WORK FOR DOCTORS.

Offices Are Crowded With Children Seeking Vaccination.

Astoria doctors were busy yesterday. All day school children flocked into the offices of the men of medicine and bared their arms for the scratching that inoculates them with small-pox preventative.

There is no school today, and the callers will be more numerous than ever. Some of the little folks dread the process. The long word "vaccination" being associated in their minds with small-pox, has in its eleven letters a terror all its own. But familiarity breeds contempt, and when he discovers that the mysterious process consists only in making a few scratches that scarcely burn, youthful America is inclined to consider the whole business a fraud. Still he poses before the unvaccinated as a hero, and boasts of his fortitude in withstanding the pain of the operation.

The small-pox trouble will temporarily settle the crowded-schoolroom difficulty. There will be many children absent Monday, a number of parents being unbelievers regarding the efficacy and necessity of the Jenner method of counteracting the contagious qualities of small-pox.

Of course the vaccination candidates are not all children. A great many adults are rolling up their sleeves to have the protective lymph applied. This is about the only visible effect that the knowledge that there is small-pox in town has had on the public. No one seems alarmed or excited, and indeed there is no reason for alarm.

HE WAS A SCHOLARLY ATHLETE.

It is said that the pope owes much of his long and vigorous life to the healthy outdoor pastimes he enjoyed when a boy. With his dog and gun he would tramp for miles over the mountains in pursuit of game. Nevertheless, he was a studious boy, wrote Latin verses at the age of 11, and passed his examination at the Roman college with such distinction that a special record was made of it in the college archives.

The high prize of life, the crowning fortune of a man, is to be born to some pursuit which finds him in employment and happiness, whether it be to make baskets, or broadswords, or canals or songs.

Both gentlemen are practical cutters and fitters, who have been employed in some of the largest houses in the principal cities of the United States. There is a style and finish to all work turned out by this firm that stamp both gentlemen experts in this business. Garments will be taken to be made over or repaired, and the work turned out with the least possible delay.

A STRIKE EPIDEMIC.

Strikes are serious things, and in view of the number that have occurred it is well to remember that until the cause is removed, dissatisfaction will depreciate work and prove a menace to society. But it is not only the commercial life which has its strikes. The whole country is groaning under the strike of the stomach, and many people make the mistake of trying to suppress the symptoms instead of removing the cause. There is but one sure way of curing the ills which arise from a rebellious stomach, and that is
