REMARKABLE TOUR OF ROOSEVELT

Excels Campaigns of All Other Candidates Except Bryan.

BRYAN ISSUES STATEMENT

Says the Republican Campaign Has Been a
Failure and Workmen Have Repudiated the Full Dinner
Pail Argument.

OWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Governor Roosevelt completed tonight at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by the candidate of any party in the United States.

In eight weeks he has visited twenty-four states of the Union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be three million people.

This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all other candidates for president or vice-president of the United States of all the other parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of that of William J. Bryan in 1896.

This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York during which the candidate traveled 2,500 miles through 27 counties, and made 129 speeches, a majority of them from the rear platform of his train.

Roosevelt finished his tour in excellent health and in good spirits and, as he said tonight, "With a slightly weakened voice but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks or more."

The last day of the campaign included eight stops. Just as the train was pulling out of Waverly, a stone was thrown, breaking the glass in an observation window in the governor's car.

HANNA DISCUSSES BRYANISM.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Senator Hanna addressed three meetings tonight. Bryan spoke in this section of the northwest side last night, and Senator Hanna devoted most of his time to the discussion of imperialism and trusts on which Bryan dwelt chiefly.

"It amounts almost to fanaticism and chicanery," said Hanna, "for a man who aspires to the high office of president to raise a question so foreign to the principles and future of our government as to talk about imperialism as an issue. It is but another boresman to frighten the people. By his acts and his words Bryan is laying the foundation in this country for socialism and anarchy."

OVATION FOR STEVENSON.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Adlai E. Stevenson received today the greatest ovation ever given any candidate in this city, eclipsing even Bryan's reception in 1896. There was a parade of 2,000 farmers.

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—William J. Bryan's program in Chicago today comprised twelve speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of yesterday and last night.

The candidate began his itinerary at Sander Hall, in the down-town business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in the "Old Vienna" pavilion at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue; one to a crowd in the building, and the other to a throng that was unable to gain admittance.

Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested. Two men in the audience asked almost simultaneously: "How about North Carolina?" and Bryan was replying when one questioner insisted on asking a question concerning the trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. He was saved from violence by police interference.

Bryan's night meetings were held on the northwest, southwest and south

EMPRESS MUST BE REMOVED

Allies Are Likely to Make That Demand.

FIVE OFFICIALS CONDEMNED

French Are Destroying Villages and Punishing
Boxer Sympathizers—Chinese
Army Defending Royal Tombs
Against Them.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—It was stated today in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs, that outside of the questions of indemnity, punishments, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz:

First, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisers, from all participation in the Chinese government.

Second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenues, either by payment of the duties in gold instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem, and Third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Taung li Yamen.

OFFICIALS SENTENCED.

PAO TING FU, Friday, Oct. 26.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Ten Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Hung On, the military commandant; General Kiu and two other officials. German and French troops will garrison Pao Ting Fu for the winter. The preparations are complete for destroying, October 27, the most venerated temple in the city.

FRENCH TROOPS ACTIVE.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Peking, dated October 31, says:

General Veyron, commander-in-chief of the French troops in China, with the allies under his command is purging the villages around Tien Tsin and Peking. Many villages infected with Boxers have been destroyed and their inhabitants punished. A French column sent to Tuen rescued the missionaries there. Another French column met with resistance at Siet Chung. The enemy's losses were considerable. The village was burned. News received from Pao Ting Fu indicates a movement of French and German troops upon Si Lung, where the imperial tombs are situated. It is rumored that the army of Yang Yuh Kante has resolved to defend the place.

As the result of inquiries made by the international commission under General Bailoud, second in China, the allies are convinced that the grand treasurer and the governor of Pao Ting Fu and a Chinese colonel were instrumental in the murder of American and English missionaries, and they have been condemned and will be executed soon.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 2.—Rev. Charles E. Ewing, who was clerk at a meeting of American missionaries in Peking August 18, four days after the arrival of the allied forces, has just made public resolutions adopted at the meeting and forwarded to Minister Conger expressing the hearty appreciation of the courage, fidelity and patriotism of the American marines; also a letter thanking the American minister for the interest shown by him.

PENITENTIARY FOR LIFE.

Mrs. Crockett Was Sentenced Yesterday for Murder of Her Husband.

PENDLETON, Or., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Minnie Crockett was sentenced to the state penitentiary for life this afternoon by Judge Ellis for the murder of her husband.

When asked if she had anything to say before sentence was passed Mrs. Crockett said: "Yes, sir; I do; I wish to say that I am innocent of this charge; that I am in your hands, a helpless woman." An appeal will be made.

COURTS SUSTAIN REPUBLICANISM

Judge Estee Decides Constitution
Does Not Follow the Flag.

CONVICTION BY NINE JURORS

Old Laws of Hawaiian Islands in Force
Until New Ones Were Enacted Especially for Government of the Territory.

HONOLULU, Oct. 25, via San Francisco, Nov. 2.—United States District Judge Estee has rendered a decision to the effect that the "constitution does not follow the flag," in an important libel case that has been before the courts here for some time.

Wm. H. Marshall was sentenced to six months imprisonment for criminal libel on account of a publication made about the late chief justice. He made an appeal to the supreme court of Hawaii, alleging that the methods pursued during his trial were not in accordance with American procedure. The lower court was sustained and Marshall turned to Judge Estee with a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Estee held that the laws of Hawaii allowing the conviction of a defendant upon a verdict by nine jurors were still in force at the time of the Marshall trial, which was long after the passage of the resolution annexing Hawaii to the Union. The judge said that the old laws and customs remained in force until new laws were enacted for the government of the territory.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Failures for the Week Continue Slightly in Excess of Number Last Year.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

"The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but has restricted buying largely to the wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods, notably of iron and steel. The failures for the week were 146 in the United States against 133 last year and 23 in Canada against 25 last year.

JAPS WANT TO VOTE.

As Naturalized British Subjects They Claim the Suffrage in Canada.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 2.—A Japanese named Tommi has demanded to be placed on the voters' lists here, threatening appeal to the courts as a naturalized British citizen. If refused, he will ask for a declaration that the British Columbian law excluding Chinese and Japanese from voters' rights is unconstitutional. The question is most important, as the Japanese would hold the balance of power in several constituencies if allowed to vote.

M'GOVERN DEFEATS BERNSTEIN.

Former Will Retain the Featherweight Championship.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—Terry McGovern, the featherweight champion of the world, defeated Joe Bernstein, of New York, in the seventh round before the Nonpareil Athletic Club and 5,000 people here tonight. The featherweight championship was involved and the battle was scheduled for twenty-five rounds.

The purse was $2500, of which the winner received $2300.
