

BIG BEND

This is the name of a hard wheat, Eastern Oregon Flour. Hard wheat is rich in gluten and does not contain so much starch as soft wheat, and thus bread is having a large sale. If you are not pleased with the flour you are now using you might find this exactly what you want.

Thomas James Wilson died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. G. Fritchman, at the advanced age of 74 years. Decades had lived on his count for nearly 40 years. He was born in Virginia January 18, 1828, and was married in Boston in 1841. Twenty years later he came to this as a leading of Vancouver. He had resided there until a few months ago, when he came to Astoria. Decades had been a Mason since 1846 and his tablet will soon today under the auspices of that order. Services will be conducted at the residence at 1:30 p.m. W. S. Short.

The police yesterday arrested William Spence, a 45-year-old boy who escaped from the Boys and Girls Aid Society at Portland. The lad ran away about two months ago in company with another boy named Willis Hamilton. Spence says that his companion, who is but 11 years of age, is employed as a whistle blower at Foster's logging camp near Westport, and earning $12 a month and board. Spence has been in Astoria about a week and has earned a living by carrying in wood and doing other odd jobs. Superintendent Gardner of the society, arrived in the city last evening and will take the boy back.

The council has favorably considered the request of August Hildebrand that the route of the country road be changed near the reservoir. It appears the road was improperly located, and when Mr. Hildebrand and an associate purchased some property in the street committee reported favorably on the matter. Mr. Hansen wanted to know whether or not there would be any expense to the city, and, on being informed that there would, objected to granting the petition. It was explained that Mr. Hildebrand would make a donation of property to the city, and the objection was withdrawn.

The change will cost the city $40, and in return it will get a strip of land that it will enable it to make the road much wider.

The taxpayers of Astoria school district will meet tomorrow evening for the purpose of hearing the annual report of the school board. An estimate of the expenses for the year will also be presented and the necessary levy fixed. The levy will doubtless be 10 mills.

Residents living along the Lewis and Clark will hold a meeting today for the purpose of discussing future improvements. H. M. Gaston will preside over the affair this morning to be in attendance at the meeting. It is the intention of the residents of that progressive community to eventually possess one of the best highways in the country, and already some extensive improvements are planned out for the spring.

We are glad to note the term "reawakened South" may be used without offending the esteemed Charleston News and Courier.—Chicago Tribune.

One Washington clubwoman has left large sums of money to several other clubwomen. A boom in the woman's club world may be expected.

There are more than 30 contestants in the 50-cent try-out now being held at the Summerfield gymnasium. Interest in the game was at a low ebb for a time, but with the opening of the club above the reading room, bowlers again took up with the sport, and the alleys are now crowded day and night.

The try-out will be concluded on February 1, and a three-man team contest will then be arranged. The lawmen will be given handicaps in accordance with their showing in the present try-out, and the winner, the best of the kind to be held in this city, promises to be of more than usual interest. It is customary in contests of this kind for the scratch men to be lifted against handicap men. Weekly and monthly tournaments for handsome medals will be arranged within a few weeks and the number of bowlers will increase rather than diminish.

W. W. Johnson, a prominent Minneapolis lumberman, arrived in the city yesterday from California, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Johnson's father was recently in this part of the country and was interested by Mr. Whipple. The visitor was shown around town by Judge Taylor during the day and he seemed much pleased with Astoria. Mr. Johnson reports that his company will operate in the East for a year or two to come, and his present visit was made for the purpose of looking over the situation with a view to locating when his Eastern timber supply falls. He inquired fully into local conditions and all the information desired by him was readily furnished by Judge Taylor. Mr. Johnson said he would prefer to locate in a community where there are several mills, as such places have a prestige as lumber centers that greatly helps new industries. He was assured by Judge Taylor that Astoria would do the right thing by him if he decided to locate here, and has promised to correspond with the local committee. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left the city last night on their return home. Mr. Johnson, sr., will shortly be in Astoria.
