A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Charles Rogers.

THE MODERN MOTHER

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

TWO LANDSLIDES.

The Heavy Rains of Thanksgiving Day Damage.

There has been much uneasiness felt lately by owners of hill-side property on account of the storm. The fast and furious rain has filled the ground with an unusual amount of water and the resultant pressure has threatened landslides.

Two were reported yesterday, both in upper town. One was opposite Clatsop mill. A portion of the hillside belonging to Mrs. S. A. Kinney fell Thursday afternoon, taking a part of the yard in front of Mrs. Kinney's residence and burying the walks underneath.

The other slide, just above Moca's Tongue Point saloon, was more extensive and did considerable damage.

The hill gave way, and with its logs and trees came down against the roadway, completely wrecking it. The piling underneath were broken off or twisted and bent and the planking was pushed out onto the beach. The wreck was visited by many people yesterday, and the peculiar pile-up is worth looking at.

The damage will be repaired as soon as possible for the people above that point are now practically cut off from the main part of the city.

MRS. GOODMAN DEAD.

Mrs. Catherine Goodman, wife of P. J. Goodman, a prominent Astoria business man, died at the family residence in this city yesterday morning. Mrs. Goodman suffered a stroke of paralysis November 26th and her condition since has been hopeless.

The body will be taken to Portland this morning and the funeral services will be held at the residence of Mrs. Goodman's sister, Mrs. Murtha, who resides at 427 Stark street. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery on the East Side.

Mrs. Goodman was born in Monahan,

Ireland, and was 47 years of age. Her husband and two children, Mrs. F. J. Carney and Miss Eva Goodman, survive her. Mrs. Goodman has lived in Astoria many years and hosts of friends testify to her splendid womanly character. She was a devout christian woman and a leader in charitable work.

A TRIALOGUE.

ASTORIAN.—Astoria as the seaport means 15 cents a bushel, or $5,000,000 a year, more for the Columbian farmers' wheat—through cheapened ocean charters.

FARMERS' (O. R. & N.) ORGAN.—How can that happen?

ASTORIAN.—By forcing the railroads to charge no more for hauling wheat to Astoria on a water level grade than to Tacoma, the same distance, over a mountain grade—a plain matter of justice to the farmer.

FARMERS' (O. R. & N.) ORGAN.—Well, if that is so and it will help the farmers so much, why don't Astoria build elevators and warehouses and force the railroads to give common point rates? Do this and don't make a howling ass of yourself. If there's so much money in it, why don't you do it and quit howling? What's us farmers got to do with it anyhow?

O. R. & N. (Patting Organ's Head).—That's a smart answer. We will have the Oregonian copy it and we'll give you an "ad." Here take this Annual for self and family and come to Portland for a good time.

ASTORIAN.—But, my good friends! It's the farmers who would get the millions, the 15 cents a bushel, by breaking the railroad combine and making them take equal rates to Astoria. What's the matter with their helping to force—
