

ASTORIAN BARGAIN COLUMN

It Will Pay You

To look up the bargains I am offering in my crockery stock. Everything is included at great discount from regular prices. Everything in plain and decorated ware; the famous Luster brand, English make. It will pay you to look it over.

They're Popular Now

Have you seen my assortment of ebony brushes? They were purchased direct from New York, and are very popular. Am constantly receiving new goods. Come and see them.

O. W. SMITH, The Leading Jeweler, 336 Commercial Street.

Who Does Your Laundry?

We claim, and we will prove to every one, that we have the best and most up-to-date laundry on the coast. A trial order will convince the most particular. If you want neat, prompt work, try the CITY STEAM LAUNDRY, 523 Franklin Avenue.

Our Special Bargains

We have some broken lines of tinware which we will close out at bargain prices. We are also making special prices on some broken lines of canned fruits and preserves, pickles, table delicacies and sauces. These are a No. 1 goods, and can be had at low prices.

A Class in Spanish

Will be started, to meet evenings at the homes of the members. Plan—Two lessons a week, 20 cents a lesson, eight months' course. Consult by mail or call at the school after 3:30 p. m.

Extra Fine Umbrellas

And at better than Portland prices. It's a fact. They are the celebrated Follmer-Clogg make; handsome, durable silk umbrellas. Don't make the mistake of buying elsewhere.

Better Than Ever

The Bond Street Fish Market is better than ever prepared to supply fresh and salt fish of all kinds. Goods delivered to any part of the city and satisfaction guaranteed.

Millinery Novelties

I desire to further call the attention of the ladies to my handsome stock of trimmed millinery. It comprises the latest creations of the millinery art, and I am offering reduced rates for the next 30 days.

Harry Johnson, a fisherman, died Wednesday evening at St. Mary's hospital from a cancer. His funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors.

Frank Sanborn who has been quite ill with typhoid fever for the past month is improving in health.

Judge McBride decided yesterday that Attorney Allen's answer in the case of Hamilton vs. city of Astoria was sufficiently definite and certain and over-ruled plaintiff's motion.

County Judge Gray yesterday increased the list of England's losses. Thomas Mitchell, a native of Great Britain, has now all the rights and privileges of American citizenship.

"Just like Joll's." This is what a Portland gentleman said of the delicious chocolates made at the Spa Candy Factory. You will say the same when you try them. There are none better.

The entertainment to be given next Wednesday evening for the benefit of the memorial fund, will be of unusual excellence. Astorians remember with pleasure the program Mr. Shields put on here during the regatta, and he promises for next week an even more interesting collection of features.

All Astorians who visit Portland and desire spending a pleasant evening in company with polite people and in the enjoyment of an unexcelled musical program, should go to the Fredericksburg. Besides vocal and instrumental selections there are many other attractions to delight the visitors. The new management is making the Fredericksburg a well-merited success.

Don't miss a treat, which you will always regret, but hear Mrs. L. E. Bailey who will lecture on "Home or Saloon" at Methodist church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock; also at 7:30 at Temperance hall in Uniontown, and Monday evening at the same hour at the Danish Methodist church in Upper-town. Every body invited. Admission free.

Miss Sigge Palmberg, recently arriving from the East, desires to announce to the ladies of Astoria that she has opened dressmaking parlors on Ninth street, near Commercial, next door to Dellinger's printing office. Miss Palmberg has had thorough experience in cutting and fitting ladies' garments of all kinds, particularly tailor-made suits and cloaks of the latest and most fashionable designs.

Jack Keating wrote "Just as the Sun Went Down." It was one of the most popular songs inspired by our recent war and is whistled and sung in every hamlet in the United States. Mr. Keating is a pianist possessing that happy dashing touch that pleases a general audience and Mr. Shields has secured his services for the "memorial fund" entertainment to be given next Wednesday evening.

The Astoria Gas Light Company has just received from the Caledonian Coal Company, Australia, another cargo of their celebrated Wallsend Coal. This bituminous coal has the reputation of being the finest fuel coal in the world, and our coals made from the same contain 90 per cent carbon, making it an excellent fuel. Not that your drayman delivers you none other. Price, $3 per ton.

State Biologist F. L. Washburn was in Albany Wednesday and met there 19 barrels of young Eastern oysters, which he took to Yaquina bay, where they will be planted. The shipment weighed a ton and a half. Professor Washburn says the experiment with Eastern oysters at Yaquina has proved successful, the oysters having spawned and developed satisfactory growth. The conditions at Yaquina having proved favorable, this shipment is made permanently to stock the oyster beds there with Eastern oysters.

THE LIBRARY FUND. The Movement Receives the Endorsement of Governor Geer.

The governor of Oregon has written an endorsement of the proposition to honor the memory of Edwin C. Young. He says: "The proposed movement would be a very fitting and beneficial testimonial to the appreciated valor of the young men who so loyally and promptly responded to the call of duty, and I trust will meet with the generous support not only of the people of Astoria, but of other sections of the state where the opportunity for contribution is offered. I am sure the library would be highly appreciated by the college, not only for its intrinsic value, but for the patriotic object which was the basis of its contribution."

FROM TWO CADETS. Astoria College Boys Writing Concerning the Library.

Corvallis, October 21.—Editor Astorian: I noticed in the columns of the Weekly Astorian a piece about the raising of a fund to purchase a library to the memory of Edwin C. Young.

Edwin Young, a former member of the O. A. C. always had a reputation as being a scholar and gentleman, and made friends among the students and people of this city.

As a student of the O. A. C. I and many other students highly appreciate your plan, knowing that nothing can be too good to perpetuate the name of Edwin Young.

Hoping that you will be successful, I remain, yours respectfully, ALBERT KINNEY.

Corvallis, October 21.—Editor Astorian:—While looking through the columns of your paper I noticed an article concerning the raising of a fund for the Edwin C. Young library. I think that this is a great movement and that nothing better could be done to the memory of the late volunteer.

The notice was shown the president and he was highly pleased. It was soon among the students that this movement was on hand and I take the responsibility of saying that it will receive a hearty support by all of us.

The cadets worship the name of "Our Hero" and whenever it is mentioned a sad look comes upon the faces of those around. His name is held in honor by the entire school. When the report came of his death in the far off Philippines there was an expression upon each face that told of the love we had for him. He died a hero for one is a hero who would risk his life for his country. But all must answer to Fate's call—even monarchs must go.

I heartily agree with your plans and hope that a popular subscription be made, and that it will prove successful. I remain, Yours truly, Cadet BERT G. WILLIS, O. A. C.

The Garnet Hill was able to get out yesterday. Yesterday the ship Guernsen arrived down from Portland. The three master ship Artic Stream arrived in port yesterday. The dredge W. S. Ladd is at the foot of Ninth street taking on coal. The German ship Ferdinand Fisher came down from Portland yesterday. The schooner T. S. Jewett with lumber from Klappan left out yesterday. The new tug Jessie Borthwick was flying round the harbor yesterday on a trial spin.

The ship Alcinous which has been discharging coal at the gas company's wharf was towed up the river yesterday.

The steamer ... was unsuccessful in getting out on Wednesday owing to the rough sea and was obliged to put back. She ... yesterday.

It has not been decided just when the schooner Jessie will make her third cruise. It will be necessary to ship a mate and a part of a crew before any movements can be made and after that is done the date of departure will be settled on. It is fully intended, however, to make the trip.

THE RATE FIGHT.

A representative of one of the steamboat lines declares that the tariff fight will continue until the railroad company fixes the rate between Astoria and Portland at $2.50, with $4 for the round trip.

All the lines insist that they are profiting by the heavy cut, and their spokesmen will tell the inquirer that they are vastly pleased with the profitable business they are doing, yet, singularly enough, none speak kindly of those they claim are responsible for the present lucrative state of affairs.

There are no visible prospects for a cessation of the war. There is little by which to determine its object—whether it be a contest over the "differential" or a campaign for the possession of the A. & C. R. One man's guess is about as good as another's.

BEAUTIFUL CALENDAR FREE. Fairbank's Fairy calendar for 1909 is a beautiful six-piece art calendar, 10x12 1/2 inches in size, on heavy plate stock. There are six different designs (one on each sheet) elegantly lithographed in colors and tied with silk ribbon. These designs are original water color paintings by one of America's best artists, and show pretty children in the uniform of our navy, cavalry, infantry, etc. They are strikingly beautiful and will please everybody. This calendar is equal to those usually retailed for 50 cents to $1.00 in the leading art and stationery stores throughout the country.

By sending your name and address to The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, Ill., and enclosing five (5) Fairy Soap wrappers, or 10 cents in stamps to cover expense of wrapping and mailing, you will be able to obtain a copy of this beautiful calendar.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE. To make it apparent to thousands who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a coactive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.
