SOCIETY NOTES.
 The past week has been one of rain and high wind. The Indian sign of rain, "cloudy all around and pouring down in the middle," betokened much dampness for Astoria in the seven days just fled, and as usual the sign failed not.

The social spirit was not quenched by falling water, but society sallied out in rubbers and umbrellas, and found pleasure in hops or teas or dinners. It was not a dull week, by any means, and the storms without during the several events but tended to add to the pleasure.

Mrs. Kendall gave a series tea Wednesday and Thursday afternoons in honor of her mother, Mrs. Neal, who leaves soon for her home in California. The weather was terrific, but the hostesses succeeded in making the gala time a gala time. The ladies engaged merrily in testing their skill at "high five," Mrs. Leunberry winning the first prize, and Mrs. Lighter receiving a consolation tribute, Wednesday. The refreshments served were delicious.

The Knights and Ladies of the Macabees entertained themselves and a number of friends Tuesday night with a dancing party at Hanthorn's hall. The storm kept many at home, but those who attended had a thoroughly good time.

The ladies of the Eastern Star received Thursday evening, and the light fantastic was tripped until a late hour. This party was also held at Hanthorn hall. It was a very pleasant affair, well attended and delightfully managed.

The wedding of Mr. Chas. R. Higgins and Miss Maude Warren, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in Warrenton, Wednesday afternoon, was one of the chief social events of the season. The appointments were charming. The spacious parlors were very tastefully decorated in woodland greens, many Indian baskets being used with artistic effect. The ceremony was simple but beautiful. Rev. Henry Marcotte pronouncing the impressive words that united bride and groom. The bride was becomingly attired in dainty white organdie and carried an arm bouquet of exquisite roses. The countless elegant gifts were arranged in the library, mute testimonials of love and esteem. After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, the tables being charmingly decorated with smilax and delicate ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins took the evening train, going to Monterey to spend their honeymoon. They will return about the 1st of December and will make Astoria their home. Mr. Chas. R. Higgins is well and favorably known in Astoria business and society circles. He was formerly in the employ of the People's bank of Halifax, serving that institution in its several branch houses until he was attached to the Quebec branch. In 1883 he accepted a position as assistant cashier in the Astoria National bank, which situation he still retains. The bride is one of Astoria's most popular and accomplished young ladies, and is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Warren. After completing a course of study at Riverside Seminary, Boston, she gave her attention to music, studying with Sobrino of Denver and later with the best teachers on this coast.

At the entertainment given at the Methodist church on the evening of the 17th, the following program was rendered: Vocal solo, Miss Annie Grathke; Vocal solo, Miss Annie Busey; reading, Miss Louise Whidby; recitation, Mr. Alfred Schroder; address, Dr. Peart; debate, "Resolved, That fame is more to be desired than money," Miss Nellie Gerding and Mr. S. C. Turner. The debate was the principal feature of the evening. The leaders of their respective sides chose their assistants from the audience, and when the opportunity was presented for each to speak it was taken with a will, every moment being utilized with interesting arguments. According to the decision of the judges, the affirmative side won the victory.

A POEM ON MANKIND.

Like what is man, but like a sprouting weed,
 That grows and ripens but to cast its seed
 Among the thistles and the tares of life
 And then to see it strangled in the strife?
 Or like the clouds that wander with the breeze
 And pass unnoticed from a life of ease?
 Or like a mushroom, sprung to life,
 Alas!
 To starve or strangle in the tangled grass?
 These are thoughts that are apt to come
 To many people at times, especially
 When they are sick and have to pay
 Big prices for medicine. But there
 Is one drug store in Oregon where you
 Can save from 10 to 25 per cent on Everything you buy, and that is J. A.
 Clemenson's Drug Store, at 227 Yamhill
 Street, Portland, Ore. At that store
 You can get Hood's Sarsaparilla at 70c;
 Mellen's Food, $1 size, 55c; Bromo Seltzer,
 $1 size, 70c, and everything else at
 The same low rate. You can get red
 Trading stamps there, and if you need
 The Natural Body Brace, you can get it
 There.

FINE FRESCO WORK.

An Excellent Example of Oregon Workmanship to Be Seen at the Exposition.

What is it, do you ask?

It is a new way to teach bookkeeping. Students learn to keep books exactly as they are kept in business. No text-book is used. A text-book teaches, in a theoretical way, how books may be kept. Armstrong's teaches, in a practical way, how books are kept. It is a bookkeepers method. Investigate. Call, or write.
