For President WILLIAM M'KINLEY, Of Ohio.

For Vice-President THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Of New York.

Another Democratic victory! Six American soldiers killed and nine wounded in an engagement with the friends of Bryan.

The largest fund of gold in the world is now in the treasury of the United States. If you want it to stay there vote for the man who got it there.

The two thousand stranded miners who were to come from Nome on the transport Lawton were, like Democratic majorities, much reduced when counted.

Dr. Leyds, the Transvaal agent in Paris, informs the Associated Press that President (?) Kruger is not accustomed to a cold climate and hence will not visit President McKinley. A wise precaution!

That awful McKinley has been causing some more strikes. Canadian shoe factories and cotton mills have had to close down and the blue noses are forced to send across the line for our manufactured products.

The spectacle of two of Bryan's campaigning tours inside of four years is enough to make the Danish West Indies fearful of union with America. He might want to tour them next time, if they agreed to annexation.

If the empress dowager, Prince Tuan and other leading Chinese criminals would follow the worthy example of Governor Yu Siang, a vast deal of trouble would be saved the powers as well as the Chinese nation itself.

The New York reception to Governor Roosevelt was far ahead that tendered Bryan in that city, in all that goes to make up a magnificent success, as the Republican majority in November will be ahead of the Bryan vote.

This terrible imperialism must be stopped. Here is McKinley sending carloads of rations to Arizona Indians without calling a special session of congress to have an appropriation bill passed—or held up by Democratic obstructionists.

I. W. Heilmann, president of the Nevada Bank, of San Francisco, and Farmers' and Merchants' bank, of Los Angeles, says: "I am a life-long Democrat, but I shall not vote for Mr. Bryan for president. The 16 to 1 idea, if put into practice, would upset all values. Everybody would be injured; the mechanic and laborer as well as the banker and merchant. America is today a credulous country and will continue to be so unless we change our monetary system. Let the ratio of 16 to 1 be adopted and it will drive out what gold there is here. Our securities will be sent back from abroad to be sold here in immense sums. One crisis would follow another. Manufacturing interests would be greatly injured; labor, which is now in good demand, would suffer. Another objection to Bryan is that he is not a Democrat. I am a moderate expansionist. Without expansion I believe that this country would stand still, just as any large corporation does which does not expand and keep up with the times. I believe in holding on to every foot of land that the American flag flies over, and would not give up one bit of it. California has been much benefited by this expansion. Our trade has grown and is growing continually by reason of the policy of the present administration. I believe that this trade will keep on expanding if Mr. McKinley is re-elected. It would be lost if Mr. Bryan were elected."

STEVENSON AS A PATRIOT.

When Stevenson was running for the vice-presidency in 1892, the New York Press took occasion to look up his record as an American and secured the following evidence:

"Stevenson sold revolvers to traitors."—Affidavit of Parker Gardner, Wabash, Ind., Aug. 6, 1892.

"Stevenson's name appeared on the record of membership of the Knights of the Golden Circle, which I captured."—Statement of Major J. Olmstead, now of Los Angeles, Cal.

"Stevenson was throughout the war a friend of the Copperheads."—Affidavit of Rev. G. B. Snedeker, pastor of the Methodist church in Mr. Stevenson's home in 1862.

"Stevenson said he was glad Lincoln was shot and that he should have been killed earlier."—Affidavit of William B. Whiffen, editor of the Metamora Sentinel, where Stevenson resided in 1862.

"If 'General' Stevenson could produce even one little bit of a speech of public utterance made by him in 1863 or 1864 in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the Union, or of sustaining the hands of Abraham Lincoln, loyal people may forget or believe themselves mistaken in their firm recollection that in 1863 and 1864 A. E. Stevenson was a rank Copperhead politician and candidate for office in Woodford county."—Ex-Governor Hamilton, of Illinois, who lived at Bloomington during the war.

THE PARAMOUNT ISSUE.

New York Tribune. Mr. Bryan has put forward, or his friends have put forward in his behalf, only one serious reason for trying to shove free silver and to make the quaint and curious thing dubbed "anti-imperialism" the paramount issue of this campaign. In fact, only one reason is logically possible or conceivable. That is that, great and important as free silver is, "anti-imperialism" is greater and more important. That is the only reason which could justify the change.

It is the only reason Mr. Bryan could give which is worthy of a moment's notice. We do not say, and we do not believe, it is his real reason. But it is his ostensible reason. Four years ago, however—since which time, as Mr. Bryan himself assures us, neither he nor his party has changed in the least in respect to the silver question—what did Mr. Bryan say about this then paramount issue? He told the people of New York that he believed "the gold standard is made up of more misery for the human race than wars or pestilence or famine; more misery than human brain can conceive or human tongue can tell." That is what he said then of his paramount issue, the issue he then made paramount above peace and war, life and death, but the issue which he now tries to shove and to ignore. He said that deliberately, as the matured fruit of his statesmanlike and patriotic judgment.

Is he prepared to re-affirm that declaration today? If so does he mean to try to persuade us that "imperialism" and "militarism" are worse than he declared the gold standard to be? They cannot be. If the gold standard is worse than tongue can tell or mind can conceive, it is idle to talk of anything else being worse. The finite mind cannot conceive anything beyond the inconceivable. There can be nothing worse than the worst. Or at any rate we can conceive of nothing worse than that which is worse than we can conceive.

On the other hand, if Mr. Bryan now admits that the gold standard is not quite as bad as he represented it to be, and that it is so much less bad that it is possible for us to conceive of something worse, he convicts himself of exaggeration and false judgment (and an exposure himself to the suspicion that he may be equally in error now.

"Punch" once depicted one coater as standing meek and mute before another who was mooking upon him the vials of his vociferous wrath with such copiousness and illuminative resources as only the coater vocabulary knows. "Why don't you answer him?" demanded a bystander. "How can I?" was the mournful response; "he's used up all the best words!" Mr. Bryan must regret in 1900 that in 1896 he used up so many of his best words that he has none left with which to convince the public that to him any issue is paramount to the simple desire to get votes and the simple greed to get into office.

When a farmer gives a tramp his breakfast, there is no occasion for getting into matrimony or any other kind of trouble, but they have another kind of a time getting out.

It is exasperating to one who knows Foley's Honey and Tar, and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, a grippé, etc. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

People always have a good time getting into matrimony or any other kind of trouble, but they have another kind of a time getting out.

Don't be deceived or humbugged by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder troubles. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that such claims are fraudulent. Foley's Kidney Cure simply contains remedies that are recognized by the most skillful physicians as best for these complaints, so don't be credulous or foolish. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Consistency is the word a man forgets when he sees a two-dollar woman dressed in a two hundred dollar gown.

TO STOP A COLD. After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A man can fall in love on a small salary, but he should remember that safety pins are not on the free list.

"I have always used Foley's Honey and Tar cough medicine and think it the best in the world," says Chas. Bender, a newsdealer of Erie, Pa. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The father of triplets would no doubt have preferred the accumulation of a family on the installment plan.

The editor of the Fordville, Ky. Miscellaneous writes as a postscript to a business letter: "I was cured of kidney trouble by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It did nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist."

It's a great pity that man can't find an insurance company willing to take risks on his air-castles.

A CARD. The manufacturers of Banner Salve have authorized the undersigned to guarantee it for burns, cuts, scalds, ulcers, tetter, eczema and all skin diseases. You have your money back if it doesn't do all it claims. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When a girl does not look with favor on a young man's suit, he should transfer his patronage to another tailor.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE. High living, intemperance, exposure and many other things bring on Bright's disease. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent Bright's disease and all other kidney or bladder disorders if taken in time. Take nothing else. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A man never loses money on fast horses. It's the slow skates that drive him to the free lunch counters.

IT HEALS THE LUNGS. When suffering from a racking cough take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
