

ELDEST DAUGHTER OF QUEEN VICTORIA

Strange Death Bed Story of New York Pauper.

KNOWN AS SOPHIA ADELAIDE

Was Taken From Her Royal Mother When an Infant and Daughter of Prince Albert Substituted—Received Remittances.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A woman, who with almost her last breath held to the story that she was the oldest daughter of Queen Victoria and the Prince Consort, is dead in this city, having expired in the German hospital, a victim of the heat and of insufficient nutrition.

The woman, who was known as Sophia Adelaide and Mrs. Kent, always asserted that as an infant she was taken from her royal mother and in her place was substituted the daughter of Prince Albert by his morganatic wife, the Countess de Reuss. Up to the time, it is said, of her coming to America, which was shortly after the death of John Brown, the queen's Highland attendant, Sophia Adelaide received remittances in Paris or wherever she might be, through the Rev. Ward Bourne, of Colles Hill, England.

At his death they ceased altogether. She made several ineffectual attempts to obtain a settlement and when these failed she came to this country and brought out a book which it is said, had been suppressed in England and Germany. It contained her contentions.

SERVANT GIRLS TO ORGANIZE

Union Will Be Formed in Chicago Next Tuesday Night.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Record-Herald says: "Mother" Jones, who did so much to encourage the coal miners in their strike in Pennsylvania a year ago, holding meetings and addressing them wherever a few could be got together and who since has assisted the striking silk workers in New Jersey and the carpet weavers in Philadelphia to scan out for their demands, has been in Chicago the past week assisting the committee of the Women's Trade Union Label League to organize the servant girls.

As a result of the work done by the committee with the aid of "Mother" Jones, several hundred servant girls have signified their intention of becoming charter members of the first servant girls union of Chicago which will be formed on Thursday night next.

SUIT BEGUN AGAINST HUNTINGTON ESTATE.

Princess Hatfeldt Seeks to Recover Daughter's Share of Property.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The San Francisco Chronicle says: From sources thoroughly well informed and entitled to credence comes the statement that Princess Hatfeldt has already begun legal proceedings, which, though not technically a law suit, amount in reality to an attempt to set aside, in part at least, the last testament of her foster father, Olin P. Huntington.

In spite of the statement of Princess Hatfeldt, made at Sacramento in the presence of the attorney for the Hatfeldts just before their departure for the East, that there would positively be no contest of the will, it is declared to be a fact that legal steps have already been taken in New York with such a contest in view. Suit was begun in that city some months ago by Princess Hatfeldt, it is declared, for a daughter's share of the estate, based upon an alleged contract entered into by C. P. Huntington at the time he took the princess, then Clara Prentice, from her mother, the sister of the first Mrs. Huntington, to support and raise her.

Just how the Hatfeldts have kept this proceeding from becoming public is not explained. The action brought is not under an alleged adoption, nor is it technically a contest of the will, but it is a suit to enforce a contract.

SEPEDEY VOLT WILL REST

Commando Will Not Race Again Until Recent Injury to Hoof Heals.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Commando will no race again until he is sound. The recent injury to his hoof—a stone bruise—was much more serious than it showed on the surface. Only his trainer, James Rowe, realized this and he deposed giving the great 3-year-old colt in preparation for the Realization stakes.

Trainer Rowe had a long talk with James R. Keene after the Realization stakes. The result was that it was decided not to take any more chances with the colt but to let him get over his injury thoroughly before he faces the flag again.

William Lakeland, who is a half owner of Commando and in regard to the colt's trouble:

"It is hard to tell just how serious the injury has been. The colt's trouble was caused by the trouble worked its way into the hoof through one of the fissures and made him lame. It had to be cut out. This left an opening in the hoof. To remedy the trouble, to keep the hoof from splitting, a bar plate was put on it. A bar plate is a remedy, but not a cure."

DIPLOMAT DENIES RIOTING.

Says There is No Sign of Insurrection or Revolt in Buenos Ayres.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Antonio del Vico, first secretary of legation of the Argentine Republic in Washington, is quoted in a Washington dispatch in the Tribune as saying:

"There is absolutely no sign of an insurrection or revolt in Argentina. The conditions are nothing like those in Venezuela. Buenos Ayres is not in a state of siege. Yesterday I received a dispatch from my government saying that crowds had gathered about the capitol and were petitioning the congress to abandon the project for the unification of the public debt. I do not fear any serious encounters and think the government will be able to preserve order without difficulty."

Senator Del Vico added that he was inclined to regard the published reports of rioting over the present administration's financial policy as much exaggerated. He remarked that appeals to congress from crowds had occurred in all countries.

FRENCH SUBMARINE BOAT

NEW YORK, July 6.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables that the French press is greatly excited at the reported complete capture of the submarine boat Gustave Zede, which at recent maneuvers in Albufera harbor torpedoed the British battleship and escaped all pursuit. The schooner, the Maun holds, that French submarines are perfect and in other Paris newspapers occur.

KRUGER REFUSES PROPOSALS

BRUSSELS, July 6.—The Post Belgica says that Mr. Kruger has refused to entertain proposals to accept mediation, but that the promoters are again urging the former president of the South African republic to signify his powers that and they interpose he will issue orders of marriage. In the event of Mr. Kruger's continued refusal, the promoters propose to act without authorization.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., July 6.—Partially bars of a tragedy enacted at a ranch five miles from Elsinore have just been learned. On a ranch occupied by Peter Tidman and wife, both were found dead and the ranch had been devastated by fire. The body of Mrs. Tidman was found in a ditch 100 yards from the burned residence. The skull was crushed and her throat cut. Tidman's body was found in a little canoe back of the house.

After two unsuccessful attempts to cut his throat he had laid himself on the ground, placed his face in a water, box and was drowned. The man had killed his wife and then committed suicide.

RUSSIA IS PENITENT.

Willing to Make Agreement for Relief of Duties on American Imports.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says that notwithstanding the official announcement, replying to the note addressed by Secretary Hay to Count Cassini regarding the tariff question, it is learned that Russia has intimated her willingness to remove the retaliatory duties she has applied upon American imports provided the United States refuse the order issued by Secretary Gage imposing the countervailing duty upon Russian sugar. It is plain that Russia regards the sugar question as the crux of the whole controversy.

THE NEXT CUBAN QUESTION.

Representative Dalzell Says Tariff Concessions Must Be Broadly Dealt With.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Representative John Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, a member of the ways and means committee, is quoted in a Washington dispatch to the Tribune as saying:

"Tariff concessions to Cuban products will be the next serious question with which congress will have to deal. It will be a very important question and will have to be dealt with broadly. The difficulties in the way are readily apparent. The Cubans will ask a market for their sugar. If we can do so Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, asserts, produce in this country from boots raised by our farmers, all the sugar we consume, there is a problem right away. The best sugar industry is extensive and growing. The farmers engaged in raising the beet and the men who turn the raw material into the finished product by the investment of capital in manufacturing plants will insist upon protection."

"Then there are our own citizens who will want less restricted commercial relations with Cuba. It is not to be expected that the Cubans will admit our dairy products, our flour and meat, our machinery, agricultural implements, boots and shoes and other things into their country on less favorable terms than we give them for their staple products. As I said, it is a broad question and will have to be handled skillfully."

Frenchman Assaulted Baltimore Visitor in Paris and Was Wounded in Duel.

NEW YORK, July 6.—According to a Paris dispatch in the Journal and Advertiser, Albert Hopkins, son of the president of the Women's College in Baltimore, has come out victorious in a duel with a Frenchman, Henry D'Escurra, a man about town.

The Frenchman found fault with young Hopkins for wearing an American flag. Hopkins who is in a club and used to be at St. John's College, Baltimore, stepped on the Frenchman's toes, the dispatch says. This led to a scolding with words in the Hotel de Boulogne in the evening. Hopkins was slightly scratched on the cheek while his adversary had a second arm wound.

Minister to Argentina Has Neither Called for Written or Oral.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald points out that Minister Lord, accredited in Argentina, has not called any information to the state department showing that any serious condition of affairs has arisen there nor do his mail dispatches indicate that he anticipated an outbreak which would require the government to apply martial law.

THE KING'S CORONATION.

Preparations on a Splendid Scale of Magnificence Are Being Made.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Official preparations for the coronation of King Edward are already being made, says the Tribune's London correspondent. It is expected the route will be through the same thoroughfare as at Queen Victoria's coronation in June, 1838.

Poisoned by Absorption

Through the pores of the skin many poisons are absorbed into the blood, deranging the circulation and affecting the constitution as quickly and seriously as those generated within the system. Just under the skin are innumerable hair-like blood vessels, and connecting these with the skin are millions of small tubes or glands, through which the poison is conveyed to the blood system. During the spring and summer, while the skin is most active and the pores well open, we are much more liable to be affected by Poison Oak and Ivy and other dangerous plants. Workers in brass, copper, lead and zinc have their health impaired and the blood supply poisoned through the absorption of fine particles of these metals and the acids used in polishing and cleaning them. Inhaling the fumes of lead give painters that pallid, waxy appearance of the skin. Barber's Itch is another disease that reaches the blood through the skin, and is a most obstinate one when it becomes firmly fixed in the system. After the poison has reached the blood and been disseminated throughout the system it is too late to resort to local applications. In many cases the blood is affected simultaneously with the appearance of the rash or eruption on the skin, and all efforts should be directed to the purification and building up of the blood. Ugly eruptions and sores will continue to break out in spite of salves, washes, soaps or other external treatment.

S. S. S. is especially recommended for poisons of this character. So completely does it destroy the effects of the Oak and Ivy that there is no possibility of its reappearance, and it is equally as efficacious in brass or lead poisoning or Barber's Itch; building up and purifying the blood and driving out of the circulation impurities of every kind, and removing every blemish, sore or eruption from the skin. There is no substitute for S. S. S.; it is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the safest and best in all constitutional or blood diseases.
