VOICES FROM THE SOUTH.

San Francisco Chronicle.

Of all the Fourth of July orations delivered in the South this year, only two have received much attention from the press. One of these is the address by Senator McLaurin, representing the progressive element of the Southern people, and the other that of Hon. Fleming G. du Bignon, of Georgia, representing Bourbonism.

Republicans are of the opinion that in Ohio H stands for Hanna and Hartmann. For the Democrats the initial may be otherwise applied.—Washington Star.

The policy advocated by the junior senator from South Carolina is now fairly well understood by the people. In the senate he has refused to be bound by the Bourbons of any section of the country, and during the last session of congress voted with the republicans on many important issues.

The London Field thinks the American's cup is doing more harm than good. Really it ought not to abandon hope in the Shamrock so early.—Kansas City Star.

The July Century speaks of the "Millenary of King Alfred." Now what interest can anyone possibly have in hats a thousand years out of date?—St. Paul Dispatch.

Dr. H. H. Mather, of Chicago, while at the top of his swing on the first set, twisted his right leg so that the small bone was broken. Between golf and football, give us billiards.—Minneapolis Journal.

Mr. du Bignon had another great doctrine to preach. He is reported to have said that in the agitation of new issues in the nation his greatest concern is "that the Southern people should become divided among themselves" and he went on to say: "With the people of the South there is one problem which overshadows all the rest, and to my mind it is, as has been well said, like the pestilence that walketh in the darkness and the destruction that wasteth at noon day."

"Why is the hair called ash?" I asked. The married man looked at me and said: "It's very plain," the man replied. "You never tried to manage one?"

THOUSANDS SENT INTO EXILE. Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always successful.

Such are the two voices that are appealing to the intelligence and conservatism of the South. The one points to the splendid prosperity that may be realized by going forward, while the other stands halting and hesitating before fantastic phantoms of Bourbon terror.

Mr. Wu Ting Fang seems to be under the impression that the framers of the Declaration of Independence stole their ideas from Confucius.

HE KEPT HIS LEG. Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the leg doctors urged amputation. "No," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters, and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. Hart's Drug Store will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50c.

"Don't place too much faith in a man's conversation," says the Mahanian philosopher. An open-mouthed mouth hasn't always been the best thing.

DON'T LET THEM SUFFER. Often children are tortured with itching and burning eczema and other skin diseases. But Dr. King's Little Early Bitters has the "raw skin" experts infamously claim, leaves the skin without a scar. Clean, fragrant, cheap. There's no safe, sure cure for eczema. Only 50c at Hart's Drug Store.

FOOD CHANGED TO POISON. Foreclosing loss in the intestine produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poison from clogged bowels, and easily but surely, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Piles, All Liver, Kidney and Bowel troubles. Only 50c at Hart's Drug Store.

WHAT TWO CENTS WILL DO.

It will bring relief to sufferers from asthma or consumption, even in the worst cases. This is about what one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar costs. Isn't it worth a trial? Hart's Drug Store.

Mr. John Tripps, of Ashboro, N. C., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my little child of a severe cough and inflamed tonsils." Hart's Drug Store.

Bobbe-Nowrach seems to have a horse back. Bobbe-Yes, he made his money in oil.

Thos. W. Carter, of Ashboro, N. C., had kidney trouble and one bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a perfect cure, and he says there is no remedy that will compare with it. Hart's Drug Store.

The sultan has lost one of his wives. For a business man with some idea of being careful the sultan is a very careless man. But perhaps she is not lost. It may be that she was mistaid somewhere about the harem.

Science has found that rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. This poison should be excreted by the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure always makes them well. Hart's Drug Store.

Wier (at the ball game)—That umpire seems to be very unpopular with the crowd. Wage—Oh, he doesn't mind that. He used to be a weather man.

Dr. George Swing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for which everything has failed to heal. After one application of Banner Solve it began to heal and after three applications it was entirely healed leaving no scar. Hart's Drug Store.

STORIES OF THE HOUR

NO LONGER WILD AND WOOLLY. We are cultured to the limit in this famous Western land. "Christianity upon us has a cinch. And refinement in our actions always plays a winning hand."
