The Boer war is again over.

The Idaho Silver Republicans have decided to disband and join the Democracy. No one will question their wisdom, if they can find a fragment large enough to hang on to.

The trust octopus, which has such horrors for our Democratic friends, has invaded the field of education. The University of Chicago is absorbing the various private institutions of that city and as yet not a word from Bryan.

The Salem Statesman pays the following well-deserved tribute to Secretary of State Dunbar, formerly of this city: There was never a man in the office of secretary of state of the state of Oregon who looked after the dimes and dollars of the treasury as closely as is done by Mr. Dunbar. He is scrupulously economic in expenditures within his control and scrupulously exact in the settlement of those he is compelled to pay without his discretion. His economy is characterized by a good many as parsimonious and it has raised not a few secret enemies for him in various departments, but he seems willing to risk all that. With his own funds he is liberal and public spirited, but with those of the state and its taxpayers he does not feel like taking liberties. This is said neither in praise nor blame, in flattery or criticism, but as a statement of fact gleaned from observation.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Nashua, Ia., says: "In January I had a very bad cold on my lungs, and used half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and after using two-thirds of it, I was entirely cured." CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Man is an imitative creature, and whoever is foremost leads the herd.—Schiller.

Great men stand like solitary towers in the city of God.—Longfellow.

Usually a racking cough and a general feeling of weakness. Foley's Honey and Tar is guaranteed to cure the "grippe cough" and make you strong and well. Take no substitutes. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Most men employ the first part of their lives to make the last part miserable.—La Bruyere.

Pneumonia follows la grippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, the great throat and lung remedy. Take no substitute. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Of all the animals which fly in the air, walk on the ground or swim in the sea, the most foolish is man.—Bolleau.

Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

As soon as a woman falls in love her complexion gets better.

Robt. R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years and have doctored with all the leading physicians and have tried all remedies suggested without any relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am sound and well."

If modesty was the fool-killer most women would die of old age.

CHEAP INSURANCE.

Many a man has been insured against Bright's disease, diabetes, or other dangerous ailment by a fifty cent bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. CHAS ROGERS, Druggist.

There are probably a lot of women that will find heaven awfully old-fashioned.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forest of Chippewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Banner Salve entirely cured it." No other salve so healing. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

A minister doesn't have to know the marriage ceremony by heart, for if he forgets a word the woman can always prompt him.

BANNER SALVE.

Tetter, eczema and skin diseases yield quickly to the marvelous healing qualities of Banner Salve made from a prescription of a skin specialist of world wide fame, 25c. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.
