Admiral Sampson has stirred up a hornet's nest by his recommendation to the navy department on the application of Gunter Morgan for promotion. While recognizing the past services and efficiency of the man, he claims that his failure to take the regular and customary course of hazing and incidental instruction at the Annapolis naval academy has disqualified him to represent the nation abroad. What the admiral means is that the niceties of etiquette, concerning which the boxer leaders are well-qualified to give us Western barbarians a great many points, are paid particular attention to at Annapolis and are often wanting in the man who has spent his life in learning the practical side of his occupation. There is a marked tendency among a certain class of American aristocrats to attach a great deal of importance to a superficial polish which is generally assumed to cover up mental and moral deficiencies. According to their views the American people as a whole are not a polite or "cultured" people. The French, Japanese, Tagalogs and Chinese mandarins especially, betray a refinement in which the Americans are sadly deficient. These peoples are known everywhere for those special qualities by which Admiral Sampson sets so much store. From them it may be necessary to fill the vacant positions in our navy if the naval academy is not able to turn out their equals rapidly enough. The uncouth American will, of course, be still called upon to do the fighting and to supply Europe with the product of his mechanical skill. He will continue to astonish the world by his marvelous genius in organization and by the wonderful displays of enterprise by which he meets and passes his competitors of every race and nation in every department of activity. But well for us that we now have under our flag a few millions of smooth-speaking, slippery, Spanish-trained Tagalogs to whom we may trust our diplomacy and other duties requiring the special Sampson type of qualifications, when our own training schools prove insufficient to turn out animated dress-suits in sufficient numbers.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Nankin, la., says: "In January I had a very bad cold on my lungs, and used half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and after using two-thirds of it, I was entirely cured." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It is a fact that Mrs. Nation has her little hat yet.

AFTER LA GRIPPE—WHAT?

Usually a racking cough and a general feeling of weakness. Foley's Honey and Tar is guaranteed to cure the "grippe cough" and make you strong and well. Take no substitutes. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The orator who deals largely in quotations speaks volumes.

Pneumonia follows la grippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, the great throat and lung remedy. Take no substitutes. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

An old bachelor says a marriage certificate is a piece of paper.

Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When some men think they are thinking they are only killing time.

Robt. R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years and have decorated with all the leading physicians and have tried all remedies suggested without any relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am sound and well."

A good talker is always delighted when he encounters a good listener.

CHEAP INSURANCE.

Many a man has been insured against Bright's disease, diabetes, or other dangerous ailments by a fifty cent bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A letter is no dearer for having been written with a golden pen.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forster of Chippewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Banner Salve entirely cured it." No other salve so healing. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Only those who have plenty of gold ever get anything out of a silver wedding.

BANNER SALVE.

Tetter, eczema and skin diseases yield quickly to the marvelous healing qualities of Banner Salve made from a prescription of a skin specialist of world wide fame, 25c. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
