THE GOVERNOR'S WEDDING DAY

T. T. Geer and Miss Trullinger Married in This City.

UNOSTENTATIOUS AFFAIR

Presbyterian Church Thronged With Invited Guests-Auspicious Farewell at the Depot-Geer's Idea of the Occasion-

Theodore Thurston Geer, governor of the State of Oregon, and Miss Isabelle Truilinger, daughter of J. C. Truilinger of this city, were married by the Rev. Henry Marcotte in the First Presbyterian church of Astoria at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed in acsordance with the simple sites of the

Promptly at the hour set, the bridal party entered the church, the bride leaning upon the arm of her father and attended by Mrs. Theodore Downing, a daughter of the groom. Grant Trullinger, brother of the bride, acted as best man. As the bridal party appreached the altar, Mrs. J. T. Ross sang the first verse of "Calm as the Night." Immediately prior to the marriage ceremony Mrs. H. C. Thomson, who presided at the organ, began the soft, sweet strains of "O Promise Me." which was continued until the conclueion of the service, which made Governor Geer and Miss Trullinger man and wife. Immediately after the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. Ross sang the last verse of "Calm as the Night."

Governor and Mrs. Geer were then escorted to a carriage at the door and were taken to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception, to which only the immediate relatives and friends had been invited.

A dainty luncheon was served, after which the bridal party left for the

The ushers at the church were Paul Trullinger, Arthur Callan, Paul Badollet and John Allen.

Governor Geer never looked better in his life than when he alighted from the train at noon yesterday. He was even more gracious of demeanor and cordial with his friends than usual, When accosted by an Astorian representative, the remark was made:

"Governor, you're looking pretty fine today. 'Well," returned the governor, jovlally, "if a man were not to feel at his best on an occasion like this I am sure I don't know when he should." And in the governor's face was un-
