JOINT SMASHERS GUILTY OF MURDER

Wife of Bartender Instantly Killed at Millwood, Kansas.

FOUR FARMERS ARRESTED

Other Joins Smashed Yesterday—Lord Wants
Mrs. Nation to Rest so She Spends a Quiet Day in Jail.

LEAVENWORTH, Feb. 19.—The four farmers arrested today for complicity in the saloon raid at Millwood, Kas., that resulted in the killing of Mrs. Rose Hudson, the bartender's wife, have been lodged in the county jail here. Tomorrow the county attorney says he will file a complaint against them of murder in the first degree.

MRS. NATION RESTING.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 19.—Mrs. Carr Nation passed a quiet day in jail. She refused bail and says the Lord wishes her to rest for awhile.

NEWMAN JOINT SMASHED.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 19.—A special to the Times from Newman, Kas., says: A band of thirty men and women armed with hatchets and axes made an effective raid on a joint here today. They broke in the door and completely demolished a costly cherry bar, plate glass mirror and other fixtures.

PUT OUT BY BARTENDER.

PORT HURON, Mich., Feb. 19.—With a hammer Mrs. Charles Rhodes this afternoon entered James Wilson's saloon and broke all the glass cases and about ten bottles of whisky. The bartender then put her out. Mrs. Rhodes stated she had served notice on the saloon keeper not to sell liquor to her son.

WOMAN KILLED IN RAID.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 19.—A special to the Star from Leavenworth, Kas., says:

Twenty masked farmers, armed with shotguns, attempted to raid a saloon at Millwood, a small place fourteen miles north of here, last night, and in the melee that followed Mrs. Rose Hudson, wife of the bartender, was instantly killed, her head being completely blown off; William Webb, one of the raiders, was shot in the arm, and two or three others were slightly hurt. One hundred shots were fired. Today John and Henry Wilson, young farmers, members of the mob, were arrested and warrants are out for others implicated in the affair. The town is in a fever of excitement and further trouble is threatened.

The saloon was run by Mrs. Michael Lochner. She had been warned to close the place by Monday, but refused. At 10 o'clock last night twenty men, all armed and wearing handkerchiefs for masks, approached the saloon. Two of the members, Joe Turner and John Wilburn, entered and ordered drinks. Bartender Hudson had scarcely set the glasses on the bar when the men gave a signal. Immediately the door was burst open and the masked men rushed into the place. Half a dozen shotguns were raised to the ceiling and fired apparently to warn the saloon-keeper that they meant business, while two men approached Hudson with leveled guns. Hudson grabbed the barrels of both guns for an instant and then fell to the floor. The guns were discharged as he fell, the discharge from one striking the wall and that from the second piercing the stove.

Mrs. Hudson rushed to the scene from the living rooms in the rear and stood in the doorway. She had barely reached the spot when a gun was leveled at the door and discharged. The shot struck her in the forehead above the eyes, and she fell mortally wounded. Hudson rushed to his wife's side to administer to her, but she died before he could carry her to another room.

During the shooting, William Webb, one of the raiders, was accidentally shot in the arm, and two or three others were wounded slightly. A few more shots were fired, but the mob,

Bill Passed Providing for Monument for State Volunteers.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 19.—The senate this afternoon, by a vote of 140 to 29, killed the Tolman bill providing for the appointment by the governor of a railway commission to be composed of three members. Hahn Amendment to Hume Bill
Killed by a Trick.

HUME VOTED AGAINST BILL

Discovered It Provided No Penalty for Violation of Regulations—Bill Mass of Contradictions and Inconsistencies.

(Special to The Astorian.)

SALEM, Feb. 19.—The bright hopes of the Astorians who are here in the interest of promoting satisfactory remedial salmon legislation affecting the Columbia river suffered a total eclipse this morning. They had gone to bed last night with mental congratulations over the decisive vote by which the house had repeatedly resisted the assaults made to dislodge Hahn's amendment to a board composed of the governor, lieutenant-governor and state auditor.

But while the Astoria people slept the night preceding, a remarkable transformation had taken place. The committee had indeed resumed consideration of the bill, but with a different conclusion from that anticipated by the Astoria folk. An adjournment had taken place the night before after section twelve (there are fifty-three sections of the bill) had been amended. Section thirteen was passed with trivial amendments, when, suddenly, in the twinkling of an eye, a motion was made that the committee rise, the speaker resumed the chair, the chairman of the committee reported progress, a motion was made to suspend the rules and, to the utter amazement of the Astoria contingent, the bill was read the third time and placed on its final passage.

By the time the Astorians recovered their senses the roll call was complete and the bill declared passed, without a single change from the way it came from the original committee. Objection was made that the clerk had not read the amendments. To this the speaker blandly replied that no amendments had been reported. Thus, by a skillful parliamentary play, coupled with the change of sentiment which had so mysteriously come over some of their supporters of the day before, the Astoria friends of the bill lost all the advantage they had gained and went down to complete defeat.

Nor was the loss of the Hahn amendments the only disaster Astoria and the fishing industry generally had sustained. It seems that, although the bill had been in course of preparation for nearly three weeks, it was finally turned into the house so full of contradictions and inconsistencies that no one can tell what many of its most important provisions mean. Worse than all, while the bill as passed will be effective to repeal nearly all of the good salmon legislation of former years, for which it is a substitute, it omits to provide any penalty for the violation of the regulations pertaining to the collection of licenses, the opening and closing seasons, the gear to be used, etc.

The author of the bill, Hon. R. D. Hume, stood ready to propose an amendment incorporating this very essential provision, but was cut out by the surprisingly sudden and summary action of the house, and such was his chagrin and disappointment over the failure of his laborious efforts that he went to his seat and voted against the bill passed, exactly as it came from his own hands, through the committee of which he was a member.

The bill as passed was sent to the senate during the day. There will be no opportunity under the rules for its amendment and return from that end of the capitol after tomorrow. So that even if it is defeated in the senate it will not likely be returned to the house in time for passage, and if it is adopted by the senate as it went from the house the fishing industry will be worse off in many respects than if no new legislation had been undertaken.

There was no change in the senatorial ballot today.

Both houses have agreed to adjourn on Saturday, at midnight.

IN NATIONAL SENATE.

Conference Report on Military Academy Appropriation Bill Rejected.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—By the emphatic vote of 18 to 42, the senate this afternoon rejected the conference report on the military academy appropriation bill. This action came as the conclusion of a spirited debate upon the provisions against hazing inserted in the report by the conference committee of the two branches of congress.

The report of the conferees was rejected because it was regarded by a large majority of the senate as too drastic and, while no instructions could be given the conferees by the senate, it was understood that to secure favorable action by the senate modified provisions as to the penalty for hazing would have to be presented and agreed upon by the conferees.

PRIVILEGES FOR EVERETT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The senate today passed a bill to extend to the sub-port of Everett, Wash., privileges of immediate transportation of dutiable merchandise without appraisement.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The senate committee on commerce today completed its calculations showing the effect of its amendments to the river and harbor bill. According to this showing, the aggregate appropriation recommended by the committee is $50,164,326. This is a reduction of $9,770,889.

SPOONER AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The subcommittee of the senate committee on military affairs having in charge the army appropriation bill has agreed to add to the bill Spooner's amendment providing for civil government in the Philippine archipelago.

The committee will restore the word "judicial" eliminated from the amendment by the Philippine commission, thus giving the president explicit authority over the judicial branch of the government.

IN NATIONAL HOUSE.

Resolution of Inquiry Passed to Ascertain Facts Concerning Shipment of Horses to South Africa.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The house spent the day upon the sundry civil appropriation bill. The feature of the day was the national irrigation of arid lands in the West, which came up incidentally.

Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, reported back a resolution of inquiry reported by Napfen, of Massachusetts, and it was adopted. The resolution calls upon the secretary of the treasury to inform the house if our ports or waters have been used for the exportation of horses, mules and other supplies for use in South Africa, and if so to what extent and what steps have been taken to prevent the same.

WAR REVENUE BILL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The status of the war revenue bill is cause for considerable apprehension among members of the house as the two sides are apparently deadlocked in conference, with no indication that either will yield.

MORE ARRESTS AT MANILA.

Prominent Persons Found Guilty of Aiding Insurgents.

MANILA, Feb. 19.—Captain Jones, of the Eighth infantry, has arrested at a town on the bay Province of Laguna, Florenta Ortuna and Miguel Ponce De Leon, agents of the Tabaca Leria Co., and Wm. Webb, Pedro Lorenzo and Victoria Senta, employed by the Philippine Trading Co., on charges similar to those brought against D. M. Carman, the American contractor, namely, furnishing the insurgents with supplies.

The Tabaca Leria Company, the richest corporation in the Philippines, is accused of aiding the insurgents often and actively. The parties arrested are prominent persons and the evidence against them is very strong.

M. Brix Holterman, a Belgian connected with the Philippine Trading Company, has been arrested at Manila, and M. Eduard Andre, the Belgian consul here and manager of the Philippine Trading Company, hastily left Manila with his family on his way to Europe. Andre had previously been suspected. Other arrests are expected.

ROOSEVELT'S HUNT OVER.

Left Denver Last Night for Chicago Over the Union Pacific.

DENVER, Feb. 19.—Vice-President-elect Roosevelt left tonight for Chicago over the Union Pacific. About 150 people were at the depot but Roosevelt declined to leave his car or to make a speech.

LAST DAY'S HUNT.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Feb. 19.—Vice-President-elect Roosevelt left here this evening after another day on the plains hunting coyotes east and south of Colorado Springs.

RECEPTION TO M'ARTHUR.

Welcome at Malacan Exceeded Anything Known Under Spanish Rule.

MANILA, Feb. 19.—General MacArthur's reception at Malacan exceeds anything in the Spanish reign. The palace was beautifully decorated and brilliantly illuminated.

Thousands of persons attended. The Filipino population was well represented. The Filipinos were especially pleased at being accorded privileges never before afforded them.

CUDAHY KIDNAPPER CAUGHT AT LAST

Positively Identified by Boy as
One of the Three Men.

COULD NEVER FORGET VOICE

Callahan Was Man Who First Seized Young
Cudahy and Who Kept Guard Over
Him While He Was a Prisoner.

OMAHA, Feb. 19.—James Callahan, charged with complicity in the abduction of Edward Cudahy, Jr., is under arrest here. Young Cudahy has positively identified him as the man who accosted him near the Cudahy residence and forced him into his buggy, and also as the man who kept guard over him at the Melrose Hill house during the thirty hours he was kept prisoner. Daniel H. Burris, who sold a horse and buggy to two men previous to the kidnapping, also identified Callahan as one of the men with whom he made the deal. Marco Larsen, a servant in the employ of J. N. Patrick, identified Callahan as the man who rented the cottage in Happy Hollow, which the bandits abandoned two weeks before the abduction from here.

The police knew that he was a close friend of Patrick Crowe. Their suspicions some time ago were aroused by a remark dropped by Callahan in connection with a discussion of the Cudahy affair.

Young Cudahy's identification of the man seems to be complete. Together with his father he called Sunday at the office of the chief of police and confronted the prisoner. The men had a conversation lasting half an hour and after Callahan had been taken away young Cudahy said:

"I would never forget that voice, and I also remember very distinctly his peculiar manner of pronouncing certain words."

Callahan admits that he was a close friend of Crowe. Tonight the police secured information which they expect to lead to the arrest of another man connected with the crime. He is a coachman employed by a neighbor of the Cudahys. The coachman's name is John Murk. His son is the man really wanted and the elder Murk is expected to tell of his son's actions at the time of the stealing.

WOULD SPEAK IN IRISH.

Irish Member of House of Commons Stopped Peremptorily by the Speaker.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Thomas O'Donnell, Nationalist, today began to address the house of commons in the Irish language and the speaker called him to order reminding him that to speak Irish was an unknown practice in the house of commons. The speaker said:

"There is no rule on the subject, but there is no precedent during the existence of the house of commons for a member speaking any other language but English."

O'Donnell refused to speak English and reasserted his right to address the house in his native tongue. The speaker then stopped him peremptorily.

GATES WILL BE OPEN SUNDAY.

Management of the Pan-American Exposition Has So Decided.

BUFFALO, Feb. 19.—The Courier says that it has been decided to open the gates of the Pan-American exposition Sundays. According to the story the management of the exposition will not discuss the situation in any way, but the gates will be open the first Sunday after the opening of the exposition.

DELAWARE DEADLOCK.

Break in the Ranks of the Regular Republicans.

DOVER, Del., Feb. 19.—There was a break in the ranks of the regular Republicans when the ballot for United States senator was taken today. Four "regulars" who have steadfastly opposed the election of J. Edward Adcock to the United States senate voted for him today for the short term.

NEBRASKA DEADLOCK.

Thompson and Rosewater Make Substantial Gains.

LINCOLN, Feb. 19.—The five ballots taken in the Republican senatorial caucus tonight were without change, but substantial gains were made by D. E. Thompson and Edward Rosewater, the former running up his total to forty and the latter to nineteen votes.
