The Methodists are talking of establishing new missions in Scandinavia. Why not try Colorado?

A survey of the female vote at the recent elections in Utah, Colorado, Wyoming and Idaho shows that the women who were candidates for office were turned down by heavy pluralities. They know now that woman doesn't like to be ruled by petticoat government.

A Chinese merchant of Baker City has left for parts unknown with several thousand dollars left in his care by his confiding fellow countrymen. One of the victims explains the affair by saying: "He been here too long; now alle same American banker, only he no go to Canada; he go to China." And yet there are those who insist that the Chinese who come here never learn American ways.

Great care should be taken by bicyclists in crossing railroad tracks. A girl cyclist crossed the O. R. & N. tracks this morning near the depot, just as the yard engine with several freight cars attached backed rapidly across the street just in front of her. Her presence of mind prevented an accident, but gave the onlookers a serious scare.—East Oregonian. The Pendleton girls should be more careful about displaying their presence of mind before onlookers, or something more serious than a scare may result.

The Tacoma Ledger starts a leading article thusly: "This city is not given to boasting," and in concluding the same article says: "If there is any place entitled to be known as the port rather than a port, Tacoma has the honor to be that place." As for Seattle —"Seattle has the nerve, the check, or whatever it may be called, to advertise itself as the port of the Sound." No, Tacoma never boasts. The modesty of Tacoma is proverbial, as is also the gentle delicacy of the Tacoma press in referring to the comparative greatness of that and other cities.

Under the title, "A Business Necessity," the Albany Herald discusses the plea of Mr. Hammond for common point rates to coast points. The Herald believes that the large investment of capital in Western Oregon by Hammond and his associates deserves encouragement and ought to be met with the proper spirit by the people of the state. The investment of capital in the development of our resources is what we want, and we cannot afford to cast any restrictions in its way. The forging ahead of Washington as compared with our own state the Herald attributes to the more liberal policies of its railroad lines.

are many times the cause of various diseases. Ninety per cent of the American people are said to be troubled with liver and stomach complaints such as constipation, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, sluggish liver, etc.

overcome and cure these ills. These tablets act as a gentle laxative. They make the liver and stomach do their duty as they should. The most obstinate cases yield to these little tablets. They cost 25c and can be procured at

FRANK HART,
Successor to Th. Olsen, 600-2 Com. St.

Cecil Rhodes and the mining capitalists with whom he is connected in South Africa have decided to import Chinese coolie labor to work the diamond mines and for other purposes. The chances are that at the beck of capital South Africa will be speedily overrun with hordes of rice-eating Mongols. If the stream of emigration from China be thereby turned aside from these shores, America will not complain. The question of Asiatic immigration is about to be re-opened here and the way in which it is being handled elsewhere will be watched with great interest. It is not likely that the design of the South African capitalists will be carried out without serious protest from some portions of the resident population.

"COIN" HARVEY BORROWING TROUBLE.

Chicago Times-Herald.

It is, as Mr. Bryan would say, "our lot" to announce the fact that "Coin" Harvey is going to move away from Chicago and let her see how she likes it. We take this opportunity to again felicitate Chicago. This city's greatness and glory increase from day to day. What was once known as the Chicago platform has ceased to be, and in its place is what men call the Kansas City platform. We have nothing against Kansas City, and wish that ambitious settlement no harm, but charity keeps on beginning at home. The Chicago platform is no more, and "Coin" Harvey is going to live in Arkansas. Whatever glories may be reserved for Chicago, posterity will have some good reasons for looking back upon these as her halcyon days.

We are not surprised at the fact that Mr Harvey is in an uncheerful frame of mind. He has given out a signed statement at Rogers, Ark., in which he draws a dismal picture of the future of this country. "Civilization," he says, "is threatened, and nothing short of a phenomenal movement can save it." Possibly Mr. Harvey considers his movement phenomenal enough to accomplish the purpose. He fails to particularize on that side of the question. But, be that as it may, he leaves us no reason to doubt that he is terribly depressed. And how could he be otherwise? Any man who had moved from Chicago to Arkansas would naturally take a gloomy view of things. We must not, therefore, take Mr. Harvey's pessimism too seriously.

In addition to selecting Arkansas as his future home, Mr. Harvey is all run down as a result of his long incarceration at the hands of the Democratic managers. For weeks and weeks before the election he was held in durance vile, owing to the fear that he would, if permitted to be at large, try to interpret for the masses Mr. Bryan's well-known and carefully concealed views on the silver question. Naturally, Mr. Harvey's experience has made him irritable and impatient. Yet we cannot pass over his predictions for the future without a brief examination of them. Let us see what he says:

"In the next decade there will be riots, martial law and much distress and misery in the congested centers of the north, with the people hopelessly subjected to an influence that is slowly bringing about their crucifixion. The people of Arkansas are to be congratulated on having no large city and no extremely rich people. For these reasons I have come here to make my home."

So we see that Mr. Harvey has lost faith in the masses. He wants to get away from them. He is afraid of them. He thinks they are going to riot. They have bought his book and paid him the price, and he believes they may try at this late day to find out what it means. We confess that this latter course on their part might cause reason to totter around somewhat, might cause riots and misery, might even bring on new fears of crucifixions or crosses of gold—but it will not happen. Already the barbers throughout our broad land are beginning to put the leaves of Mr. Harvey's book to the only good use now remaining for them. We think the trouble has been averted.

In the meantime, we feel it our duty to suggest to Mr. Harvey that if he is trying to get away from congested centers and prefers to live where no rich people abide there are large districts in Africa which offer even greater advantages in that line than he is likely to find in Arkansas. As a remedy for Mr. Harvey's trouble we cheerfully and even urgently recommend Africa.

Once a wheel always a wheel; first a bicycle then a tandem, and last—but not least—a baby carriage.

The Bible tells us that after creating man God rested; but since creating woman, neither God nor man has been able to rest.

IT CURES THE COLD AND STOPS THE COUGH.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

Some men can make a dollar go a long way, but they can't buy a reserved seat in heaven with it.

Many of your friends, or people whom you know of, have contracted consumption, pneumonia or other fatal diseases, by neglect of a simple cold or cough. Foley's Honey and Tar, a safe, sure and pleasant cough medicine, would have saved them. It is guaranteed. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When you see a young man cleaning a girl's bicycle, they are engaged; but when you see the operation reversed, they are married.

George A. Points, Upper Sandusky, O., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for hoarseness and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately and relieved all soreness." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Bloomers will not have been in vain if the new woman can successfully compete with the old man in a match striking contest.

After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to cure, and will prevent pneumonia or consumption if taken in time. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When a girl expresses a desire to take a spin on a tandem, the man on behind is always ready to second her motion.

J. W. Barnes, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him Foley's Honey and Tar. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediateyl stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

There was a time when a woman was satisfied to go through her hubbie's pockets, but now she wants to wear the pants.

Mrs. T. Briddleman, of Parshallville, Mich., was troubled with salt rheum for thirteen years and had tried a number of doctors without relief. After two or three applications of Banner Salve, her hands became better and in a short time she was entirely cured. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When the fig tree bloomed in the garden of Eden, Adam and Eve gathered the leaves and used them for bloomers.

J. Odgers, of Frostburg, Md., writes: "I had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's Kidney Cure which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles." Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When a man begins to imagine that he is in love with a bloomer girl, it's about time for him to stop drinking.

Today take Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively prevents pneumonia, or other serious results from colds. It may be too late tomorrow.

Most people who try to ride the wheel of fortune, manage to puncture the tire before they get very far.

RECOMMENDS IT TO TRAINMEN.

G. H. Hausin, Lima, O., Engineer, L. E. & W. R. R., writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends, among the train men, who are usually similarly afflicted." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A woman never fully understands the hardness of the world until she falls off a bicycle a few times.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application.
