OBJECT LESSON FOR ANARCHISTS

Let Him Have Anarchistic Government, Says Senator Haar.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Senator George A. Hamlin, of Oregon, introduced a bill yesterday authorizing the establishment of a government in the United States for the purpose of carrying out the principles of anarchistic government. The bill provides that the government shall consist of a single executive branch, composed of a president and a vice-president, and that the legislative branch shall be composed of a single house of representatives. The constitution provides for a judicial branch, consisting of a supreme court and such inferior courts as may be necessary. The bill also provides for the appointment of a cabinet by the president, and for the appointment of a secretary of state, a secretary of war, a secretary of the treasury, and a secretary of the navy.
