For Vice-President THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Of New York.

There is a great deal of good sense in the London demand for the restoration of the whipping post as a remedy for ruffianism and lawlessness.

The report of the judge advocate general of the army that about one in every ten of our soldiers, counting each case as of a different man, has been tried by court martial during the past year is a serious reflection upon the morale of our troops.

Nothing Mr. Bryan has said has more clearly shown the shallow character of the man than his reply to the question of "how about 16 to 1 at Preston, Md., Wednesday night, his attempt to entrap the ignorant by his reference to the present coinage laws as an example of "16 to 1 without the consent of any other nation" was demagogical in the extreme and will lose him the votes of many Democrats who hate hypocrisy.

The bureau of publicity of the Pan-American Exposition, to be held at Buffalo next year, has just issued an attractive booklet containing about 50 pages and over eighty beautiful illustrations descriptive of the exposition, Buffalo and scenic attractions of the neighborhood.

Inability to correlate harmonious facts, the Oregonian gets badly tangled up in attempting to discuss President Mellen's interview.

After admitting the probability that the Northern Pacific could land wheat cheaper at Astoria than at Portland, the Oregonian goes on to say that it costs but 5.68 cents per ton additional to take the wheat from Portland to Astoria on the ships and that the railroads would have to meet this rate.

It is exasperating to one who knows Foley's Honey and Tar, and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, la grippe, etc.

When a man is a candidate for office, his check is mightier than his word. Don't be deceived or humbugged by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder troubles.

TO STOP A COLD. After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time.

Man's devotion to woman frequently arouses her feelings of that tired nature.
