The Cuban negroes who are wasting their breath in shouting "Down with the Americans" are most unkind. The American policy is "up" with the members of their race, either in smoke, a la Kansas, or by means of good old-fashioned hemp, as is still the custom down in Dixie.

Everybody who can possibly do so is planning to attend the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo this summer. If it be on a par with the elegant descriptive matter which is being sent out by the bureau of publicity, free to any interested, it will prove a marvel of elegance. The Astorian has just received a beautiful 16-page booklet which is a gem of art and sets forth the attractions of the exposition in the most captivating style imaginable.

Greatness is never thrust upon a man who leads an aimless life.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Nashua, Ia., says: "In January I had a very bad cold on my lungs, and used half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and after using two-thirds of it, I was entirely cured." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

When looking for game it is useless to visit the bargain counters of humanity.

AFTER LA GRIPPE—WHAT?

Usually a racking cough and a general feeling of weakness. Foley's Honey and Tar is guaranteed to cure the "grippe cough" and make you strong and well. Take no substitutes. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Some men never do things by halves. They go out to get a tooth filled and come back full all over.

Pneumonia follows la grippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, the great throat and lung remedy. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Wise men of ancient times were probably no wiser than other men, but they talked less.

Engle J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The lion may be the king of beasts but the cow boss the barnyard just the same.

Robt. R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years and have doctored with all the leading physicians and have tried all remedies suggested without any relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am sound and well."

A stag party would be much more enjoyable if a few more dears were invited.

CHEAP INSURANCE.

Many a man has been insured against Bright's disease, diabetes, or other dangerous ailment by a fifty cent bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The sun is unselfish; it shines for all, but it stands in its own light.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forest of Chipewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Bannister Salve entirely cured it." No other salve so healing. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Whenever a woman is going shopping and the street car conductor forgets to take her fare, she spends a quarter more than she had intended to.

BANNER SALVE.

Tetter, eczema and skin diseases yield quickly to the marvelous healing qualities of Banner Salve made from a prescription of a skin specialist of world wide fame, 25c. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
