One of the humors of present politics is the fact that the public men who had been loudest in their demands that we should get out of the Philippines, and who have made a particular point of abusing the administration for its Philippine policy, are making the most noise about the Boers, and insisting that we should pass a resolution of sympathy with the men who are giving the British more than they can do at present.

A Washington dispatch says the announcement can be made on the authority of a member of the cabinet that the administration proposes to use the trade of the Philippine islands to sustain its policy of the "open door" on the Asiatic mainland.
