Talking About CLOTHING

Do you know that there is a vast difference in the make up, lining, sewing and general finish of clothing.

There is the "made to sell" kind, pretty patterns, gaudy linings, but there's no satisfaction in the wear; it is made in a hurry by underpaid labor, just "made to sell."

Then there's the "made to wear" kind, properly shrunk, plain but strong linings, the "vitals," or inside paddings, properly adjusted sewed with silk, made by skilled labor and sold on honor.

The "made to wear" kind costs a little more than the "made to sell" kind, but, dear me, it is ever so much better.

We sell the made to wear kind.

CLUB WOMEN'S CONVENTION

The Louisiana Purchase Question Will Be Fully Discussed.

THE COLOR LINE FELL FLAT

Mrs. Burdette, of California, Withdrew From Presidential Race.—Mrs. Dennison, of New York.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 2.—The principal feature of the club women's convention is the withdrawal of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, of California, from the presidential race. This assures the election of Mrs. Dennison, of New York, to that office. Attempt made by the Massachusetts delegation today to precipitate the color question fell flat.

After detailing the work of preliminary meetings of the committee the report says:

The committee has adopted the general outline of program offered by Missouri through Mrs. Henry W. Elliot. It may be briefly given as follows:

Two days are assigned to the celebration, the morning of the first being given up to committee meetings and other necessary preliminaries, the actual program commencing in the afternoon with addresses of welcome and response; an oration, patriotic in its character, by some speaker of national reputation; an entertainment and reception in the evening.

The second day will be in charge of the states named in the purchase, the general tenor of the program being in answer to the question:

"What is being done to promote good citizenship in each state of the Louisiana Purchase?"

The eve of the second day will be devoted to historic tableaux. The committee resolved that all necessary expenses conducted with this program should be met by the general federation, with the exception of:

First, the part taken by the states the second day, and, second, the evening of historical tableaux, which should be further considered and reported back for action by the committee. The committee also recommended that the date for the celebration be during the week of October 17, that being the date of the ratification of the purchase by the United States senate in 1803.

The date of the exposition being very uncertain, the committee further recommended that, in the event of its postponement the general federation should be deferred so as to occur at the same time.

The committee appointed Mrs. P. N. Moore, chairman of the sub-committee to carry out the program, with Mrs. W. H. Elliot as a member and with power to name other members of her committee. The committee having been unable to agree as to a permanent memorial, the question is referred to the general federation for settlement at its meeting in Los Angeles, California.

A MODERN YOUNG DAVID

BRINGS DESPERADO TO EARTH WITH STONE.

After Having Engaged Police in Pitched Battle With Revolvers.

NEW YORK, May 2.—After shooting a man twice, Peter Wanett held the police and a posse at bay for nearly two hours, says a Wilkesbarre, Pa. special to the Herald. Wanett fired many shots at the crowd but was finally brought to earth by a boy, who knocked him senseless with a stone.

Wanett was first noticed parading before the Russian Catholic church, twirling a revolver and making remarks about the church. Sexton Rusinit came out of the church and Wanett began shooting at him. One bullet went through Rusinit's arm and another struck his thigh. Several persons tried to overpower the infuriated man, but were shaken off and he ran, shooting at those who pursued. When the police arrived he was on top of a steep bluff and they could not reach him without exposing themselves.

They called upon citizens for aid and the bluff was surrounded. For more than an hour police and citizens tried to reach Wanett, but each time they approached he fired. Finally, just as the police had secured rifles Wanett dashed through the line, shooting right and left, and got away. He was brought to bay a mile distant and another circle formed. This time the crowd, having no other weapons, began throwing stones and finally a boy brought the man down. Wanett was then taken to jail.

DEATH OF STOWAWAYS

STEAL ABOARD A BRITISH VESSEL.

And Are Buried Alive While the Ship is Coaling.—Found Several Days Later.

NEW YORK, May 2.—When the British freight ship Sir Richard Grenville, from the West Indies, arrived in port, Captain Jones reported the tragic death of two West Indian stowaways. The vessel stopped at half a dozen West Indian ports, among them being St. Lucia, where she coaled. It is at this port Captain Jones believes the stowaways, who were negroes, managed to get aboard the vessel, by letting themselves down to the coal bunkers through the coal chutes. The men had evidently miscalculated the time that the steamer was going to remain at St. Lucia and did not know the vessel was to coal up. After they had reached the coal bunkers many tons of coal were taken on board and the two stowaways were literally buried alive. Nothing was known to the captain or crew of the tragic death of the men until the morning of April 15, after the vessel had left Guantanamo, loaded with sugar for New York, when one of the bodies slid through the coal chute into the furnaces, while the vessel was making a hard fight against a northeasterly gale. The sight of the body sent a shiver through the stokers and caused them to temporarily quit work. Captain Jones was notified of the discovery and after making sure that the stowaway was dead, ordered the body buried in the sea.

Six days later the stokers were again horrified by another body which came through the coal chute into the furnace room. A search was then made of the coal bunkers but no more bodies were found.

ANTI-CONSPIRACY BILL PASSED

It Comes Up Unexpectedly and There Was Not One Word of Debate.

WILL NOW GO TO SENATE

Land Commissioner Hermann Writes Letter Opposing Bill For Leasing of Public Lands.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The house today passed the anti-conspiracy bill reported from the judiciary committee without a word of debate.

It came up rather unexpectedly and Littlefield, Republican, who had filed a minority report on the bill and had intended to offer some amendment, came in just as it was put upon its passage and the vote was taken before he understood what was going on. The bill is as follows:

That no agreement contract or combination by, or between two or more persons to do or procure to be done, any compliance or furtherance of any trade dispute between employers and the people of the District of Columbia, or in any territory of the United States, or between the people and those who may be engaged in trade or commerce between several states or another, or between territory and any state or the District of Columbia, or with a foreign nation or between the District of Columbia and any state or foreign nation, shall be deemed criminal, nor shall those engaged therein be indictable or otherwise punishable for crime of conspiracy, nor shall such agreement, combination or contract be considered as in constraint of trade or commerce, nor shall any restraining order or injunction be issued. In relation thereto nothing in this act shall exempt from punishment otherwise than herein excepted, any persons guilty of conspiracy for which punishment is now provided by any act of congress, but such act of congress shall, as to agreement, combination and contracts herein before referred to be construed as if these acts were therein contained.

The District of Columbia appropriation bill was passed. The bill to provide diplomatic and consular officers for Cuba was also passed.

LEASING PUBLIC LANDS.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Senator Gibson, of Montana, today presented in the senate a letter from Commissioner Herrman, of the general land office in opposition to the policy of leasing public lands as proposed by the bill now pending in the senate. Herrman says that under the terms of the bill practically all public lands west of the Mississippi would be subject to leasing and that as it is provided that when under lease they shall not be disposed of except under homestead and mineral land laws, sale of public domain would be greatly curtailed.
