dred millions of dollars, in the time of eace, is a conundrum that no sane man will undertake to solve. Champ Clark, the silver tongued orator of sourt,in a speech, a few days ago, upon the floor of the House, said: The greatest calamity that has befallen mankind, since Adam's fall, was the election of Cleveland to the presi-

many long years before the people of the United States forget the last democratic soup house administration.

To bring these facts home to the people it is only neccessary to give it a local coloring that applies to Clatsop county. With every business and mercantile wheel turning to the tide of prosperity, with the majority of her citizens happy and contented under a republican administration what, excuse can there be for a change? There is none. The facts are the old enemydemocracy-and a few disgrunted and misguided men with the sole object of personal actuating them have undertaken to change the political rethe voters. "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush"

Getting rid of an undesirable husband by driving a nail in his head is an old time barbarity of the days of Joel and Sisera and supposed to be obsolete. Yet a Kansas woman successfully revived it the other day.

A brute of a teamster snapped boy's eye out with his whip in San Francisco. When the father of the boy got through with the teamster, what was left of him was turned over to the authorities for further procédings.

The terrors of the sea are aptly illustrated in the case of the crew of the French bark Olivier de Cisson, which arrived at San Francisco a few days ago. The bark was long overdue being 222 days without seeing a sail. Her crew had to be carried ashore suffering from scurvy and in addition three died on the high seas from the dread disease.

A measure to grant life savers and their families a pension is under consideration by congress. The measure other reason.
