Try it when you go to Portland.

If you are going up to Portland and miss going to the Creamerie Restaurant, 371 Washington St., you may consider that your trip will not be a success, as others will tell you, who do not miss it.

Holmes' English and Business College at No. 414 Yamhill street, Portland, is prepared to accommodate a large number of pupils this year. Already the classes are well crowded, a fact that indicates the excellent character of the institution.

Why is Watson's restaurant in Portland patronized by thousands of people daily? Simply because it is the largest, finest and best equipped eating resort on the Pacific coast. Watson's restaurant has sixty-eight white employees on its pay roll. Remember the location, 109-11 Fourth street.

Smokers, read—All 15 cent cigars, 10 cents; El Palencia, 10 cents; El Belmont, 10 cents; General Arthur, 10 cents; Leland Stanford, 10 cents; Sanchez Y. Hyas, 10 cents; All 5 cent, 6 for 25 cents. J. F. Handley & Co., cut rate cigar and newsdealer. Perkins hotel building, Portland, Ore.

The Pernin method of shorthand is being taught by Mr. H. W. Behnke in the Oregonian building at Portland. The Pernin system is not only extremely legible after being written, but is exceptionally rapid. It is said that students under Mr. Behnke's direction attain success in one-half the time essential with either Graham, Munson or Pitman methods. This school is open day and night.

A tailoring establishment of some pretensions, located on Washington street, Portland, claims to have made 47 suits for dressy Astorians during the past six months. This statement is denied by the firm of Povey & Birchall, at 327 Washington street, near the Imperial hotel, who are patronized by the great majority of outside customers. Povey & Birchall make the swell suits for most of the stylish Portlanders, and feel that they are not excelled by any Portland firm for out of town patronage.

The Lightest Store in Astoria Wise's Customers see what they buy.

The Better the Grade The Bigger the Trade.

An Astoria Store For Astoria People

$1.50 Discount off every Man's Suit or Overcoat 10 per cent off every Hat, Shirt, Boys' Suit, etc,

- No Portland merchant can beat my prices. No Portland merchant can beat my Stock for Quality. No Portland merchant helps in Astoria's welfare. No Portland merchant can feel the same friendship Or take the same care of Astoria customers as your

HOME MERCHANT

HERMAN WISE,

THE RELIABLE CLOTHIER AND HATTER

J.A. CLEMENSON.

FOR CORNS, BUNIONS, AND CALLOUS.

R. MARSCH

Tonsorial Parlors

301 Washington St., corner Fifth Opposite Hotel Perkins Ladies Hair Dressing a Specialty Ladies entrance to bath on Fifth street. PORTLAND, OREGON.

RALSTON HEALTH CLUB

Breakfast Food Barley Food Acme Gluten Farina, Acme Wheat Flakes and Standard Rolled Oats Select Bran Yeast, Cocoa AT A. V. ALLEN'S

HOTEL PORTLAND

PORTLAND, OR. The Only First-Class Hotel in Portland

FISHER'S OPERA HOUSE

L. E. SELIG Lessee and Manager. Wednesday and Thursday, October 4-5, '99 The Society Event of the Season.

LADY MINSTRELS

By Astoria City Ladies for the Benefit of the Astoria Public Library.

Refined and Funny—A Rousing, Roaring Rally of Songs and Laughter. GREAT FIRST PART.

New Jokes, New Music, New Dances, Fine Solos and Choruses. Six End Ladies. Many Local Hits.

Regular Musical Olio of pleasing specialties. ...THE DARKTOWN CAKE WALK...

Throwing side lights and shadows on the ebony 400. Guaranteed up-to-date high class entertainment. ADMISSION—Reserved Seats 75 cents. Gallery 50 cents. Sale of seats opens Tuesday morning at Griffin & Reed's

Portland and Astoria .. FREE..

To provide the citizens of Astoria and vicinity with the same advantages as the people of Portland, we will, during the continuance of the prevailing rates, furnish round trip tickets from

Astoria to Portland and Return Absolutely Free

By giving one round trip ticket and an Admission to the Exposition with each Suit or Overcoat, purchased of us, no matter what price the garment.

This will enable those desiring to visit the Exposition to do so without cost and at the same time to take advantage of our enormous selection of

FALL AND WINTER SUITS AND OVERCOATS.....

For Mens, Boys and Children. All our goods are marked in plain figures. CUT OUT THIS "AD." and it will be honored for a round trip ticket and an admission to the exposition with each purchase of a Suit or Overcoat.

Moyer Clothing Co.

The Popular Price Clothiers.

BEN SELLING, Manager.

3rd and Oak Sts., Portland