Suits to Order

We make suits to order from $5.00 to $15 cheaper than any other first-class tailoring establishment in Portland.

THE great rush of people to take advantage of our extraordinary offers in uncalled for suits and overcoats has been marvelous from the very beginning. The popularity of these suits has become so great that we have been compelled to open correspondence with over one hundred of the largest Tailoring concerns throughout the country in order to get these suits fast enough to supply the enormous demand. These are not misfits, but suits made to order on which deposits have been paid and which for unknown reasons remained uncalled for. Such things happen to every Tailoring establishment. It is by advertising and making a feature of selling these suits that they find it more advantageous to consign them to us than to attempt to dispose of them from their own establishments.

Uncalled for Garments at Half Price

We are Tailors, Bear that in Mind.

Not cheap garment makers, the only thing cheap about our suits is the price. Our suits have that style fit and finish about them that well dressed gentlemen appreciate. Astorians are cordially invited to call and inspect our goods whether they buy or not.

FORECAST OF THE COMING MESSAGE

Longest Sent to Congress Since McKinley Has Been President.

OUR TERRITORIAL POSSESSIONS

Message Will Deal Exhaustively With the Proposed Government in Porto Rico, Philippines and Cuba.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

President McKinley's third annual message to congress is now practically complete. Only such changes and additions as developments in the Philippines and elsewhere during the next few days necessitate will be made. It was read at today's cabinet meeting. It is the longest message ever sent to congress by President McKinley, comprising more than 20,000 words.

The most important features of the message relate to the new dependencies and to the financial question. The essential features on these topics were thus outlined to me today by a member of the cabinet.

Sovereignty is to be established throughout all the Philippine islands and to be permanently maintained. Civil government is to be extended throughout the islands as rapidly as possible on lines somewhat similar to the arrangements effected for the government of the island of Negros.

Attention is invited to the report of the Philippines commission as to why it is impossible for the United States to part with the islands and as to the great commercial advantages in holding them. Civil government in Cuba under military control is recommended until some substantial progress has been made through the medium of suffrage toward the establishment of an independent form of government. Attention is called to the fact that the census will not be completed until December 1, and as the Spaniards have, under the treaty, until April next to decide whether they will become citizens of the islands, it will not be possible until that time to hold general elections to determine upon future government of the islands. The question of annexation, is, therefore, left open. Great stress is laid upon the improvement in the island during the year, not only commercially and agriculturally, but also in the sanitary condition of the cities and towns.

President McKinley recommends that civil government immediately replace the military in Porto Rico—a civil governor to be appointed and a council or legislature to be elected by the people, property and educational qualifications to be prescribed by the voters.

As to Hawaii the president suggests immediate legislation, to put in effect a territorial form of government and the modification of the pending bills to correspond more nearly with the political government of the islands.

The Hague conference is pointed to with satisfaction and a statement made that the treaty agreed to at this conference will be submitted at once to the senate. Gratification is expressed over the final settlement of the Venezuelan boundary controversy. Samoa comes in for a large share of attention, the exciting events of the year are reviewed and the statement made that a new treaty will soon be sent to the senate for the partition of the islands.

The president refers to the trade situation in China and the verbal assurances received by this government from powers having spheres of influence in that empire that American trade rights will be respected. He will also announce that he has requested that these verbal assurances be placed in writing but will be unable to inform congress that he has received the formal communications desired.

IRON AND STEEL.

Demand Still Continues Heavy and Mills Run Overtime.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Judge F. H. Gary, president of the Federal Steel company, returned to this city last night from Chicago, where he has been for several weeks. When questioned about conditions in the iron and steel industry in the west he said:

"In our lines the demand continues as heavy as ever. In some department of the trade a rather quieter market is reported. However, I do not consider this significant. The price of ore has just been fixed at $5.50 per ton base, at Lake Erie and Lake Michigan ports for next season.

This is about the time that the large consumers make their contracts for future delivery. The new schedule indicates an advance of from 75 to 100 per cent of the prices of a year ago and points to a continued strong market for finished products. The new figures about correspond with present prices of finished metal.

"There is a general feeling that ore is going to be rather scarce next year, and the demand is active."

When questioned about the matter of a dividend on Federal Steel common, Judge Gary said that nothing has been decided yet, but that a meeting of directors would be held soon, when this question would be taken up. The next dividend on the preferred will be three per cent, making up the full six per cent for the year.

MCKINLEY WILL RETAIN CONTROL

CUBA IS TO BE DIVIDED

Two Governors will Be Appointed Who will Rule Subject to the Administration at Washington.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

It is learned that the president has not finally determined whether he shall make General Wood governor of the entire island or appoint him governor of only the eastern part of Cuba, placing General Ludlow in charge of the western half and determining himself all questions respecting affairs relating to the entire island.

The latter plan commends itself to the president, especially in view of pressure exerted by friends of General Ludlow to secure recognition of his services. Before adopting it, however, he wishes to consult with General Wood and obtain his views. In any event General Wood's appointment, either as governor of the entire island or only of the eastern portion will not be announced until after congress convenes.

The authorities say that in case a divided control is decided upon, it will be an easy matter for two officers acting as governors to refer to Washington all questions affecting the whole island, and that the president can promptly determine them and announce his decision by cable.

In appointing civil governors at this time the president is guided by a desire to prepare the Cubans for independent administration. Home rule in Cuba can certainly not be permitted until after April 30, 1901, by which time all Spaniards remaining in the island must have made a declaration before a court of record of their decision to preserve their allegiance to Spain. Failure to make such declarations will mean, according to the treaty of peace, that they have renounced such allegiance and to have adopted the nationality of Cuba.

Although the Cuban census will be completed on Thursday, elections cannot occur until after April 30, in order that all the persons entitled to a voice in the affairs of the island, may cast their vote. It is understood that General Wood will discuss this feature of Cuban affairs with the president.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbia, S. C., had an experience with Rheumatism which convinced him that there is only one sure cure for this disease. He says: "I was a great sufferer from muscular Rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took about a dozen bottles of your S. S. S., and now I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am sure that your medicine cured me, and I would recommend it to any one suffering from any blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S.S.S. For the Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.
