Rober: Johnson, aged about 65 years, who has had charge of the Gran; ranch on Youngs river for the past twelve or fourteen years, was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, His two companions looked in vain for his body and as a strong tide was running it is thought that he was carried scaward. Johnson, Ed. Nelson and Bill Lowe started from the Grant place in a skiff, the two last named rowing while Johnson was in the stern steering. Opposite Greenwood cometery the boat struck on a song, and comenced to leak. Nelson started to swim ashore with a rope but was obliged to return to the boat. He made a second trip and shortly after he left the boat it gave a lurch and Johnson was thrown into the water. His companions anxiously watched the surface of the water but the body did back if it does not please you .- Johnson tot come up.
