One of the important provisions of the new Samoan agreement is that both the United States and Great Britain are given equal rights with Germany in the islands controlled by that power, the United States reciprocally A dry book will seldom satisfy one's giving Germany the same privileges extended to our own people, so that in the entire Samoan group the three nations are placed on precisely the same footing and no nation can gain advantage of the other by tariff disriminations or other restrictions to emmerce. This is a distinct personal triumph for Secretary of State Hay. tion for governor? When the partition scheme was first proposed: Germany claimed to have the right to make her own tariff which would have operated against American

To this Mr. Hay would not consent He insisted that Americans must have that any tariff imposed must be unlibetween himself and the American form, to which Germany was finally forces induced to consent. By this arrangement whatever commerce Americans have built up since the Samoan islands were placed under the control of the United States is in a better position to ompete for the trade of the islands than is Germany, there is no reason why the bulk of the trade of the Samoan islands should not be controlled

The more this question of the Samonn question is studied, the more it is seen that It is a victory for American digood deal the best of the bargain.
