

Daily Astorian.

JOHN T. LIGHTER, Editor.

Telephone Main 761.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

DAILY. Sent by mail, per year, $6.00. Sent by mail, per month, $0.50. Served by carrier, per month, $0.60.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

Sent by mail, per year, in advance, $2.00. Postage free to subscribers.

All communications intended for publication should be directed to the editor. Business communications of all kinds and remittances must be addressed to "The Astorian."

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

FUTURE OF REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Senator Beveridge has already been prominently mentioned as the Republican nominee for president in 1904. Another candidate, and one whom we believe to stand a far better chance of winning the coveted nomination, is Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

FUTURE OF REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Senator Beveridge has already been prominently mentioned as the Republican nominee for president in 1904. Another candidate, and one whom we believe to stand a far better chance of winning the coveted nomination, is Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana.

"Naturally, increased power brings added responsibility. The problems of the twentieth century will tax the genius and courage and patriotism of the Republican party. The questions immediately before us do not invite repose. Many of them will continue to be vital, living questions far into the future.

"Under Republican administration the zone of American influence has been greatly enlarged. We are more in touch with the powers than ever before. The warning of Washington against entangling alliances abroad must not go unheeded. It will continue to be of living force. We must cultivate the sense of international justice, giving always what we would demand—executing that which we would concede. The golden rule is a wise code of international ethics. If we would command a just measure of the world's commerce we must win and hold the world's respect by exalted international precept and practice.

"We have an abiding sense of security against alien assaults. Our institutions are not in peril from abroad. They must be secure from peril within. Our sense of justice must keep pace with our expanding power. We must see to it that right and might dwell as in perpetual wedlock. The nation is in no danger, no matter how numerous its population and great its material resources, if the people are pervaded with a sense of justice and parties which control the government are actuated alone by high motives. There will indeed be great necessity in the future of a party of self-restraint.

"The Republican party had its birth in a quickened national conscience. Its immortal founders dedicated it to the cause of human liberty, the highest and best interests of the people. It must continue to be true to the ideals and purposes of its founders and to the great men who have raised it to its present proud eminence.

"Few intelligences are so acute that they can penetrate far into the future. We must read the Republican party's future in its mighty past and earnest present. We will find its truthful prophecy in its incomparable achievements. It enters the new century without schism. It needs neither a committee upon reorganization nor a committee upon revision of its confession of faith. It will continue to be a party of broad sympathies, the advocate of human liberty and the inflexible foe to sectional, race or class spirit. Class has no place in its patriotic principles, for class is the fruit of empire, the enemy of the republic. It will continue to be the protector of both labor and capital—the two mighty pillars upon which our social and political fabric rests. The party which would pull down either invites both to hopeless ruin. The party which does not comprehend this is deficient in statesmanship and is an enemy to the republic. It will hold the interests of all people and the perpetuity of the republic to be its chief aim. It will extend the hand of hospitality to all who desire good government and who believe in political righteousness. It will have no congenial place in its ranks for the political charlatan or time-serving demagogue, who should be avoided as a pestilence. It will promote social order and will inculcate a generous respect for the law by enforcing it. Lawbreakers, both large and small, will be made to know that they are each alike amenable to law. Those who betray public trust must not escape speedy punishment in full measure for their betrayal. The Republican party will enforce economy in public expenditures. It will safeguard the ballot, denounce the gerrymander, and practice as well as preach the doctrine so forcibly enunciated in the Declaration of Independence. It has stood for those things which promote the highest honor and glory of the republic; it will continue to stand for the national faith at home and abroad.

"We should not forget that the Republican advance has been made against persistent and formidable opposition and that its future supremacy will be sharply contested. It will not abandon the contest it has made in the interest of a sound monetary system which is the foundation rock of commercial success. Good government and good money must co-exist. The dollar current is essentially a Republican dollar, and it must be preserved without taint or tarnish. We must not forget that there are those that still proclaim their opposition to it on the theory that it is violative of sound monetary laws and that it is in contravention of good morals. They have served notice that the war against it is to be continued. This, indeed, must be so if their professions have been made in good faith, and if they have the courage of their convictions. The contest for the mastery between good money and debased money is not at an end. The scattered forces of the army of repudiation will be rallied for another charge but to be again repulsed.

"The development and expansion of our industries justifies the wisdom of Republican policies. We have advanced so that our industrial supremacy is unchallenged. We are committed to principles of protection, but not in schedule. Schedules will be adjusted as time and experience dictate and with a due regard always to the interests of our own labor and capital.

"The Republican party will in the new century cut the narrow isthmus which divides the Atlantic from the Pacific and fulfill the long-cherished hope of the American people in the construction of a canal in the interest of the United States and of mankind—a canal constructed by the American people and under their undisputed control. This stupendous work, the like of which in its vastness is nowhere to be found, will be undertaken under Republican auspices in the no distant future.

"Our tremendous productivity, surpassing our domestic needs, invites the extension of our commerce into and beyond the seas, not by the sword, but by peaceful methods. We will cover the high seas with our merchantmen, so that our flag will become familiar upon the vessels of peace in the ports of the world. In what manner we shall reclaim our lost prestige I shall not undertake to say, but permit me to express the belief that it will in good time be accomplished in the national interest and consistently with national honor, and that the countless millions contributed to the foreign carriers of our commerce will be retained by the United States. The Republican party will, in an intelligent way, in a statesmanlike way, undertake the extension of our commerce into all countries, thereby enlarging the field of American opportunity in the interest of American workmen, of American capital. Perhaps the field of largest promise for the moment is in and beyond the Pacific, that vast amphitheater, in the words of Garfield, 'around which shall sit in majesty and power the two Americas, Asia, Africa and the chief colonies of Europe. In that august assembly of nations the United States will be 'easily chief,' if she fill worthily the measure of her high destiny.'

"There are more peoples under the flag today than ever before. There are those who have been strangers to us. We must deal with them; we must have a care for them. They have not hitherto tasted the fruits of liberty.

"We should not forget that the Republican advance has been made against persistent and formidable opposition and that its future supremacy will be sharply contested. It will not abandon the contest it has made in the interest of a sound monetary system which is the foundation rock of commercial success. Good government and good money must co-exist. The dollar current is essentially a Republican dollar, and it must be preserved without taint or tarnish. We must not forget that there are those that still proclaim their opposition to it on the theory that it is violative of sound monetary laws and that it is in contravention of good morals. They have served notice that the war against it is to be continued. This, indeed, must be so if their professions have been made in good faith, and if they have the courage of their convictions. The contest for the mastery between good money and debased money is not at an end. The scattered forces of the army of repudiation will be rallied for another charge but to be again repulsed.

"The development and expansion of our industries justifies the wisdom of Republican policies. We have advanced so that our industrial supremacy is unchallenged. We are committed to principles of protection, but not in schedule. Schedules will be adjusted as time and experience dictate and with a due regard always to the interests of our own labor and capital.

"The Republican party will in the new century cut the narrow isthmus which divides the Atlantic from the Pacific and fulfill the long-cherished hope of the American people in the construction of a canal in the interest of the United States and of mankind—a canal constructed by the American people and under their undisputed control. This stupendous work, the like of which in its vastness is nowhere to be found, will be undertaken under Republican auspices in the no distant future.

"Our tremendous productivity, surpassing our domestic needs, invites the extension of our commerce into and beyond the seas, not by the sword, but by peaceful methods. We will cover the high seas with our merchantmen, so that our flag will become familiar upon the vessels of peace in the ports of the world. In what manner we shall reclaim our lost prestige I shall not undertake to say, but permit me to express the belief that it will in good time be accomplished in the national interest and consistently with national honor, and that the countless millions contributed to the foreign carriers of our commerce will be retained by the United States. The Republican party will, in an intelligent way, in a statesmanlike way, undertake the extension of our commerce into all countries, thereby enlarging the field of American opportunity in the interest of American workmen, of American capital. Perhaps the field of largest promise for the moment is in and beyond the Pacific, that vast amphitheater, in the words of Garfield, 'around which shall sit in majesty and power the two Americas, Asia, Africa and the chief colonies of Europe. In that august assembly of nations the United States will be 'easily chief,' if she fill worthily the measure of her high destiny.'

"There are more peoples under the flag today than ever before. There are those who have been strangers to us. We must deal with them; we must have a care for them. They have not hitherto tasted the fruits of liberty.

"We should not forget that the Republican advance has been made against persistent and formidable opposition and that its future supremacy will be sharply contested. It will not abandon the contest it has made in the interest of a sound monetary system which is the foundation rock of commercial success. Good government and good money must co-exist. The dollar current is essentially a Republican dollar, and it must be preserved without taint or tarnish. We must not forget that there are those that still proclaim their opposition to it on the theory that it is violative of sound monetary laws and that it is in contravention of good morals. They have served notice that the war against it is to be continued. This, indeed, must be so if their professions have been made in good faith, and if they have the courage of their convictions. The contest for the mastery between good money and debased money is not at an end. The scattered forces of the army of repudiation will be rallied for another charge but to be again repulsed.

"The development and expansion of our industries justifies the wisdom of Republican policies. We have advanced so that our industrial supremacy is unchallenged. We are committed to principles of protection, but not in schedule. Schedules will be adjusted as time and experience dictate and with a due regard always to the interests of our own labor and capital.

"The Republican party will in the new century cut the narrow isthmus which divides the Atlantic from the Pacific and fulfill the long-cherished hope of the American people in the construction of a canal in the interest of the United States and of mankind—a canal constructed by the American people and under their undisputed control. This stupendous work, the like of which in its vastness is nowhere to be found, will be undertaken under Republican auspices in the no distant future.

"Our tremendous productivity, surpassing our domestic needs, invites the extension of our commerce into and beyond the seas, not by the sword, but by peaceful methods. We will cover the high seas with our merchantmen, so that our flag will become familiar upon the vessels of peace in the ports of the world. In what manner we shall reclaim our lost prestige I shall not undertake to say, but permit me to express the belief that it will in good time be accomplished in the national interest and consistently with national honor, and that the countless millions contributed to the foreign carriers of our commerce will be retained by the United States. The Republican party will, in an intelligent way, in a statesmanlike way, undertake the extension of our commerce into all countries, thereby enlarging the field of American opportunity in the interest of American workmen, of American capital. Perhaps the field of largest promise for the moment is in and beyond the Pacific, that vast amphitheater, in the words of Garfield, 'around which shall sit in majesty and power the two Americas, Asia, Africa and the chief colonies of Europe. In that august assembly of nations the United States will be 'easily chief,' if she fill worthily the measure of her high destiny.'

"There are more peoples under the flag today than ever before. There are those who have been strangers to us. We must deal with them; we must have a care for them. They have not hitherto tasted the fruits of liberty.

"We should not forget that the Republican advance has been made against persistent and formidable opposition and that its future supremacy will be sharply contested. It will not abandon the contest it has made in the interest of a sound monetary system which is the foundation rock of commercial success. Good government and good money must co-exist. The dollar current is essentially a Republican dollar, and it must be preserved without taint or tarnish. We must not forget that there are those that still proclaim their opposition to it on the theory that it is violative of sound monetary laws and that it is in contravention of good morals. They have served notice that the war against it is to be continued. This, indeed, must be so if their professions have been made in good faith, and if they have the courage of their convictions. The contest for the mastery between good money and debased money is not at an end. The scattered forces of the army of repudiation will be rallied for another charge but to be again repulsed.

They know not the beneficent ways of republican government. We must secure to them the amplest fruits of the republic, and in good time they will come to reverence it as their deliverer from imperialistic rule and find in it the assurance and guaranty of freedom and civilization.

"The future of the Republican party! What splendid possibilities lie before it! Will it be true to its traditions? Will it be true to its opportunities? It will live as long as it serves well the country and it should live no longer. It is a means, not an end. It is an instrument for the advancement of good government and we should no more consent to its debasement than we should welcome national degradation. Those in whom the thought of personal aggrandizement is uppermost should not be permitted to control its destiny. If we would have pure government we must have a pure party, one whose sole aim is to promote wholesome administration.

"Washington in his immortal farewell address exhorted his countrymen against the excesses of party spirit. Webster pointed out the peril to the foundations of our institutions if party be substituted for country. We will not forget that the power of the Republican party abides with the people; that as much as we love the party, our country must be the real object of our concern, and that our power will endure only as we shall truly serve it. Republicanism and Americanism must ever be synonymous.

"New issues will arise, new questions will divide the people, of which we know not now. The Republican party will be found espousing those issues and those questions which make for the stability, honor and welfare of the country. It must hold fast to those great fundamental doctrines of human liberty for which our fathers stood; for the rights of all and the equality of all before the law. If it advocates principles and policies which will square with those wholesome truths, the years of its power and supremacy are unnumbered, and its beneficent influence unmeasured."

"TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Confidence in your doctor is half the battle against illness.

IF BANNER SALVE doesn't cure your piles, your money will be returned. It is the most healing medicine. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When you give a quarter to charity cut the string.

Save doctors' bills by giving Foley's Honey and Tar to infants and children in time to prevent pneumonia or croup, which are fatal to so many thousands of babies. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

You can't always tell what's in a pie by the looks of the lid.

J. A. Lambert, of Rachel, N. C., writes: "I heartily endorse Foley's Kidney Cure. It does what you claim it will do, and there is nothing equal to it, and I thank you for the good it has done me." Accept no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Professional beggars do not confine their territory to the streets. They are sometimes self-instituted adjuncts to the church.

La grippe coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The friend who borrows your paper is outwitted by the next door neighbor who uses your telephone to tell her troubles over.

LINGERING LA GRIPPE COUGH. G. Vacher, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of la grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Price 25c and 50c. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

An onion party was given at White Rock, S. D., the other evening, and after it was over there wasn't a dry eye in the house.

TRIED FIVE DOCTORS. Mrs. Frances L. Sales, of Missouri Valley, Ia., writes: "I had severe kidney trouble for years, had tried five doctors without benefit, but three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure cured me." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

BEST OF EVERYTHING

In a word this tells of the Passenger Service via

The Northwestern Line.

Eight Trains Daily between St. Paul and Chicago, comprising

The Latest Pullman Sleepers, Peerless Dining Cars, Library and Observation Cars, Free Reclining Chair Cars.

The 20th Century Train—Runs Every Day of the Year.

The Finest Train in the World

Electric Lighted Steam Heated

THE BADGER STATE EXPRESS, the Finest Daily Train Running Between St. Paul and Chicago, via the Short Line.

Connections from the West made via

The Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Canadian Pacific Rys.

This is also the BEST LINE between Omaha, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

All agents sell tickets via

The Northwestern Line

W. H. MEAD, H. L. SISLER, General Agent, Trav. Agent, 248 Alder Street, Portland, Oregon.

"THE MILWAUKEE."

A familiar name for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, known all over the Union as the Great Railway running the "Pioneer Limited" train every day and night between St. Paul and Chicago, and Omaha and Chicago.

"The only perfect train in the world." Understand: Connections are made with all transcontinental lines, securing to passengers the best service known. Luxurious coaches, electric light, steam heat, of a verity equalled by no other line.

See that your ticket reads via "The Milwaukee" when going to any point in the United States or Canada. All ticket agents sell them.

For rates, pamphlets or other information, address

J. W. CASEY, C. J. EDDY, Trav. Pass. Agt., Gen. Agt., Portland, Oregon. Portland, Ore.

When people are contemplating a trip, whether on business or pleasure, they naturally desire the best service obtainable as far as speed, comfort and safety is concerned. Employees of the WISCONSIN CENTRAL LINES are paid to serve the public and our trains are operated so as to make close connections with diverging lines at all junction points.

Pullman Palace Sleeping and Chair Cars on through trains. Dining car service unexcelled. Meals served a la carte. In order to obtain the first-class service, ask the ticket agent to sell you a ticket over.....

The Wisconsin Central Lines and you will make direct connections at St. Paul for Chicago, Milwaukee and all points East.

For any further information call on any ticket agent, or correspond with JAS. C. POND, Gen. Pass. Agt., or JAS. A. CLOCK, Milwaukee, Wis. General Agent, THE CHICAGO AND NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

Luxurious Travel

The "Northwestern Limited" trains, electric lighted throughout, both inside and out, and steam heated, are without exception, the finest trains in the world. They embody the latest, newest and best ideas for comfort, convenience and luxury ever offered the traveling public, and altogether are the most complete and splendid production of the car builders' art.

These Splendid Trains Connect With..... The Great Northern The Northern Pacific and The Canadian Pacific AT ST. PAUL FOR CHICAGO and the EAST.

No extra charge for these superior accommodations and all classes of tickets are available for passage on the famous "Northwestern Limited." All trains on this line are protected by the Interlocking Block System.

THE LOUVRE Strangers visiting in the city will find the Louvre an attractive resort wherein to spend the evening. The Amme Sisters Ladies' Orchestra is still on the bills and presents nightly a musical program of exceptional merit. Handsome pool and billiard rooms are a feature in connection with the house. Palatable lunches will be served at all hours.

H.F. Prael Transfer Co Telephone 221.

DRYING AND EXPRESSING All Goods Shipped to Our Care Will Receive Special Attention. No. 533 Duane St., W. J. COOK, Mgr. Astoria, Or. Res. Tel. 1181.

ASTORIA AND COLUMBIA RIVER RAILROAD.

Leave PORTLAND. Arrive ASTORIA. 8:00 a.m. (Portland and Union Depot) 11:10 a.m. 7:00 p.m. (For Astoria and inter.) 10:40 p.m. (intermediate points)

Leave ASTORIA. Arrive SEASIDE. 7:45 a.m. (For Portland & inter.) 11:30 a.m. 6:10 p.m. (intermediate points) 10:30 p.m.

SEASIDE DIVISION.

Leave ASTORIA. Arrive SEASIDE. 7:45 a.m. 11:30 a.m. 6:10 p.m. 10:30 p.m.

*Sundays only

All trains make close connections at Goble with all Northern Pacific trains to and from the East or Sound points.

J. C. MAYO, Gen'l Fr't and Pass. Agent.

WHITE COLLAR LINE

Str. HERCULES takes the place of BAILEY GATZERT (Telephone Dock).

Columbia River and Puget Sound Navigation Company.

The Hercules leaves Astoria daily except Sunday at 7 p. m.

Leaves Portland daily except Sunday at 7 a. m.

White Collar Line tickets, O. R. & N. tickets and Ilwaco Ry. & Nav. Company tickets interchangeable on Hercules and Hassalo. Through Portland connection with steamer Nahcotta from Ilwaco and Long Beach points.

Telephone No. 111.

A. J. TAYLOR, Astoria Agent. E. W. CRITCHTON, Portland Agent.

O. R. & N.

DEPART TIME SCHEDULES FROM PORTLAND. ARRIVE

Chicago-Salt Lake, Denver, Ft. Portland, Wash., Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and East. 4 p. m.

Atlantic Express 7 p. m.

Spokane Flyer 8 p. m.

From Astoria OCEAN STEAMSHIPS All sailing dates subject to change. For San Francisco-Salt

7 a. m. Columbia River Steamers Portland and Way Landings. 4 a. m. Mo. day

6 a. m. From Portland WILLAMETTE RIVER Oregon City, Newberg, Salem & Way-Land s. 4:30 a. m. 8 a. m.

7 a. m. Willamette and Yam hill Rivers Oregon City, Dayton & Way Landings. 8:00 p. m., Wed. and Fri.

Riparian Leave daily 3:45 a. m. Snake River. Riparian to Lewiston. Lv Lewiston 9:00 a. m. daily

6 a. m. Willamette River Portland to Corvallis Mon, Wed Saturday and Way Landings Friday

G. W. LOUNSBERRY, W. H. HURLBURT, Agt. Astoria, Gen. Pass. Agt. Portland, Or.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC EAST SOUTH

Depot, Fifth and I Streets. Overland Express Trains for Salem, Roseburg, Ashland, Sacramento, Ogden, San Francisco, Los Angeles, El Paso, New Orleans and the East.

At Woodburn (daily except Sunday) morning train connects with train for Mt. Angel, Silverton, Brownsville, Springfield, and Nelson, and evening train for Mt. Angel and Silverton.

Corvallis passenger. 11:30 a. m. 5:50 p. m.

Sheridan passenger. 11:50 p. m. 8:25 a. m.

*Daily. *Daily except Sunday.

Rebate tickets on sale between Portland, Sacramento and San Francisco. Net rates $17 first class and $11 second class, including sleeper.

Rates and tickets to Eastern points and Europe. Also Japan, China, Honolulu and Australia. Can be obtained from J. B. Kirkland, Ticket Agent, 134 Third Street.

YAMHILL DIVISION.

Passenger depot foot of Jefferson St.

Leave for Oswego daily at 7:30, 9:46 a. m.; 12:30, 1:55, 3:25, 5:15, 6:25, 8:35, 11:30 p. m. and 9 a. m. on Sunday only. Arrive at Portland daily at 6:55, 8:30, 10:50 a. m.; 1:35, 3:15, 4:30, 6:20, 7:40, 10:00 p. m. daily except Monday; 8:30 and 10:05 a. m. on Sundays only.

Leave for Dallas daily, except Sunday, at 4:30 p. m. Arrive at Portland at 3:30 a. m.

Passenger train leaves Dallas for Astoria Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 2:45 p. m. Returns Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

*Except Sunday. R. KOEHLER, Manager. C. H. MARKHAM, Gen. Fr't. and Pass. Agt. Astoria, Or., Dec. 26, 1900.

POSSIBLY

You Are Not Aware of the Fast Time

AND SUPERB SERVICE

WE HAVE

2-Daily Fast Trains-2 TO THE EAST

If you cannot take the morning train, travel via the evening train. Both are finely equipped.

"OUR SPECIALTIES"

FAST TIME THROUGH SERVICE

PULLMAN PALACE SLEEPERS PULLMAN TOURIST SLEEPERS PULLMAN DINERS LIBRARY (CAFÉ) CAR FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS

Hours in time saved to

Omaha, Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, New York, Boston, and Other Eastern Points

Tickets good via Salt Lake City and Denver.

It is to your interest to use THE OVERLAND LIMITED. Tickets and sleeping-car berths can be secured from Agent O. R. & N. Co., Astoria, Or., OR J. H. LOTHROP, General Agent, 135 Third St., Portland, Or.

Oregon Short Line Railroad

THE DIRECT ROUTE

Montana, Utah, Colorado and all Eastern Points

Gives choice of two favorite routes, via the Union Pacific Fast Mail Line, or the Rio Grande Scenic Lines.

LOOK AT THE TIME.

1 1/2 Days to Salt Lake.

2 1/2 Days to Denver.

3 1/2 Days to Chicago.

4 1/2 Days to New York.

Free reclining chairs, upholstered tourist sleeping cars, and Pullman palace sleepers, operated on all trains.

For further information apply to C. O. TERRY, W. E. COMAN, Trav. Pass. Agt., Gen. Agent, 124 Third St., Portland, Or.

Or G. W. LOUNSBERRY, Agent O. R. & N.

NOTICE OF SALE

In the County Court and in and for Jackson County, Oregon, in the matter of the estate of Thaddeus W. Barclay, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order of sale made by the Hon. County Court of Jackson County, Oregon, dated January 7th, 1901, and recorded in volume 12 of the probate records of said county, on page 480, I will on and after March 1st, 1901, proceed to sell at private sale, for cash, lots 24 and 48, block 8, of the town of Flavel Center, Clatsop County, Oregon, and the S. E. 1/4 of section 10, in township 6 N., range 28 W. of W. M. in said Clatsop County.

GEORGE B. BARCLAY, Administratrix of estate of Thaddeus W. Barclay, Deceased, Ashland, Ore. E. D. BRIGGS, Atty. Ashland, Ore.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clatsop, on the 26th day of December, 1900, upon a judgment and decree rendered thereon on the 21st day of December, 1900, in favor of Thomas Doig, plaintiff, and against Z. Ferguson, Sal Get and Chung Get, his wife, and the Clatsop Mill Company, defendants, for the sum of $262.75, together with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 21st day of December, 1900, the costs and disbursements of this action taxed at $20.20, and the costs of and upon this writ commanding and requiring me to make sale of the following described real property, to-wit: