Judge Gray's explanation of the country's financial condition merits the attention of taxpayers. It is a complete and convincing answer to the wanton and malicious "charges" of the democrats who are steering the "citizens" campaign. It is a statement upon which Judge Gray challenges investigation. Instead of running the country in debt, as these democrats would have it appear, the present administration has actually reduced the county's indebtedness over $20,000, besides paying nearly $41,000 of interest on the debt accumulated before it went into office.

The Astorian would like to say a few earnest words to the republicans on the subject of the legislative ticket. As explained a few days ago there can be no objection raised to John Hahn on the score of his standing as a citizen and a business man. He is known to be honest, but headstrong and independent. And there is just the rub with his candidacy for the legislature this time. Any other year John Hahn might be a good man to send to the legislature from Clatsop county. But the very virtue which would recommend John Hahn in an off year is a vice this time. Let the Astorian explain very briefly what it means. John Hahn has been induced to become a candidate for the legislature on the theory that the republican party of Clatsop county deserves to be turned down. It is not necessary to discuss the reasons, fancied or real, why this sentiment has found expression in John Hahn's nomination; suffice it is to say that it exists and that the democrats are moving heaven and earth to take advantage of it.

Washing Dish Cloths

Kitchen cloths must of course be washed daily, otherwise they harbor grease and odors and become unsightly. They should be made of hair-crochets, in a square of suitable size. When you wash them, if you will add a table-spoonful of Gold Dust Washing Powder to the hot water it will cut the grease and clean them in half the time; dry them out in the sunshine and air.

No Oregon voter should think for a moment of casting a ballot for a candidate for congress who will give aid and comfort to the opposition, or for a CANDIDATE FOR THE LEGISLATURE WHOSE VOICE MIGHT HELP TO SEND A MAN TO THE UNITED STATES SENATE TO GIVE SUCH AID AND COMFORT. This is the very time of all times in the history of this state when our people need every advantage gained, and every prospective advantage promised by a continuance of the present conditions.

ELI PERKINS DOWN SOUTH.

The other day, says the Louisville Commercial, Eli Perkins was introduced by Judge Scott, an old dyed-in-the-wool Kentucky democrat. The judge is well known in the blue grass region, and the grand old Kentuckian has always been looked up to as a high priest of "befo" the wah democracy.

"How are we democrats getting along judge?" asked Eli in a confidential tone. "The judge looked at Eli for a moment to see if he really wanted information about the party, and slowly remarked: 'Well, sir, we are getting on very well financially, but politically we are running behind; yes, I'm afraid we are running behind.'"

"Where have we erred, judge?" "Well, sir, I hate to admit it, but our Grover Cleveland policy hurt us Kentuckians. I wouldn't say it to a black republican, but we democrats all admit it among ourselves. You see," said the judge, "we used to get 35 cents for wool, and a big price for hemp and tobacco before Grover came in, but that Wilson bill hurt us. It knocked wool down to 12 cents. Free jute, put in to help the cotton fellows, ruined our hemp, and it rotted in the ground. Then we lowered the tariff on tobacco and our tobacco went down on us. We didn't complain, but we democrats did a good deal of thinking. Cattle and hogs got lower and lower, and when Grover went out we were pretty poor; yes, dog-on hardup, sir."

"Are they still bad—the times?" asked Eli.

"No, honestly, the times are good. Wool and hemp and tobacco have doubled in price and are still going up. Cattle and hogs are high and our blue grass farmers are getting rich."

"Well, what is the matter, then?" "Why, these good times have knocked out our dear old democratic party. Our democratic farmers say that they will never vote for free trade or low tariff again."

"Well, what can we democrats do?" asked Eli.

"I hate to admit it," said the judge sadly, "but if we democrats want to win again we've got to keep the tariff right where it is. That old Wilson bill and Bryan's free silver will be a scare-crow to every farmer in Kentucky and Tennessee. We've tried low tariff and we know—I'm ashamed to say so, but we know it hurt us! No, sir, the people are prosperous, but our democratic party is doing poorly. I wouldn't say it to a black republican, but that is the way we democrats talk among ourselves."

As the judge got off the train at Lexington he remarked: "Yes, and there was another mistake we democrats made. Grover Cleveland wanted to sink the republic of Hawaii and put a nigger on the throne. We democrats didn't complain, but it made us sick, for, between you and me, we democrats ain't puttin' niggers on thrones. McKinley's white governor over a republican suits old Kentucky and the South."

Strangers visiting in the city will find the Louvre an attractive resort wherein to spend the evening. The Amme Sisters Ladies' Orchestra is still on the bills and presents nightly a musical program of exceptional merit. Handsome pool and billiard rooms are a feature in connection with the house. Palatable lunches will be served at all hours.
