THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

When a few months more shall have passed we will then stand at the very threshold of the twentieth century, and the nineteenth will be a thing of the past. It will, however, be known as the century of invention and discovery, and among some of the greatest of these we can truthfully mention Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the celebrated remedy for all ailments arising from a disordered stomach, such as dyspepsia, indigestion, flatulency, constipation and biliousness. It has been one of the greatest blessings to mankind during the past fifty years as a health builder. Many physicians recommend it. Take their advice, try a bottle and be convinced, but be sure to get the genuine with a private revenue stamp over the neck of the bottle.

COMMITTEE ON THE FOURTH.

Arrangements Being Made for Sports—Many Attractions.

The committee on sports for the Fourth met in the office of chief-of-police Hallock last night. Chief Hallock was elected chairman, and D. B. Johnson secretary. Arrangements were made to confer with the proprietors of various spectacular and other attractions, such as balloon ascensions, moving pictures, trick cycling, tight rope dancing, etc., with a view to making terms and an engagement with them. Some of the features of the athletic sports were decided upon, such as the fat man's race, hurdle race, etc. The committee will meet with the general committee tomorrow night at the chamber of commerce, to make further arrangements.

At the convention of school children in the Knights of Pythias hall yesterday afternoon 38 delegates were present. Miss Edith Woods was chosen goddess of liberty, receiving 27 votes. It was decided to choose an attendant nymph from each of the schools, and the following were selected: McClure's school, Nellie Barker; Adair school, Emma Peterson; Shively school, Maude Belcher; Alderbrook school, Annie Peterson; Olney school, Maude Harris; Convent, Mamie Coffman. A lively contest was held over the election of an angel of peace, but Grace Morton was chosen on the third ballot, receiving 33 votes.

Professor Beggs and the ladies with whom he is working, are preparing a very elaborate program for the afternoon of the Fourth: It is their plan to imitate in miniature some of the more prominent features of the morning exercises. A little boy dressed to represent Uncle Sam, will be drawn in a gaily decorated cart by a long line of boys. This will be followed by a wagon containing George and Martha Washington, and drawn by thirteen boys, representing the original states. Other interesting features are in preparation. It is expected that close on to a thousand school children will be utilized by Prof. Beggs in the various features he is planning to interest the thousands of visitors who will be with us on that occasion.

SUMMER RESORTS.

"To the mountains our people in increasing numbers yearly look for those days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain the human machine in fair working condition. The languorous sloth of the seashore proves very seductive while it lasts, but many have decided that the annual outing should provide not only radical change of air and surroundings, but also such stimulation of flagging energies as will provide brawn and vigor for the return to labor. For this they urge the mountain climb and ramble, the balsam of the mountain pines, and the clear, undisturbed mountain air.

"In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Ashland to Redding is studded with charming and accessible hotels and camps, where are cheer and comfort and healing at reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility.

"Or if you look for healing waters, none better can be found, hot or cold, than the springs of Ashland, Coletina, Anderson, Bartlett, Byron and Paso Robles.

"Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite valley, and the wondrous groves of Mariposa and Calaveras; the Parisians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attractive resorts."

Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, general passenger agent, Portland, for new booklets on Castle Crag, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemite, and excursion rates thereto.
