The Colombian rebels are daily crushed and victorious.

The prediction that Kruger was going to Europe as a peacemaker hardly seems verified by his independence-orde speech at Marseilles.

It is not that the French love Kruger much but that they hate England more which explains the great reception given the ex-president of the Transvaal.

The Penitentiary East Oregonian has the following kind words for the editorial staff of the Oregonian: "Mr. H. W. Scott, of the Portland Oregonian, is in New York, and in his place, on the editorial staff of the paper is an ape who is doing his best to imitate his gorilla chief."

The Oregonian professes to wonder why Astoria does not "get the grain and load the ships," as if unaware that the unjust discrimination of the railroad companies has alone kept Portland in existence as a port of call for sea-going vessels. Let simple justice be granted to the Oregonian and he will be allowed the pleasure of seeing Astoria "get the grain and load the ships."

Oregonians did a good deal of complaining about the recent cold snap, unmindful of the fact that at that time we were enjoying better weather than any other part of the country. Heat prostrations were reported in the East, death-dealing cyclones in the South, fearful blizzards on both sides of the Canadian boundary and destructive floods in Southern California, the much-vaunted paradise of America.

The attempt of the governor of Colorado to have the human brutes who lynched the negro fiend, Porter, brought to justice is praiseworthy but not likely to result in any convictions. It will be very difficult to procure a jury who will convict the father of the negro's victim, yet he was the most guilty of all, as the mode of torture was chosen by him and he also applied the match. It is to be hoped, at any rate, that he will receive a lesson which will teach him that thirst for vengeance is not an admirable human attribute nor one which is to be allowed full sway.

MAL-NUTRITION

You may or may not be eating enough; and are thin. You may or may not feel well—some folks don't know what it is to feel well.

This is mal-nutrition. You are not getting the use of your food.

Take a little Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. Begin with a little; increase; but don't overdo it. Take as much as you can without upsetting the stomach.

Feeling well is bodily happiness.

With all the many desperately fought national contests, there has never been a dispute as to the popular majority. It has always been ascertained and accepted. The closest national contest was in 1850, when Garfield received less than 10,000 popular majority over Hancock. While we have had many and serious disputes over electoral complications, there has never been a dispute since the government was founded as to the popular vote for president and vice-president. Thus every consideration of public justice, of popular equality and of national safety demands that our constitution should be so amended as to enable the people of every state and territory who are qualified to vote for members of congress to vote directly for president and vice-president, and choose them by the mandate of the sovereign power of the republic.

TO CURE A COULD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. F. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Many a man whose marriage was the result of love at first sight, wishes he had been blessed with the gift of second sight.

Many of your friends, or people whom you know of, have contracted consumption, pneumonia or other fatal diseases, by neglect of a simple cold or cough. Foley's Honey and Tar, a safe, sure and pleasant cough medicine, would have saved them. It is guaranteed. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Honor compels us to tell a man his faults to his face, but the laws of self-preservation make it safer to tell them to the neighbors.

George A. Points, Upper Sandusky, O., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for hoarseness and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately and relieved all soreness." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When a poor girl who is long and lanky, suddenly acquires wealth, she immediately becomes divinely tall and graceful.

After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to cure, and will prevent pneumonia or consumption if taken in time. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Never tell a woman that you would like her to be an artist, judging by her face, unless you are looking for trouble.

J. W. Barnes, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him Foley's Honey and Tar. The result was marvellous and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

If the wife could make biscuits like her husband's mother used to make, and the husband would buy clothes for his wife like her father used to buy, fewer marriages would be a failure.

Mrs. T. Bridgeman, of Parshallville, Mich., was troubled with salt rheum for thirteen years and had tried a number of doctors without relief. After two or three applications of Banner Salve, her hands became better and in a short time she was entirely cured. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It's hard for some men to say just what they mean, and it's a good deal harder for others to mean what they say.

J. Odgers, of Frostburg, Md., writes: "I had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's Kidney Cure which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles. Take no substitute." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A woman can make a neighborly call in three minutes—that is if she has fifteen minutes more in which to say goodbye.

Today take Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively prevents pneumonia, or other serious results from colds. It may be too late tomorrow.

There are wives who drive their husbands to drink, and there are lots of other husbands who would be glad to have such wives.

RECOMMENDS IT TO TRAINMEN.

G. H. Hanson, Lima, O., Engineer, L. E. & W. R. L., writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends, among the train men, who are usually similarly afflicted." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Some men tell their wives everything that happens; then there are others who tell them a great many things that never happen.

THE LOUVRE

Strangers visiting in the city will find the Louvre an attractive resort wherein to spend the evening. The Amne Sisters Ladies' Orchestra is still on the bills and presents nightly a musical program of exceptional merit. Handsome pool and billiard rooms are a feature in connection with the house. Palatable lunches will be served at all hours.

HONG KONG JUNTA ACTIVE.

Are Preparing to Send More Arms to the Insurgents.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—United States Consul Wildman, says a World dispatch from Hong Kong, has information that the Filipino junta at a meeting held November 15 decided to brave the chances of deportation rather than quit Hong Kong.

Recent correspondence between the junta and the insurgents proves that Aguinaldo is still alive but he is said to be suffering from a gunshot wound in his stomach.

The Hong Kong junta has also decided to make another attempt to send arms to the Filipinos in a launch which, it is rumored, will probably fly the German flag. The venture will be in charge of Colonel Julio Del Pilar. Hays and Garcia, two Filipino agents, have a large stock of munitions of war at Macao.

The Chinese General Pan, who was recently deported from the Philippines, has been conferring with the junta at Hong Kong but has gone to Singapore.

BLOW TO IRRIGATION.

Nebraska Supreme Court Decides That Owner of Property Adjacent to Stream Has Right to Its Water Undiminished.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 23.—The state supreme court, in an opinion by Chief Justice Norval, has rendered a decision which may stop all irrigation projects in Western Nebraska.

The opinion holds in effect that the owner of property adjacent to a stream has the right to its water undiminished. This is the old English common law and it was against such ruling that the irrigation companies of the West were fighting.

The suit in question was one brought by the Crawford Irrigation Company to establish its right to divert water from White river. This right was opposed by the owners of the mills on the stream and the contention of the mill owners is sustained.

INDIANS STARVING.

Great Suffering on Reservations in Southern California.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 23.—Several hundred Indians in this county are threatened with starvation. They have made no provision for the winter and are suffering for want of food.

Mrs. Watkins, the teacher at Mesagranda reservation, where there are 406 people, of whom 37 are old that they are helpless, writes of having visited seven of the reservations and found the Indians in a dreadful condition of want in all of them. Children and women are almost naked and there is not enough food in any of the lodges to keep the inhabitants thereof throughout the winter.

The manzanita berries were a failure and the acorns dropped from the oak trees in June because of lack of moisture.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Santa Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.
