Under orders issued by the new company, R. T. Elliott assumed the management on June 14, of the properties acquired from the John Irving Navigation Company, in addition to the general management of the affairs of the Canadian Development Company.

The acquirement of the John Irving properties by a company in which three of the four men principally interested are officials of the White Pass road, and the placing of Mr. Elliott, of the Canadian company, in charge, means that the three concerns are now closely allied and that the same interests that direct the affairs of the White Pass & Yukon rallroad form the conrolling interest in the big combina ion. That was the theme to which the demonstration of the convention clung. When he stated that the democrats were driven to find new issues in the war which they had been almost anxious to precipitate, the convention rose at him, but the outburst was even greater when he declared that the division among the republicans of the East and West on the financial issue was a thing of the past and that those who had left the party four years
