

KNOX HATS

The Latest Summer Blocks...

C. H. COOPER
Sole Agent for Astoria.

TODAY'S WEATHER.
PORTLAND, June 23.—Oregon and Washington, fair and slightly warmer; Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington, threatening and cooler.

All contracts for advertising in the Astorian are made on a guarantee of circulation four times larger than that of any paper published or circulated in Clatsop county.

AROUND TOWN.

You never will have such an opportunity again. Remember this. Navajo Blankets and Rugs at the prices we are selling for just one week. B. F. ALLEN & SON.

Fresh buttermilk at the Parlor.

Fred Young is on the sick list.

Horses for sale at Gaston's stable.

The circuit court was adjourned till Monday.

W. B. Stratton, of South Bend, is in the city.

There is no improvement in the fish situation.

The best and cheapest tailoring in the city at A. KILJUNEN, 322 Commercial Street.

Eugene O'Neil, of Wisconsin, was in town yesterday.

N. Relas, of Chicago, was at the Occident yesterday.

Elmer Pierce, of Washougal, was in Astoria yesterday.

George H. Fay, of Connecticut, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brinn, of St. Helena, are in town.

Only one week with us, then to Chicago, where the prices will be doubled for Navajo Blankets and Rugs. B. F. ALLEN & SON.

P. Morin came up from Fort Stevens yesterday afternoon.

James Peterson came over from Knappa yesterday.

The British ship Galgate went out at 8 a. m. yesterday.

L. A. Loomis and son, of Ilwaco, spent last night in Astoria.

Mrs. H. Anderson, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. N. P. Sorenson.

Best 15-cent meal, Rising Sun Restaurant, 612 Commercial street.

Jeff's restaurant—the largest and best. A trial will convince you.

For rent—7-room house, nicely furnished. Apply at 638 Exchange street.

Sweet cream at the Parlor, 10 cents a pint; just what you want for berries.

A good meal can be had at all hours, at the Jewell boarding house, 736 Commercial street.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Best 15-CENT MEAL; RISING SUN RESTAURANT.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

For Bilious and Nervous Disorders, such as Wind and Pain in the Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Faintness and Swelling after meals, Dropsical Swellings, Cold Chills, Flushings of Heat, Loss of Appetite, Shortness of Breath, Constipation, Blotches on the Skin, Disturbed Sleep, Frightful Dreams, and all Nervous and Trembling Sensations, etc. These ailments all arise from a disordered or abused condition of the stomach and liver.

Beecham's Pills, taken as directed, will quickly restore females to complete health. They promptly remove any obstruction or irregularity of the system. For a Weak Stomach, Impaired Digestion, Sick Headache, Disturbed Liver, etc., they act like magic—a few doses will work wonders upon the Vital Organs; Strengthening the Muscular System, restoring the long-lost Constitution, bringing back the keen edge of Appetite, and arousing with the Rosobud of Health the whole physical energy of the human frame. For showing off fevers they are especially recommended. These are "facts" admitted by thousands, in all classes of society, and one of the best guarantees to the Nervous and Debilitated is that Beecham's Pills have the Largest Sale of any Patent Medication in the World. This has been achieved without the publication of testimonials, the fact being that Beecham's Pills are recommended unreservedly.

Beecham's Pills have for many years been the popular family medicine wherever the English language is spoken, and they now stand without a rival.

10 cents and 25 cents, at all drug stores. Annual sale $1,000,000 boxes.

Navajos, the greatest hand weavers on earth. It is worth your time to see these goods. B. F. ALLEN & SON.

W. E. Yeager, of Aberdeen, was at the Parker house yesterday.

C. W. Cottam, of Oakland, Cal., came down on the train last night.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Seaman, of Oregon City, were in the city yesterday.

W. S. Cone and W. Reefenberg, of Bay City, were in the city yesterday.

At the police court yesterday two fines were imposed for drunkenness.

Leutenant Cioke and H. C. Smither, of Fort Stevens, came up yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Nichols, of Tekoa, Wash., were at the Parker house yesterday.

For rent—Nicely furnished room. N. E. corner of Fourth and Commercial streets.

Leopold F. Schmidt, Leo Schmidt and Frank Schmidt, of Olympia, were in town yesterday.

Miss Pohl and Miss Rita Marion have returned from their school work at Mt. Angel college.

When you want a stylish new suit made cheap, call on A. KILJUNEN, 322 Commercial Street.

R. A. Kuner, Wm. Newman and E. K. Wood, of San Francisco, registered at the Occident yesterday.

The Astoria Gun Club will hold its opening shoot at the can factory dock Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

Harold Chutter has returned from his visit to California, bringing with him his aunt, Mrs. A. M. Jordan.

Those who have been maintaining a few street lights at their own expense have decided to do so no longer.

A small place at Clatsop for sale or rent. Suitable for chicken ranch. Apply to A. TAGE, Parlor Candy Store.

The government dredger William S. Ladd came down from Portland yesterday afternoon, en route for Youngs bay.

The coast steamer Columbia came down from Portland in the night and went out at daylight yesterday morning.

About twenty ladies were present at the tea at the Methodist parsonage yesterday. A short musical program was provided.

Miss Amy Lemon and Miss Fannie Clayton have returned from their year's work at the State Normal School at Monmouth.

Cream Pure Rye, America's finest whisky. The only pure goods; guaranteed rich and mellow. John L. Carlson, sole agent.

Hereafter the Boston Restaurant will be open from 5 a. m. until 1 a. m. It is a first-class place for after theater supper parties.

Remember we guarantee our Ice cream to contain nothing but cream and sugar and flavor. It is fifteen cents per pint at the Parlor.

The Youngs bay bridge is to be repaired on Tuesday next and will be closed to traffic from 8 a. m. until the repairs are completed, or till 6 p. m.

Jacob Kamm and Captain Charles T. Kamm, of the Vancouver Transportation Company, were in the city yesterday, looking after their shipping interests.

Roslyn coal is the best and most economical coal for household use in Astoria. Try it once and you will have no other. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

The German ship Nesala, dispatched by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., for Queenstown with 100,550 bushels of wheat, valued at $54,300, came down from Portland at 7:15 last evening.

NOTICE.—All persons having rooms to spare for the accommodation of 4th of July visitors are hereby requested to send their names, address, number of beds and price for same to ALBERT DUNBAR, Secretary.

To those who drink whiskey for pleasure: Harper's Whiskey adds zest to existence. To those who drink whiskey for health's sake, Harper's Whiskey makes life worth living. Sold by Foard & Stokes Co., Astoria.

At the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church tomorrow there will be a confirmation service at 10:30 a. m., and a communion service at 8 p. m. Both services will be held in English.

Chairman Wise, of the Fourth of July committee, yesterday telegraphed from Portland that he had secured the services of ex-Attorney-General Chamberlain as Fourth of July orator here.

The movement to close the principal places of business in this city on the Fourth is meeting with good success, and it is expected that the closing movement will be generally supported.

H. A. Parker, prophet, Roxy Bellins, chief of records, and Mr. Travis, of Necarne Tribe of Red Men, were in the city last night in attendance upon the meeting of the local Pocahontas lodge.

F. J. Haggerty, C. H. New, William Washams, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wilson, J. Q. Williams and family, H. S. Gile, D. P. Dyer, Charles R. Gatchet, O. S. Crocker and Charles H. Wallace, all of Portland, were in Astoria yesterday.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

A half-dozen new mattresses were received at the city jail yesterday, to replace those which long use by Host Hallock's lodgers had rendered uninviting, to say the least.

Last night Sheriff Linville took up to Salem Charles Baker, who was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary, by Judge McBride, for stealing salmon from Tallant's cannery.

At the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church tomorrow there will be a confirmation service at 10:30 a. m., and a communion service at 8 p. m. Both services will be held in English.

Chairman Wise, of the Fourth of July committee, yesterday telegraphed from Portland that he had secured the services of ex-Attorney-General Chamberlain as Fourth of July orator here.

The movement to close the principal places of business in this city on the Fourth is meeting with good success, and it is expected that the closing movement will be generally supported.

H. A. Parker, prophet, Roxy Bellins, chief of records, and Mr. Travis, of Necarne Tribe of Red Men, were in the city last night in attendance upon the meeting of the local Pocahontas lodge.

F. J. Haggerty, C. H. New, William Washams, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wilson, J. Q. Williams and family, H. S. Gile, D. P. Dyer, Charles R. Gatchet, O. S. Crocker and Charles H. Wallace, all of Portland, were in Astoria yesterday.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed for one week. All the usual services will be observed and sermons preached on the following subjects: In the morning, "The Challenge of Faith," and in the evening, "Endurance."

The police officers received yesterday enough rodents to supply the city boarding house with "Irish stew" for some days. At the present rate it will be necessary to put through another bounty appropriation at the special meeting of the council which it is rumored is to be called soon to discuss the light—or rather dark—situation.

Judge Gray has now under consideration the case of the estate of Nathan S. Kimball, who was killed by the Indians in the famous Whitman massacre. There is a contest between the administrator, Nathan M. Kimball, and the heirs over the amount of costs and expenses of the administration of the estate. It is thirty-three years since the administration papers were issued. The settlement includes an Indian depredation claim of $2,100. This was finally allowed by the court of claims in 1838, and payment was made in February, 1839. Messrs. Smith and Noland represent the administrator, and Fulton Bros., the heirs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning the subject will be, "In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses boldness unto the Lord." In the evening, "A man that Astoria needs." Everybody is invited.

Miss May Utzinger has returned from a visit to friends at the State Normal school at Monmouth and Hood River. She is accompanied by Miss Roberts, an old class-mate from Hood River, who will spend a few days here on a visit.

The Oriental liner Carlisle City, of the California & Oriental Steamship line, arrived from San Francisco at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and went up at 5:30 to Portland. She is to complete her cargo for Hong Kong and way ports.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Skibbe was held at the family residence at 1 p. m. yesterday. Rev. Henry Marcotte conducting the services. Many members of the A. O. U. W. and other friends were present. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Gray made an order appointing James C. Bewley, of Tillamook, administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank M. Bewley, recently deceased. M. J. Kinney, J. W. Conn and C. W. Carnahan were appointed appraisers.

An interesting 100-yard running race for a purse of $100 took place at Seaside the other day between a local celebrity and Peter Miller of Tacoma. Miller, it is reported, "won in a walk." It is probable that Miller will be entered in the racing contests in this city on the Fourth.

Arrangements are being made for a great bicycle parade on the Fourth of July. The committee has issued a call for a meeting of all wheelmen to meet at the office of the general committee at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday next, and it is hoped that all those interested in that parade will attend.

The steamer W. H. Harrison arrived yesterday morning after a quick run to and from Nehalem and Tillamook. She brought in a cargo of butter and cheese, and will take out this morning, at about nine o'clock, a general cargo, including the personal effects of the late Frank M. Bewley.

The street department is taking advantage of the fine weather to push work on Commercial street. A few days more will see the completion of the work and our principal thoroughfare in proper shape to welcome the thousands from up the river and surrounding country on the Fourth.

The Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church will not take place tomorrow evening, as announced, but are postponed