BORDEN'S CONDENSED MILK CO., NEW YORK

Well Protected.

The average good American looks over the morning's news with some apprehension these days while Dewey is at the mercy of New York's enthusiasm lest he shall read that in that town so infested with cranks and freaks and self-advertisers some indignity has been offered to the nation's hero. Already several obscure people have got their names in the papers by visiting the admiral, and one young woman seemed for a time to hover on the edge of success in her attempt to kiss him. And not all those who seek to infect themselves into the news are obscure in the New York meaning of the word, either. So far the returned sailor has been well shielded and with his own alert wit has managed to steer clear of pitfalls, but this good nature and geniality is abundant and the blow may fall at any time.

A Bloumer Crank.

Lady Harberton, who failed to win her suit against an innkeeper for refusing to supply her with refreshments because she was wearing bloomers, presided at the dinner of the Rational Dress League in London last week. When some of the newspaper men, who were the only males present, proposed a toast to the queen, Lady Harberton called out: "No, not The queen does not like 'rationals.' The toast was drunk nevertheless. All of the women at the dinner wore bloomers and most of them smoked.

Censor on the Germanis.

The Milwaukee Germania, a daily newspaper claiming extended influence and circulation, has secured the services of Rev. Dr. Deimling, whose duty it will be to exclude every thing objectionable from the news in the Germania, whether it be offered by the telegraph or the local force. This sounds like a new departure, but when it is remembered that the paper was of benefit to the circulation department - only in case it results in extensive advertisement of the paper. Possibly that was at the bottom of the scheme.

Catarrh is Not Incurable

But it can not be cured by sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures which reach only the surface. The disease is in the blood, and can only be reached through the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which can have any effect upon Catarrh; it cures the disease permanently and forever rids the system of every trace of the vile complaint.

The Newest Boycott.

The newest boycott, or something like it, resulting from the Dreyfus case, is in Chicago, where M. Henry Meron, the French consul there, has notified the fall festival managers that he can have no official connection with nor participation in the affair because of the recent violent manifestations of dislike for the French nation in Chicago and elsewhere. This feeling Mr. Meron believes, would make it unwise to display the flag of France at the festival.

S. S. S. For Blood

will prove it to be the right remedy for Catarrh. It will cure the most obstinate case.
