Per President

WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio.

For Vice-President THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Of New York.

In connection with Bryan's appeal to the "improvised" farmers it might be well to note that the value of the nine principal crops raised in the United States was $742,251,121 greater the past year than in 1896.

WHY HE FLOPPED.

The rejection of Mr. Bryan by Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, member of congress from Pennsylvania and a life-long Democrat, is in line with the action of the best man of his party today and hence nothing unusual, but the reasons why he took this step, as given by him in a recent address to his constituents, are stated in so superior and convincing a manner as to mark Mr. Sibley as one of the clearest-headed and brightest thinkers of any party. He said in part:

You charge me with changed opinions. This is true. Each day of life differs from any day preceding. The man who stands still or harks back to the dead past will be left in the rear. New occasions make new duties; Time makes ancient good uncouth. They must onward still and upward. Who would keep abreast of truth?

You charge me with being a flopper. Yes, I guess that is so. If a flopper may properly be defined as one who did not know it all yesterday, is wiser today and aims for progress tomorrow, then I am a flopper.

If a flopper is one who finds a position of yesterday untenable today, and positively wrong tomorrow, who seeks to leave the untenable position the occupation of which would stultify his intelligence, dwarf his conscience and work an injury to his fellows, then you may define me as a flopper.

If looking at the present and trusting for a grander future, rather than facing backward to fan the smoldering embers of the past, constitutes one a flopper, please enumerate me as such.

Whenever I see men who have been working for one dollar a day, able to earn two dollars; when the man who earned two dollars out here has the opportunity to earn three, I will flop as often as it may be necessary to flop that condition for that man to continue.

When from 1892 to 1896 47 per cent of the wage earners of this country were unemployed or working on short hours, and today only three-eighths of one per cent of the wage earners are unemployed, I will flop to help keep these men employed whenever and wherever it is demanded.

When under a free-trade tariff bill we saw our nation largely importing its manufactured necessities, and when under this administration we are manufacturing not only for ourselves, but are supplying the other nations of the world with the products fabricated by American hands in American workshops, you can make a fair guess that I will flop to help that cause along. Last year we sent from our American workshops to foreign nations $29,000,000 worth of manufactured products; this year $42,000,000, and with the assured certainty that with the present policy maintained these exports will within six years reach more than $1,000,000,000 annually, thereby requiring double the workshops of the present and affording double the present opportunity for honest labor and honest capital to meet with substantial recompense, I will flop and flop until I can be right side up in line with that policy.

When a pound of wool brings the farmer from 12 to 15 up to 20 cents today, and when his sheep, that were only saleable at a dollar per head in 1896, are worth today three to four dollars per head, I will flop whenever it is required of me to do so to help maintain that condition for the wool grower.

When I find that in 1896 we imported 238,849,000 pounds of foreign wool; in 1897, 251,800,000 pounds of wool; while in the year 1899 we imported but 76,000,000 pounds of wool, to give the best market of the world to the American producer rather than the foreign producer of wool, it makes it easy for me to flop for the benefit of that wool-grower.

When cotton, that sold for four cents per pound under the last administration, brings from 9 to 16 cents per pound under the McKinley administration, I will flop to help the cotton-grower.

When I see an advance in the price of all farm products ranging from 25 to 125 per cent, and my flopping from one attitude to another will help the farmer, I will try to be the first man to flop.

When I see furnaces blazing, forges glowing, looms weaving, when I hear whistles clicking and spindles humming, when I hear and brain each find fair recompense whether in factory or field, I will, as a man who aims to be loyal to his fellows, his country and his creator, try my level best to maintain that condition, call me what you will.

When wages have increased from 38 to 150 per cent in nearly all industries; when in 1899 we paid 75,000,000 more dollars to wage earners of this land than we did in 1896, with the assured certainty that they will still further increase, if we will only let our partnership shrivel and our patriotism expand; are you justified in doubting that if my attitude of yesterday flinders that increase, I will flop until my position of today shall be on that higher ground, standing upon which, humanity, from the heights of the delectable mountains, can see grand visions of a more glorious future?

When I see the miners of the Hocking Valley, who received but forty cents a ton for digging coal, now receiving eighty cents per ton for the same work, with a proportionate advance in all the bituminous coal fields, with steady work for all, it is an easy matter for me to flop.

When I see the glass-blowers receiving from twenty to thirty per cent advance in their scale of wages, with steady employment, for a continuation of such happiness for them it will not be difficult for me to flop.

When I see the flag fired upon; when I see the brave boys in blue, your brothers, your sons and your sweethearts, shot down by men in ambush, my sympathies go out to you and to them rather than to a Tagal savage, and I have got to flop. And as I love my country, my fellow men and my God, no man will flop ahead of me.

When we see each month a surplus in our national budget instead of a deficit; when we see, instead of borrowing money of England, as we did under the last administration, we have loaned within the last two years to Sweden, Russia, Germany and England more than $300,000,000; when we see our exports doubling and our imports dividing; when we see happy faces of a well fed and well clad citizenship, and contrast it with the days of the Coxey army of the unemployed; when the pinched faces of hungry men and women, and little children, clad in tatters, in the biting blast of the winter's storm, sought for cold charity and cold soup in the soup houses, let us pray that God in His grace grant that you and I shall never witness those scenes again, but if we do, my earnest prayer is that He may guide us all in the infinite love and wisdom that no vote or act of ours, whether in public or private life, shall be responsible for the return of such conditions.

Nobody can tell the Kansas farmer how to vote now. He knows it all. Prosperity is a great educator.

It is expediting to one who knows Foley's Honey and Tar, and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, in grippe, etc. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

There was a time when two pugilists met one or both had to bite the dust. Now they only chew the rag.

Don't be deceived or humbugged by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder troubles. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that such claims are fraudulent. Foley's Kidney Cure simply contains remedies that are recognized by the most skillful physicians as best for the complaint, so don't be credulous or foolish. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When a man is making a night of it, he always discovers that the darkest hour is just before the dawn.

After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

I have always used Foley's Honey and Tar since I was a child, and think it the best in the world," says Chas. Rogers, a newspaper editor of Erie, Pa. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A man's idea of rough luck is to play cards with a woman and win, when there is nothing at stake.

The editor of the Fordville, Ky., Miscellaneous writes as a postscript to a business letter: "I was cured of kidney trouble by taking Foley's Kidney Cure." Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Beer is said to be fattening; but too much of it will make a man lean-up against a lamp post.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE. High Spring, intermittent, exposure and many other things bring on Bright's disease, which is characterized by pain in the back, and other kidney or bladder disorders if taken in time. Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

About the only difference between a season and a sale is the price charged for drinks.

When suffering from a racking cough take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The disease will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the throat assured. Will be effected. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
