The report that the Northern Pacific railroad will carry its point and compel the O. R. & N. Company to grant it trackage privileges into Portland is not a proper subject for rejoicing at It simply means a tighter than ever against Astoria. It shows the power of the different coordinate members of the railroad combination against each. It makes against the probability of the Union Pacific coming down to Astoria. Any supposition that the Northern Pacific, after its recent investment of a million and a naif at Seattle, with the other millions previously invested on Puget sound, is in any way friendly to Astoria is irrational and ridiculous, The probability is that the whole play in the threat of the Northern Pacific to parallel the O. R. & N. was designed to deter that road from considering the Astoria extension. Nothing can save Astoria but the effort The foundation is already labl. and and courage of her own citizens.
