Suits to Order

We make suits to order from 5.00 to $15 cheaper than any other first-class tailoring establishment in Portland.

THE great rush of people to take advantage of our extraordinary offers in uncalled for suits and overcoats has been marvelous from the very beginning. The popularity of these suits has become so great that we have been compelled to open correspondence with over one hundred of the largest Tailoring concerns throughout the country in order to get these suits fast enough to supply the enormous demand. These are not misfits, but suits made to order on which deposits have been paid and which for unknown reasons remained uncalled for. Such things happen to every Tailoring establishment. It is by advertising and making a feature of selling these suits that they find it more advantageous to consign them to us than to attempt to dispose of them from their own establishments.

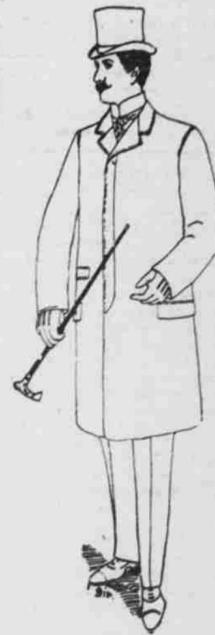

Uncalled for Garments at Half Price

- $20.00 Suits and Overcoats, $10.00
- $25.00 Suits and Overcoats, $12.50
- $30.00 Suits and Overcoats, $15.00
- $35.00 Suits and Overcoats, $17.50
- $40.00 Suits and Overcoats, $20.00

These garments are so far superior in style, fit and finish to ready-made clothing that comparisons are odious. Call and examine them and see if we can fit you.

We are Tailors, Bear that in Mind.

Not cheap garment makers, the only thing cheap about our suits is the price. Our suits have that style fit and finish about them that well dressed gentlemen appreciate. Astorians are cordially invited to call and inspect our goods whether they buy or not.

GOVERNOR LEARY'S REPORT ON GUAM

Rapid Progress Made in Reforming and Civilizing This Distant Possession of Uncle Sam.

NATIVES KINDLY DISPOSED

Natural Wealth of the Island is Great and the Inhabitants are Being Taught to Develop Its Resources

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says:

Governor Leary, of Guam or "The Isle of Gum," as it is called on the official gubernatorial seal, in having novel experiences for an American in an altogether unique community, but the infrequency of communication with the outside world permits little information to reach Washington regarding this innovation in colonial establishments and the little that does come in promptly filed away in the secret archives of the navy department as if it were the adopted policy to starve out the curiosity that exists regarding affairs there.

One report, dated October 11, gives a terse resume of affairs in the captain's dominion since the last mail. It shows that the islanders are inordinately lazy, having acquired the habits of their ancestors of raising such crops as will keep their bodies and souls together and that they cannot be easily induced to value money or exercise their exertion power. With a minimum of exertion, they are satisfied if they do not starve. The whole island is full of examples of neglected opportunities which are so distasteful to Americans. The governor has set out to bring the people of Guam to a realization of the natural wealth of the island and to make all under his jurisdiction as productive as possible. He tells the navy department that he does not want any more marines sent to him, as he cannot provide food for them and does not need them for his defense as he has nothing to fear from the natives.

He begs, however, for more officers to assist him in carrying out his plans for improving the condition of the population. He says he wants an ice machine, none of the water on the island being of proper temperature. He has established the seat of government at Agaña, six miles from Port Louis D'Apras and over this distance his men have had to haul all the materials for the buildings they are erecting as well as all supplies.

But the interesting part of the report relates to the reforms begun, of which the governor says:

"Having disposed of the priests, rapid progress will be made and no further resistance will be encountered."

He explains the two orders which were printed in English in the customary official form on the first English printing press in the islands and distributed broadcast. The first of these is calculated to compel each adult to contribute to the support of the government by engaging in food production. This order was dated Oct. 4, and requires all who have no trade to plant cereals, vegetables, etc., under more or less severe penalties. It is stipulated that each citizen shall have at least twelve hens and one cow and continue in possession of them indefinitely. They must bring eggs, chickens and vegetables to sell to the governor's house and to the barracks at stated intervals and they must pay their taxes and discharge other indebtedness.

The other order issued Sept. 15, was more radical. It demands that concubinage, which was generally all over the islands, shall stop immediately. In this order Governor Leary moralizes as follows to the natives:

The existing custom of raising families of illegitimate children is repulsive to ideas of decency, antagonistic to moral advancement, incompatible with the generally recognized customs of civilized society, a violation of the accepted principles of Christianity and a most degrading injustice to the innocent offspring, who is not responsible for the conditions of his unfortunate existence.

The governor in conclusion, commanded immediate wedlock for the whole adult population and made the license and civil ceremony free until Nov. 3. As a result, the officers in charge of licenses and marriages were worked half to death until nearly everybody on the island was legally married. There was a rush to obey the order, and in fact, the people have shown a disposition to be obedient to any suggestion from their governor.

BIG SLAUGHTER OF COLUMBIAN REBELS

ONE THOUSAND ARE KILLED

Battle Between Insurgent and Government Forces Result In an Overwhelming Victory for the Latter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says:

Official advices from Bogota dated Nov. 18 reports that a terrible battle between the government forces and the revolutionists was fought near Bucaramanga, capital of the department of Santander, in which the government forces were victorious.

It is stated that the battle lasted two days ending at noon on Nov. 18. More than 1,000 rebels were killed and 2,800 wounded.

About 10,000 men on both sides were engaged in the fight. General Uribe and General Juan Francisco Gomez, prominent leaders of the revolutionists, were wounded and it is reported that General Pablo Emilio Vallier was killed. On the government side General Pena Solano Pilemizar and General Fernandez were wounded.

The regiments commanded by Generals Holguin and Lujan are reported to have occupied Bucaramanga Nov. 18. The place had been held by the revolutionists since the civil war of a month ago.

The Manavia, an English steamer, arrived here yesterday with 600 recruits from Buena Ventura. About 400 more recruits are expected soon and on their arrival all will proceed to the Atlantic coast, the movement beginning next month.

No news has yet been received from Tumaco.

SHOULD COME TO OREGON.

Washington Timberman Wants to go to Canada for Logs.

TACOMA, Nov. 21.—Congressman Joseph W. Fordney, of Saginaw, Mich., who, with the Boeing estate of Detroit, Mich., owns 25,000 acres of timber near Grays Harbor and about 6,000 acres of redwood forest in Humboldt county, Cal., discussed political question of interest to lumber men generally while here today.

He says he hopes congress at its coming session will take steps to induce the Canadian government to lessen its retaliatory measures against American lumbermen. Logs are free of duty, but the Canadians require American owners of Canadian timber to pledge themselves to manufacture Canadian logs into lumber in that country, as a condition of licensing timber to them. There is a tariff of $2 on lumber.

OIL GOING UP.

Standard Oil Company Takes Another Reef in the Consumer's Noose.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The Tribune says:

The Standard Oil Company yesterday advanced the price of crude petroleum two cents in the Pennsylvania field and one cent in the Lima field, making the quotation for the Pennsylvania product $1.55 per barrel and for Ohio $1.67.

The advance was the latest of a series extending over a period of three months, during which time the Standard has increased the price nearly 40 cents a barrel. The present prices are the highest in four years. Throughout the oil fields it is believed higher figures will be reached.

The advancing market has stipulated "wildcating" as the drilling of test wells in new territory is called. All over the regions of the West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana supposed to be oil bearing, hundreds of wells are being put in.

For about twelve hours before the appearance of the menses I would feel giddy, have a severe headache, pain in my back, in fact I felt as if every bone in my body was breaking. Nothing did me any good, I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he recommended his 'Favorite Prescription,' and after using three bottles of it I am glad to say I am cured."
