PROGRESS IN SCIENCE.

Of the scientific advances effected within the last twelve months perhaps those in electricity are the most notable. Prominent among them are the perfecting of two storage batteries whose lightness especially adapts them to the operation of automobiles.

Koch's announcement of his belief that tuberculosis is not transmissible from cattle to mankind was the most sensational incident of the year in the realm of sanitation.

Since ariel navigation is scarcely more than "heroic sport"—as Chief Engineer Melville called it—the performance of Santos-Dumont can hardly be regarded as a serious contribution to science.

It is certainly remarkable that the Columbia river bar is an obstruction to Astoria's commerce and not to that of Portland.

J. J. Thompson's declaration that he has measured particles of matter a thousand times smaller than an atom of hydrogen may possibly exert an influence on industrial chemistry.

The United States Steel Corporation is placing certain of its business institutions under rigid civil service rules.

The archbishop of Montreal has issued a pastoral letter in which he deplores the feverish desire for enjoyment and worldly pleasures which he claims is growing in Catholic families.

The list and a careful record of his work is kept. On this record and this alone are future promotions to be made. Every boat is to have its place, and promotions will be made from one to another, as vacancies occur.

It is said of Mrs. Shaw, wife of the incoming secretary of the treasury, that she carefully counted the cost, and figured whether her husband could afford to take a place in the cabinet.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills Millions are always busy, curing Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever and Ague.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Wis., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them."

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by a group had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure."

"Constipation and health never go together," Dr. Williams' Little Early Pills promote easy action of the bowels without distress.

Frank Povey, the great elevator man carried insurance of more than $1,000,000. The facts show the foresight which controlled his conduct.

THE FUEL OF THE FUTURE

This question has been worrying many people who fear that the coal supply is becoming exhausted, but there is no need to worry, however, as a substitute has been discovered in petroleum.

J. P. Morgan the other day drew a check for $3,000,000. His game of check is very like solitaire.

WORKING 24 HOURS A DAY.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills Millions are always busy, curing Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever and Ague.

The power that prepared the highways of life seems to have arranged that the footsteps along the primrose paths shall rarely point to the Promised Land—Captain Buitt.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Wis., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them."

A girl is never too young to form opinions of her own, nor too old to express them.—The Destiny of Doris.

CHILD WORTH MILLIONS

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by a group had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure."
