guidance of the hands now waiting for their opportunity to grasp the helm. The result is certain. It must return to the harbor where it may become one of the great fleets of states in which interdependence of all brings safety to the whole.

"Inland Farmer" has a lengthy communication in the Baker City Democrat of the 25th ultimo in which he betrays considerable less judgment and commonsense than are usually manifested in the anti-common-point-rate ebullitions of O. R. & N. satellites.

At the present time the population of the nation is estimated to have stood thus: Russia.....38,160,000 France.....37,720,000 Germany.....22,330,000 Austria.....21,230,000 United Kingdom.....15,570,000 Italy.....12,380,000 Spain.....10,440,000 United States.....5,310,000

Such are the national results of the changes of the century. No single nation is now strong enough to fight all, or pay all, or threaten all, or even to deem itself all in all, and that fact may be counted among the good things the century has brought.

IT CURES THE COLD AND STOPS THE COUGH. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing, is requested to call on Charles Rogers and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It always gives relief.

A. H. Thurness, of Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys, and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure did me $1000 worth of good." Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

In answer to the question, "What is a rig?" the editor of an exchange furnishes the information that it is an outfit for which a young man blows in the fruits of the labors of a week for the privilege of letting his best girl hold the lines for an hour while he holds her.

Cold and cough cures are numerous, but the one that leads all others in merit, is Foley's Honey and Tar, which is in great demand these days. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A woman is a queer combination. While she delights in the littlet bit of a foot, she is not supremely happy unless her hat is as big as a cartwheel.

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." There is nothing so good. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Men and women ought, perhaps, to enjoy equal rights, and yet if we saw men wearing millinery and kias each other on the streets we would throw bricks at 'em.

Benj. Ingerson, of Hutton, Ind., says he had not spoken a word above a whisper for months, and one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice. It is used largely by speakers and singers. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Both the British and French deemed our commerce and anything else they could lay their hands on to be their rightful prey.

G. W. LOUNSBERRY, W. H. HURLBURT, Gen. Pass. Agt. Portland, Or. This is a badly mixed up world. One man wants an appetite for dinner and another wants a dinner for his appetite.

Every medicine is an innovation, and he that will not apply new remedies must expect new evils; for time is the greatest innovator; and if time, of course, alters things to the worse, and wisdom and counsel shall not alter them to the better, what shall be the end?
