On the Second Day of January, 1902, the holders of these tickets will be called together and each class of 10 will draw to see which one gets the Suit or Overcoat. BOILER EXPLODES KILLING MANY Twenty-six Killed Outright and Twenty-four Are Seriously Injured.

PROPERTY LOSS IS $180,000

Floors and Roof of Building Bulged Upward and Then Crashed Down on Heads of the Workmen.

DETROIT, Nov. 26.—Twenty-six men dead, five unidentified bodies and twenty-four others in various hospital suffering from burns and other injuries, is the result of an explosion of one of the boilers in the Penberthy Injector Company's plant at 9:30 this morning.

LIST OF DEAD.

The dead are: A. E. HOPPMAN, LOUIS HENNING, PATRICK MALLERY, A. E. MILLER, EUGENE BERTRAM, R. MULKEY, JOSEPH COFFEY, CHARLES MARVIN, JOSEPH KODEK, STEPHEN CHRISP, GEORGE SCHENOR, CHARLES LYDY, JACOB ROEBEL, WILLIAM MANN, CHRISTOPHER WALDMAN, ROBERT CREER, EDWARD BURCH, JOHN S. SCHABLE, RICHARD RYAN, DOUGLAS DICKINSON, PETER DOLA.

Five unidentified bodies. In the hospitals are 27 injured, from fatally to slightly hurt, and a dozen or more employees who suffered slight injuries were taken to their homes. Twenty-five men and boys have not yet been located. Unidentified bodies account for five of these and officers of the company are positive that a major portion of the remaining 20 are by tonight at their homes.

Tonight a great force of men is searching the ruins and the work will not be stopped until every foot of debris has been explored. The injector company's plant occupied half a square of ground. The building in which the boiler was located and which was destroyed, was three stories in height.

It is impossible to tell exactly how many men were at work but the company officials insist that the number was not over 55.

The awful crash came without the slightest warning. Floors and the roof of the building bulged upward and then crashed down with heavy loads of machinery and foundry apparatus. Walls, roof and all dropped into a shapeless mass. The windows in houses for blocks around were broken by the concussion. Almost immediately a fire alarm was turned in and calls sent out for all the ambulances in the city. Pending their arrival, the neighboring houses were turned into temporary hospitals and physicians who were in the vicinity eased the suffering ones as much as they were able to do.

The floors and roof had fallen at an angle and formed a sort of huge cover under which the fire burned fiercely. The sufferings of those who were burned beneath were later nobly testified to by their charred and blackened bodies.

The property loss is about $180,000. Nothing is known as yet about the cause of the explosion.

LIPTON'S COMPLIMENT

AMERICANS GIVE UP ALL BUT THE CUP.

Nowhere Else in the World Can Be Found People So Hospitable and Generous.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from London quotes Sir Thomas Lipton as commenting on his treatment in America upon the occasion of his address at the dinner at the Hotel Cecil in the following language: "No words of mine can exaggerate the admirable manner in which the course was kept clear for the yacht race or the gentlemanly, sportsmanlike men turned out to me by the New York Yacht Club. American yachtmen and the people of America did everything for me save give me the cup. They loaded the Erin with moccasins, horse shoes, lucky spiders and other things which were supposed to bring luck. Unfortunately they did not.

"It is gratifying to me to think perhaps the races have done something to increase the good feeling between the people of the United States of America and this country. "I am well able to say from personal experience that nowhere else in the world can there be found people so hospitable and generous. I can never forget the kindness I met with in America. It proved to me beyond doubt that hands across the sea is not a mere idle phrase; but Englishmen and Americans are of the same kith and kin."

BRIGANDS' ANSWER TO ULTIMATUM

Twenty-five Thousand Pounds or Death for Both of the Captives.

JANUARY FIRST, THE LIMIT

Report Comes Through Private Advice from Dubnitz—It is Not Believed Threat Will Be Carried Out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Commenting on the report that the brigands have sent a message to American Diplomatic Agent Dickinson that unless he accedes by January 1 to their original demand for 25,000 Turkish lira, or pounds ($419,000) ransom, they will kill both their captives—Miss Ellen Stone and Mrs. Telka—the Sofia, Bulgaria, correspondent of the World says: "This report comes in private advice from Dubnitz, the Bulgarian frontier town which is the present headquarters of some of the secret agents through whom Mr. Dickinson has been communicating with the brigands. The message is said to be the robbers' answer to the ultimatum reported to have been sent to them by Mr. Dickinson (but which he denied sending), offering as ransom 12,000 Turkish lira or pounds ($22,000) and no more and giving them until next Saturday to accept that sum, after which time that and all previous offers would be withdrawn.

Mr. Dickinson, who was the United States consul general at Constantinople when he was appointed diplomatic agent at Sofia, went to Constantinople immediately after the report became current that he had sent an ultimatum and he is still there. The report that the brigands will kill their prisoners is not believed at Sofia.

WAITING FOR SNOW TO MELT. SOFIA, Nov. 26.—The brigands are determined to wait until the disappearance of snow permits them freedom of movement before resuming negotiations for the release of Miss Stone. The impression among the best informed people here is that Dickinson's departure for Constantinople increases the difficulty of gaining the confidence of the brigands and expediting the settlement of the ransom question.

SECRETARY ROOT SUBMITS REPORT

Says Abolishment of Canteen Has Not Had Satisfactory Result.

TRANSPORT SERVICE POOR

Recommends Retirement of Merritt, Brooke and Otis as Lieutenant Generals for Distinguished Services.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The secretary of war today submitted to President Roosevelt his annual report.

In reference to the abolishment of the army canteen the secretary says reports of officers indicate that the effect of the law was unfortunate.

Ocean transport service continues inadequate and unsatisfactory. He advocates employment of merchant marine in transport service. The relations of national guard organizations to the national forces and the obligations and duties of those organizations in time of war should be clearly defined, so that confusion and distress regarding their action which accompanied the outbreak of the war with Spain may not again occur.

The secretary says Major General Merritt, Major General Brooke and Major General Otis are practically unreservedly for distinguished services during the Spanish and Philippine wars and adds:

"I recommend as a slight recognition of the obligations of the country to these officers that congress authorize the president to place them upon the retired list as lieutenant generals."

The creation of orderly social conditions in Alaska, the secretary says, has left little for the troops there to do except the construction of telegraph lines and military roads. Appropriations for these purposes is recommended.
