Of Interest to Ladies.—Send your address to Starbuck Co., box 366, Portland, Ore., and we will mail you description of an article every woman should possess. Do not forget that there will be one more evening of magic and fun at Fisher's opera house before the engagement of Prof. and M. Etta Falt closes in this city. Ralph R. Knapp, editor and business manager, pro tem, of the Astoria Daily News, is in Portland on a special business trip. Of course he knew nothing about the football game that comes off there today. By the circulation of a petition among the merchants of the city the various places of business will be closed all day today, instead of for the afternoon, as stated in the evening papers. Thanksgiving services will be held today at St. Mary's Catholic church at 9 a. m. A high mass of thanksgiving will be sung and an address appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. George Keiman stepped on a rusty nail on Tuesday evening while returning home from the opera house. The nail penetrated his foot and inflicted a very painful and dangerous wound. Mrs. Ulricha Swan, aged 75 years, died yesterday at her home on Tucker creek. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock with the interment at Greenwood. The steamer will leave here about 11 o'clock. Robt. A. Brodie, the genial foreman of the Astoria Daily News, will spend Thanksgiving with friends at North Head lighthouse. "Bob" is inclined to believe that "Turkeys grow large over there." Sale of reserved seats for tonight's performance at Fisher's opera house will be open at Griffin & Greenleaf's store, when it will be closed until 5 o'clock and opened at the box office at the opera house. Mrs. A. M. Ford, principal owner of the Ford-McCree photograph gallery, and her sister, Miss Mary M. McCrea, of Boise, Idaho, are the guests of their brother, J. P. McCrea, and will reside here in the future. Manager Ohler, of the Astoria football team has received word from the manager of the Dallas team that December 8th will be satisfactory as a date for a game. The local team will leave here the day before and return on Sunday. The name of the young man who was injured at the same time of the accident to Lauraine at Clatsop mill Tuesday night, is said to be William Casey, and his home is in Knappa. He was not seriously injured and left the hospital yesterday morning. There will be an intercollegiate game between the University of Washington and the University of Oregon at Eugene on Saturday next. This is the first game to be played between the two universities and the outcome will be watched with interest. The funeral of the late W. H. Wood will be held from his late residence in Uppertown this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Greenwood cemetery. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Seaside lodge, A. O. U. W. The work of expelling yellow labor from the factories, mills and railroads of the Northwest is having its effect in the Canadian province across the boundary. A movement has been started there that it is believed will within a short time greatly lessen the number of that class that are employed now. Mrs. Duncan Stuart received word yesterday afternoon that Mr. Stuart, who is at Skagway, had been taken ill and was on his way to this city. The word reached her just in time as she was all prepared to leave for Skagway last evening, where she expected to join her husband, who has been living at that place. Ed Llewellyn, driver of No. 1 hose team had the misfortune to have one of the horses slip on his foot yesterday morning. One of the cables of the horse's shoe struck his instep cutting an ugly gash about two inches long. Fortunately no bones were broken, although the injury was a rather painful one. Donald Ross, who went to Palo Alto, Cal., about a month ago for the benefit of his health, is reported to be much improved. He will be out of the doctor's care in a couple of weeks and will soon thereafter be able to return home. The California physicians state that he has no trace of consumption as was believed when he went there. The children of room 3 at McClure's school yesterday took their Thanksgiving offering to the county court and asked Judge Gray to see that the provisions, etc., were distributed among the needy and poor of the city. The offering consisted of apples, potatoes, cabbage, canned fruit, jelly, etc., to the value of several dollars and shows a very commendable spirit of generosity on the part of the youngsters. The line up for the game this afternoon will be as follows: Minard, c; Graham, r; Jones, 1 b; Tallant, r; Thornton, 1 b; Halderman, r; Caswell, 1 b; Knudsen, r; Grand, 1 b; Painter, 1 b; Bullington, c; Suba, c; Jones, Barker, Trullinger, Lucey. Both teams are in excellent form for the game and some snappy playing is expected on both sides. The Multnomah eleven has been doing some good playing and although the local team is better than in previous games, it is not thought to be a clinch on either side.

NOTICE. All those who have Christmas Savings Books with sales aggregating $25 will please bring them to my store not later than the 30th day of this month. Samples of presents are now in from which you can make a selection. No presents will be given anyone whose book shows less than $25, nor to anyone who fails to bring or send their book to my store by the last of this month. HERMAN WISE. Celestine Monie, the old Frenchman who was brought up to the hospital from Clatsop two weeks ago, died at that institution yesterday. Mr. Monie was an old-time Colorado miner and was reported to have been very wealthy one time, but adverse fortune struck him and he was reduced to poverty. He worked at the Parker House for some time but of late had been living at Clatsop. It is not known that he has any relatives living in this part of the country. Owing to the fact that Prof. C. W. Falt has an open date for this evening and by a special request the performance will be repeated at Fisher's opera house tonight. A young man of this city will be put into a hypnotic sleep in the front window of Conn's drug store and will remain there all evening, when he will be taken to the opera house and awakened on the stage. The program for the evening will be a special one. Among the features introduced will be the marriage test and numerous other difficult feats of mind reading that will convince the most skeptical. This will be followed by the mesmerism work in which an entire change of suggestion will be given to the class of sleepers. The tug Astoria arrived in from Willapa yesterday afternoon with Captain Young of the stranded bark Potlatch on board. Captain Young, who is naturally very much upset over the loss of his ship, held a conference with the British vice-consul, P. L. Cherry, but did not care to give out any statement in any way regarding his ship. The Astoria took on an anchor and a quantity of wire cable that were brought down by the O. R. & N. Co.'s boat yesterday morning, and if the weather permits will leave out early this morning for the stranded vessel. Opinions differ on the probability of floating the Potlatch, but the opinion is general that if the heavy weather will hold off for a few days she will be gotten off. The performance at Fisher's opera house last evening was a very satisfactory one in every way and despite the inclemency of the weather a fairly large crowd were present. The slight-of-hand performance was very clever and elicited generous applause. The experiments in mental telegraphy and hypnotism were both interesting and amusing and the balloon, hunting and faking scenes with the hypnotic class were greeted with roars of laughter. Two of the subjects were put into a cataleptic state with rigid muscles and laid with heads and feet resting on chairs. The other two were then served in the same manner and pled on across the first two. They were so rigid that they could be handled like cordwood. By special request the performance will be repeated this evening with an entire change of program. Oscar Lauraine, the young man, who was so seriously injured at the Clatsop mills Tuesday evening has not yet rallied from the terrible shock to his system and serious doubts are entertained as to whether he will recover from the effects of his frightful experience. The muscles of the dislocated shoulder are so strained and torn that it is not probable that he would ever have the full use of it in the event of his recovery. In addition to his other injuries, as mentioned in yesterday's issue, he sustained a fracture of the right leg at the knee and his hands were badly cut and bruised. Just why the Budget should deny the facts of the accident as stated yesterday morning is hard to understand as a call at the hospital, within two hundred feet of their building, at any time yesterday would have convinced them of the truth of the facts. Whether the motive of the Budget was to wilfully misstate facts or simply to attack the Astorian or a combination of both, is not known. UNION SERVICES TODAY. The program for the union services at the Baptist church this morning, commencing at 10:30, is as follows: Voluntary Organ Invocation Rev. J. McCormack Hymn Choir and Congregation Scripture Reading Organ Sermon, "Duty of National Thanksgiving" Rev. F. E. Dell Anthem Choir Announcements Organ Offering Organ The offering will be taken which will be placed in the hands of the W. C. T. U. for the relief of any in the city who may be in need during the winter. SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numerous resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain. The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect. Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application. C. H. MARKHAM, G. P. A., Portland, Oregon. Wins men will rather do sacrifice to envy, in suffering themselves, sometimes of purpose, to be crossed and overborne in things that do not much concern them. All husbands and wives agree—but the agreement is usually to the effect that they made a mistake in marrying.

At their regular meeting last Wednesday they had several visitors from other tribes, who speak very highly of their work. A THINKING MACHINE. A famous inventor declares that he has devised a machine that will abolish warfare. This machine is a boat that will go without men on board, and can be controlled for any distance without wires. It will obey orders from the land or it will act on its own judgment, according to the necessities of the situation. It will carry an unlimited quantity of explosives, which can be aimed with utter accuracy. Progress has achieved wonders during this century. The fact that it can find no substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, proves the inestimable value of the Bitters. So long as constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles continue to affect mankind, so long will the Bitters stand as the one sure cure for them. A. O. U. W. NOTICE. Wright, Mr. Peterson and Mr. Rinehart, the last named being the discoverer of the deposit. It is on an island about 40 miles from Juneau and within a quarter of a mile of tide water.
