For President WILLIAM M'KINLEY. Of Ohio. For Vice-President THEODORE ROOSEVELT. Of New York.

Owing to the campaign of the Democracy the government finds a large standing army necessary.

The awful results of imperialism have begun to appear. Republican officials are going to allow Porto Ricans who are residing in Baltimore to vote...

WHAT BASENESS DESERVES.

Morning Oregonian.

William J. Bryan is the most unworthy aspirant and dangerous candidate for the presidency of the United States offered by one of the dominant parties within the memory of living man.

We printed the other day a letter that had taken irrefutably that Bryan had asked a message of Abraham Lincoln's, written to rebuke the ownership of capital in human labor...

Why did Bryan urge ratification of the peace treaty? For the purpose of putting the Republicans in a hole.

Bryan went about the country in 1896 predicting all manner of catastrophe if we kept the gold standard.

He talks silver at the West, anti-imperialism at the East, anti-trusts at the South. He is for anything that will get votes.

He wants us to return to the simplicity of the Fathers, yet he scurries about the country to receive superfluous nominations, and shouts his speeches into a phonograph.

He denounces autocratic rule, yet he is himself the most dictatorial of living politicians.

NO RELIEF FOR 20 YEARS.

"I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Miner Smith, of Danville, Ill., "and at times have been bedfast. I never got relief until I had taken Foley's Kidney Cure."

Now, a man may be a cheap politician and an arrant demagogue and still be sound at heart. But the baseness of Bryan's purpose is clearly apparent from the nature of his appeal.

If a man is contented, Bryan will do his best to make him discontented. If a man defies the law with riot, Bryan puts him on the back. If a man is poor, Bryan tells him the government is to blame, Bryan encourages him to call down imprecations on the rich.

Here is a man who goes about the country stirring up the poor against the rich, the broken against the successful, the idle against the busy, the laborer against the employer, the rioter against the courts, the propertyless against property, the disorderly against order, the lawless against law.

rich, the broken against the successful, the idle against the busy, the laborer against the employer, the rioter against the courts, the propertyless against property, the disorderly against order, the lawless against law.

Every man that is enraged at the existing order; every man that is envious of his neighbor's progress; every man that blames society for his own incompetence; every man that feels like taking the law into his own hands to redress his grievance against capital; every socialist, communist, anarchist and rioter; every enemy of progress and prosperity; every crowing raven of calamity; every apostle of discontent; every prophet of despair, recognizes a friend in Bryan, and recognizes truly, because his whole appeal, overt or covert, is addressed to these basest elements and most dangerous foes of our civilization.

Such a man is out of place in the United States. Such a man is at variance with American ideals of liberty and law, individual enterprise and responsibility. He is the enemy of the doctrine of fair play, which insures each the fruits of his labor. He offers us despair for hope, discontent for determination, bitterness for ambition, dependency for courage. Such a man is dangerous, not only and not so grievously because he perverts history, palms off humbug as philosophy and menaces business and order, but because he seeks to poison at its very source the fountain of our national life. He seeks to substitute for a virile self-reliance, obedience to law and resolution to press forward, a spirit of anarchistic rage and bitter complaint that belongs only in the decadent civilizations of the Old World.

The difference between Bryan and all his predecessors is one not of degree, but of kind. We have never had a man before who sought to build himself up on the ruins of prosperity, and not only that, but on the wreck of individual courage and manly endeavor. The answer of our sterling young American manhood to this base appeal should be decisive and overwhelming.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jaa. Forest, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Banner Salve entirely cured it." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Most people would be content with their lot—if it happened to be a lot of money.

A good many consumptives would be cured and the worst cases comforted and relieved by using Foley's Honey and Tar. Suggest it to those afflicted. You should do this as a friend. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The wag of a yellow dog's tail is better than the shake of a false friend's hand.

Ulcers, open or obstinate sores, scalds and piles, quickly cured by Banner Salve, the most healing medicine in the world. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It is the unwritten poems and the untuning songs that make life endurable.

Allen Halverson of West Prairie, Wis., says: "People come ten miles to buy Foley's Kidney Cure," while J. A. Spore, of Helmer, Ind., says: "It is the medicine wonder of the age." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The voice of the average man spills what little music he has in his soul.

HOW BRIGHT'S DISEASE STARTS.

Indigestion, biliousness, blood poisoned with urea and uric acid (which should have been excreted by the kidneys), rheumatic pains in nerves and joints, causing irritation of the kidneys, then pains over the small of the back, mark sure approach of Bright's disease. Do not delay taking Foley's Kidney Cure, for it makes the kidneys right. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It isn't always modesty that keeps people from telling the naked truth.

HALF THE WORLD IN DARKNESS

as to the cause of their ill health. If they would start to treat their kidneys with Foley's Kidney Cure, the weariness of body and mind, backache, headache and rheumatic pains would disappear. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It is a waste of time to point out the woodpile to a tramp actor and ask him to do the split.

NO RELIEF FOR 20 YEARS.

"I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Miner Smith, of Danville, Ill., "and at times have been bedfast. I never got relief until I had taken Foley's Kidney Cure. It is pleasant and gives quick relief, and is a sure cure for throat and lung disease." Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
