The local Elks are preparing an extensive program for their memorial exercises next Sunday. The musical part is in the hands of Astoria's best vocalists and promises to be of an unusually high order.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the foot ball game will begin. The walk up the hill is a good dinner digester, and there will be a crowd pouring up to the grounds to see a good exhibition of genuine Thanksgiving day sport.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will hold its annual sale on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, December 16. The fancy work table with its rare exhibit of Mexican drawn work will be a strong attraction to many ladies while the children and their friends will perhaps be more interested in the doll and toy tables.

George M. Wroten was adjudged insane in the County Court yesterday and Sheriff Livette started up to Salem with him last night. She was sent to the asylum in 1886 and was kept there nearly ten years. Then this mental state showing great improvement he was released. He has been gradually growing worse since and lately has violent spells.

The city school teachers are puzzled. The board of directors ordered them to hold school "Friday, Nov. 30." They do not know whether to patch out the calendar or turn back the clock. If the board also orders school for Friday, Dec. 1st, the teachers may have to remain Saturday. This condition might suggest a companion song for "The Train Tomorrow."

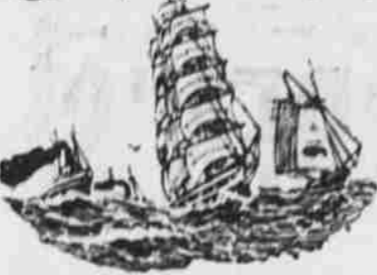

The private masquerade given by the P. D. Q. club last evening proved a most enjoyable event. The party was attended by a large number of young ladies, and many patronesses also were present. The costumes of the maskers were very pretty and the party was greatly enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served, and at the seasonable hour of 11 the merry-makers went to their homes.

L. R. Burrigaglia won the monthly tournament at the A. F. C. alleys last night, with a total of 167. This is the first time Burrigaglia has won anything in the medal line, though he is one of the best bowlers in the club. The Oregon Road Club team will be at the alleys tonight for a match game with the local players. The contest promises to be an interesting one, though the visitors will doubtless be easy winners.

The pupils of Mrs. Krager's room were highly entertained this afternoon, by a program consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues, addresses, readings, etc. The most enjoyable of all was the reading of the "Holy Wreath," a paper edited by Room 8, with Josie Johnson as editor and Myrtle Donaka assistant editor. This paper was very interesting. The children taking great pride in getting it up, each one contributing his mite towards its success.

Yesterday afternoon the directors visited the various schools and made an announcement that was not received with applause by teachers or pupils. "There will be school Friday," said the directors and the atmosphere in the school room grew strangely cold and still. Teachers and pupils had counted upon a holiday until Monday and had made arrangements accordingly. One day's school work sandwiched in between holidays is of but little use but "orders are orders."

SHIPPING AND MARINE

The tug report that the worst sea ever experienced raged outside yesterday.

The four-masted schooner Honolulu is completing her cargo of lumber for China at Bander.

The German ship Adolf dragged her anchors during the heavy winds of last night but drifted to the can factory wharf where she made fast without any damage.

The British ship Alcinoos arrived down from Portland yesterday. The R. R. Thompson towing.

The three-masted schooner W. F. Jewett came in yesterday and was towed to Knappaun where she will load with lumber.

SOME OF THE OVERDUE IN. The roughest trips experienced in Many Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—A number of the overdue fleet came into port today. The schooner Challenger, 40 days from Tacoma, which was anxiously looked for, was among the first to report. The Sailor Boy, 22 days from Tacoma, and bark Gathers, 20 days from the same place, are reported off the bar. The Challenger was all but out of provisions.

The Emma Utter, 23 days from Grays Harbor, the Webbox 29 days from Willapa, the Glen, 23 days from Grays Harbor, the Twilight, 24 days from the same port and the America, 25 days from Seattle, put in over the bar and reported the roughest trips that their respective masters have experienced in many years.

The collector of the port sent the revenue cutter McCulloch out this afternoon to keep a lookout for the fleet that is still outside and supposed to be in need of food.

PROGRAM FOR TODAY. How Astorians Will Observe Thanksgiving Day.

The air has a Thanksgiving tinge. There is a snowy "feel" in the atmosphere, without the snow. Thanksgiving day will be observed in Astoria in the regulation Thanksgiving style—a style that suits everybody.

This morning union services will be held in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Edward Curran preaches the sermon, and the Presbyterian choir has prepared special music for the occasion. The service promises to be unusually interesting.

Divine service with sermon and Holy Communion will be held this morning for both Holy Innocents' and Grace church congregations at 10:30 o'clock. The offering will be devoted to the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland.

The Thanksgiving dinner hour in Astoria ranges all the way from 1 o'clock to 7. The dinners today will be arranged in most cases to enable the diners to witness the football game.

Many Astoria shot gun devotees will take to the lakes and revel among the ducks and geese.

The football game between the Northwest Dental College of Portland and the Astoria foot ball club will be played on the A. F. C. grounds at 2 o'clock. The dental students have played several games this season in which they have demonstrated their ability to play clean, skillful ball. The A. F. C. team has been practicing daily and the players are in fine form. The home boys are confident of victory.

The teams will line up as follows: Astoria: Postions: Dentists Girard, R. E.; Wilson Cassell, L. E.; Coleman Tallant, R. T.; Dimnick Eastland, L. T.; Ladd Falter, R. G.; Corbett Jones, L. G.; Shaub Mlnard, C. C.; Knott Jurlington, Q. B.; Barrett Abercrombie, L. H.; Casper Graham, P. H.; Wendling Crosby, F. B.; Watson Subs. Astoria—Wright and Ross.

The A. F. C. has arranged to plank the road from the walk to the grounds and ladies need not fear that they will have to wade through the mud. The grandstand is dry and comfortable. It is expected that a large number of ladies will attend the game and the club wishes to make everything as pleasant as possible for them.

LATER. PORT CANBY, Nov. 30.—1:30 a. m.—All hands on the lightship were saved by the life crew, and are now safely housed in the hospital at Fort Canby.

The rescue was accomplished by means of the breeches buoy. The first man ashore was one whose ribs were broken in taking a hauler from the tug Walluta. The last man to leave his vessel was Captain Harriman.

The above telegram is lacking in details but Astoria will ring today with praises for the life saving crew, for the night was dark and very stormy and the rescue speaks volumes for the skill and courage of the life savers. The thanksgiving of many Astorians will have an unusually earnest ring today.

OREGON PRIZE WINNERS. The Webfoot State Amateur Photographers Do Notable Work.

The Youth's Companion is a famous Journal. For four years it has been conducting annual exhibitions of amateur photography, open to all amateurs of this country.

The prize winners for 1899 have just been announced and Oregon leads the list.

The grand prize, a silver vase, was awarded Edgar Fellows of Portland. He also wins the first prize in the men's class. Mrs. Myra Albert Wiggins of Salem won the second prize in the women's class. Mrs. Helen P. Gatch, Salem, and Lola Telf, Portland receive honorable mention for their contributions. The judges had to pass upon nearly ten thousand examples of amateur photography and Oregon's victory is noteworthy.

Astoria has several amateurs who are making excellent pictures and some of them will probably compete in the Companion's exhibition next year.

THE LIGHTSHIP ON M'KENZIE HEAD

LITTLE HOPE FOR SHIP OR CREW

The Terrible Seas Snapped Hawkers and the Tugs Were Powerless to Save.

Lighthouse No. 56 is ashore just inside McKenzie head and there is little hope that her crew of eight men can be saved.

The lightship went adrift Tuesday night and the tugs Escort and Walluta and the Manzanita went out after her this (Wednesday) morning. She was sighted ten miles off shore and heading in under her own sail. The Walluta reached her first and brought her fearfully to the entrance when the hawser parted. The Manzanita then took hold of the lightship and started in with her but the hawser parted and tangled up in her propeller.

The lightship was in serious danger when the Escort went to her assistance and the tug put itself in peril in going in after her. This was late in the afternoon. The lightship was going on to the rocks when the Escort managed to get a hauler to her. The rope failed to hold in the raging sea, but it did not part until the helpless vessel was pulled around the point. Then the hawser parted and the tug could do no more than watch the lightship going in toward shore. This was about 5 o'clock.

The Escort stood around until 7 and when she left it was uncertain whether the lightship managed to anchor or had gone on the sands. Her lights were showing.

The tug Walluta was ready to go out when the Escort came to the dock, but the latter reported that nothing could be done in the darkness. The Walluta will leave early in the morning.

The light boat went on shore, if she is ashore, on low water and will have to weather eight hours pounding. She has a steel bottom and is exceptionally stout and it is thought that if there are no rocks under her she may stand the buffeting. Captain Hawes of the Escort speaks hopefully of the lightship's crew's chances but all seamen agree that the situation at the best is desperate. The life-saving crew have gone to the assistance.

On board the lightship are Captain Jos. H. Harriman, 2nd Engineer Lars Hansen, and Anton Eberg, Charles Carlson, Gus Johnson, Walker Way, Joe Leonard and Robert Gerloff. All are Astorians. Captain Harriman is a widower with two children, Lars Hansen and Anton Eberg are married men. The others are single.

The tugs today worked heroically. Both the Escort and the Walluta were in danger themselves at times. The sea outside was fearfully wild and it is almost a miracle that the Escort succeeded in saving the lightship from going directly on the rocks.

How a Prominent Lady of Portland Went the Rounds With the Dentists.

Mrs. Mitchell of Albina said yesterday: "A little more than 18 months ago I suffered untold pain from decayed teeth and was advised by my physician to have them extracted, so I went to one of the most prominent dentists in Portland and had them out and some artificial ones made. Well, do you know I tried for over four months to wear them but I could not, and so I consulted another prominent dentist, one of these high priced ones, you know, and he made me another set and charged me $25, making $55 in all for the two sets. I tried these and they were no better than the others. I told Mrs. Collins about it and she told me that her teeth cost her only $7.50, including the extracting of 10 and she said they were just lovely and as good as her natural teeth. I asked her where she got them and she said at the Portland Dental Parlors, corner Fourth and Washington streets. She went down with me next day and I saw Dr. Jones, the manager, and made arrangements for this set. He did not demand a cent until I had tried them a week and returned and told him I was perfectly satisfied. As much as the others? No! He charged me only $5."

She had trouble.

J. D. Bridges, Editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H., says: "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. For sale by CHARLES ROGERS.

The beauty of the winter girl may be only seal-skin deep.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Chas. Rogers.

Cupid is an excellent shot, but he has some mighty poor game.

All Astorians who visit Portland and desire spending a pleasant evening in company with polite people and in the enjoyment of an unexcelled musical program, should go to the Fredericksburg. Besides vocal and instrumental selections there are many other attractions to delight the visitors. The new management is making the Fredericksburg a well-merited success. BROWN & GRANT, Props.

Spinsterhood is often the flirt's punishment for contempt of court.

LADIES' TAILOR-MADE SUITS. Ladies who go to Portland and desire something especially fine in the way of tailor-made suits will do well to remember that they can be well fitted at J. M. Boyer's 177 Fourth street, in the Y. I. D. C. A. building.

Not only does he keep a strictly first-class cutter for men's wear, but also one exclusively for ladies' work, and all can rest assured of getting not only good work, but the best of materials, as Mr. Boyer is an expert on woolen cloths.

Another expedition is going in quest of "the secret of the strait." For 400 years the secret has remained unsolved. Nowadays, geologists and geographers do not think water connections exist between the Atlantic and Pacific. This is the time when the two continents were apart, these scientific people believe. There are people who find the secret of health as hard to find. Three words tell the way—a healthy stomach. The secret is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It cures constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and all liver and kidney ailments. It cures them permanently. And it brings relief at once. All druggists keep it, and a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as the commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gallahe. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did, with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—Adolph L.
