THE OREGONIAN'S BREAK.

The Walla Walla Union says: The Portland Oregonian has overstepped the limit of justifiable censure in its severe condemnation of the United States senate. It is highly probable that the Oregonian sees in that body men who never should have been there, but to condemn all senators for the faults of a few is uncalled for prejudice.

The American people are pleased to look upon the United States senate as its highest and most honored legislative body, the large majority of which is composed of men of intellect, sterling qualities, statesmanship and unquestioned honesty, and they do not look upon it as "the cesspool of American politics," as the Oregonian suggests.

Whatever may be the cause of this outbreak on the part of the Portland daily, it may be expected it will meet with much more sympathy on the part of the masses than did its much to be deplored editorial scolding President McKinley for taking his wife west with him last year.

The attack of a railroad president upon the interstate commerce commission is too much like the remarks of a burglar concerning the police to have much weight.

Foley's Honey and Tar is best for croup and whooping cough, contains no opiates, and cures quickly. Careful mothers keep it in the house. Sold by Hart's Drugstore.

Certain Frenchmen are now talking about an alliance with England. Of course there is necessity for having something about which to talk.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized.

er care nor can be made to care, find easy subjects. That a girl so gross an idiot as to marry a Chinese is not fit to marry anyone may be accepted without debate, and it would be far better that she have no chance to marry.

HURRY UP!

Every one here that expression "hurry up!" is a genuine Americanism. It is expressive of the "rush" in which we live. Nothing is swift enough for us.

Life depends on our haste, but not in that sense. Look at the obituary columns of the papers and see how many prominent men are carried away by "stomach trouble," "acute indigestion" and other related diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and the associated organs of digestion and nutrition. The source of all physical strength is food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

When Prince Henry comes that familiar legal line, "know all men by these presents," will be quite significant.—Washington Star.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in local poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful.

My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa. "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure."

The chances are that seventy-five of those eighty cablegrams to Mr. Schwab at the Monte Carlo table recommended seventy-five original and infallible systems of breaking the bank.

The Rev. Dr. Parkhurst announces that all souls are not immortal. The omniscient doctor reached this conclusion after investigating the wearing qualities of a pair of two-dollar shoes.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS THROWN AWAY. Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief."

One of the owners of a fox box at the Metropolitan opera house refuses to relinquish it in favor of Prince Henry on the night a performance is to be given for the royal guest.

I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."
