SOME REASONS WHY BRYAN HAS A CHANCE OF ELECTION.

No one can calculate the disastrous effects both at home and abroad of a complete change, at the present crisis of affairs, in the whole internal and external policy of the United States government, such a change as the election of Bryan would seriously threaten, even if it did not at once bring it all to pass. The party of Mr. Bryan, as led by himself, is not a party of opposition simply, it is a party of revolution.

If the United States at this time abandons our possessions in the Pacific they will be abandoned only to be quickly seized upon by some European power, and the question of their ownership will endanger the peace of the whole world.

All these evils will come upon us to a greater or less degree in case Mr. Bryan is elected. With this man in the responsible office of president, surrounded as advisers by those who are seeking his election, every present condition would be in danger of a change, so vast and far reaching that we can think of it as nothing less than a revolution.

MY SISTER'S BABY My baby is full of abounding life and joy; my sister's boy is a puny thing.

The difference is: my baby is healthy. He takes his fill and sleeps; and he grows. My sister's boy gets fully as hungry, he cries with hunger; then cries, I think it must be, from weakness; his food is a burden to him.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil will set that poor little boy in the way of being as good as his own.

Well send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 First street, New York.

man wisdom will permit, the government of the United States, as at present administered, is doing its duty in that state of life in which it has pleased God to call it. Much of the quarrel which certain men have with the present administration is really a quarrel with Divine Providence.

All this estate of prosperity, progress and happiness is threatened by Mr. Bryan's character and party affiliations. Mr. Bryan is emotional, and his party revolutionary: neither he nor it ought at this time to be intrusted with the delicate operations of the government of the United States.

All this is so plain that millions of voters today are discounting the future; they think Mr. Bryan is defeated already—"He has not the ghost of a chance." Here is the danger. Mr. Bryan has the ghost of a chance. He has behind him the solid South, made solid for him by the unlawful suppression of a million lawful votes. He has behind him also the whole of the Populist party and a considerable section of the old Democratic party at the North; these will surely vote for him. He has also at his command all the power of the unscrupulous Tammany machine. With these forces to aid him Mr. Bryan is not to be despised. And if every Republican and sound money Democrat who thinks Mr. Bryan has not "a ghost of a chance" refrains from voting, Mr. Bryan will surely carry the election by default, and this Nation will be plunged into confusion and disaster of which it is impossible to know the end.

The only way to prevent such a calamity is to prevent it; it will not prevent itself. The only way to elect Mr. McKinley is to vote for him; the only way to defeat Bryan is to vote against him.

WHY THEY LOVE HIM.

Pawnee City (Neb.) Republican. The fact cannot be gainsaid that Col. William Jennings Bryan has been the idol of a certain element or class of people since his valiant charge through the First district ten years ago. Mr. Bryan sashayed through these parts at that time with a butcher knife in one hand and a tin plate in the other, and great were his blusterings against the wicked protective tariff. He was sent to congress. Two years later the great chief came ahorting across the district again still clutching the butcher knife and wheeling at his side a silver dollar larger than the tin plate of two years previous. The people were very much wrought up with his argument and he was again sent to congress. Here he had a hard time in the dissection of the protective tariff and in burnishing the bright times which settled over the country in Grover Cleveland's time. His heroic record earned for him the reward of a presidential nomination and a most deserving defeat. War came on and Mr. Bryan's heroism reached the climax. He was appointed colonel of the Third Nebraska. Bryan marshalled his host and rushed to the front and fought valiantly. The field ran bloodless and the champion came off alone. Every man was left on the field of battle and the hero went to Washington covered with epaulettes and glory. The people generously accorded to the colonel all the homage due a mighty conqueror. Bryan never doffed his martial suit but boldly rushed into congress and compelled the ratification of the Spanish-American peace treaty; rushing out he assailed the results which ratification necessarily brought about. He assailed the trusts, against which he never drafted a line or cast a vote. He accepted a second presidential nomination from Croker, Jones & Co., trust magnates. He has attacked the supreme court. He assails prosperity and industrial progress. He is disheartening labor and filling the hearts of rebels against the flag with hope of ultimate victory. He has more nerve than a government mule, and less sense. And that's why his worshippers love him.

The result of the registration of voters in the three leading cities of Washington shows that the figures of the census enumerators could not have been far from correct, and ought to prove a lesson to jaundiced Tacoma. In Seattle about 16,000 names were registered, in Tacoma 5,561 and in Spokane 8,276. These figures undoubtedly are a fair indication of the population of the three cities and will be accepted as such notwithstanding the loud howl certain to arise from Tacoma at such a conclusion.

The genus hobo will hereafter steer clear of the state of Ohio. Three years' imprisonment or acceptance of a job present a dreadful alternative to be shunned by all good Americans of the peripatetic school.

Salmon is going down. Advisers from Alaska report the loss of 62,500 cases now lying at the bottom of the Pacific. The price, however, continues to rise.

It is exasperating to one who knows Foley's Honey and Tar, and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis, etc. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Even if a man doesn't love a pawnbroker he is compelled to put up with him sometimes.

Don't be deceived or humbugged by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder troubles. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that such claims are fraudulent. Foley's Kidney Cure simply contains remedies that are recognized by the most skillful physicians as best for these complaints, so don't be credulous or foolish. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

That neighborly feeling of which we hear so much is usually one of curiosity and envy.

TO STOP A COLD.

After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

No man is a hopeless fool until he has made a fool of himself twice in the same way.

"I have always used Foley's Honey and Tar cough medicine and think it the best in the world," says Chas. Rogers, a newsdealer of Erie, Pa. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

There is really much tenderness in this cruel world—but the butcher rarely finds it.

The editor of the Furdville, Ky., Miscellaneous writes as a postscript to a business letter: "I was cured of kidney trouble by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist."

The man who can umpire a baseball game and please both sides, can figure on a reserved seat in the front row of the heavenly orchestra.

A CARD.

The manufacturers of Banner Salve have authorized the undersigned to guarantee it for burns, cuts, sores, ulcers, tetter, eczema and all skin diseases. You have your money back if it doesn't do all it claims. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Old Noah was evidently a ball tosser; the Bible says he pitched the ark without and within—then the game was called on account of rain.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

High living, intemperance, exposure and many other things bring on Bright's disease. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent Bright's disease and all other kidney or bladder disorders if taken in time. Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When you see an actor with a fur collar on his coat, it isn't safe to bet that he has an underhirt on.

IT HEALS THE LUNGS.

When suffering from a racking cough take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
