RIGHT POLICY IGNORED.

Rev. Dr. W. A. P. Martin, president of the Imperial University at Pekin, is probably better qualified than any other American to judge what policy the powers could most wisely adopt in regard to China.

There is wisdom in the policy of Dr. Martin and by just so much as the powers fall short of carrying it out by so much will they fail to satisfy justice.

respect of that portion of the Chinese nation not already our secret or open enemies. The restoration of the unlawfully dethroned Kwang Hsu, which should have been accomplished by the powers at the time the emperor dower usurped the throne, is the dearest wish of the better classes of the Chinese people.

The reform party of China, which party the allies propose to ignore and from whom the course being adopted will estrange us, is strong numerically and still stronger in purpose.

able excuse can the cabinet find for a discussion involving the slightest interference whatsoever in the process of the creation of a republic by the people, of the people and for the people of Cuba?

The Times-Herald makes no concealment of its belief in the wisdom, justice and necessity of the ultimate annexation of Cuba to the United States.

Our sole duty now is to get out of Cuba and let Cubans try the experiment of self-government.
