J. R. Burk came over from Cathlamet yesterday.

W. Bell, E. W. Dooley and C. A. Watson, all well known Tillamook men, are in Astoria.

Mr. James E. Godfrey, who is on the Democratic ticket for state printer, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. George Finley, the timber man who has been purchasing extensive tracts in the Nehalem country, is in the city.

Thos. Henningson, a native of Germany, was granted his first papers of citizenship in the county clerk's office yesterday.

Dr. W. R. Lord, author of the book entitled "Birds of Oregon," and who lectured in Astoria last evening, has decided to remain over and thinks of organizing a society for the protection of birds in this city.

Deputy State Commander Winfield, of the Maccabees, is about ready to close with Gateway Tent, No. 33, this city, but he thinks yet before closing he will initiate 25 more new members. If he succeeds this will make a total of 125 members initiated in the camp by him since February.

Revival meetings are still in progress at the Methodist church, Evangelist Marshall is an earnest worker. A number of seekers were at the altar last evening. A large street meeting was held before the service at the church, and another will be held this evening.

Several Fort Stevens soldiers were in the city yesterday. They say that the new mess hall is about completed and that there is talk of giving a grand ball in the structure before it is occupied after its completion. Captain Steel of the Thirty-third has arrived, and the general conditions at the fort are satisfactory.

Mr. Kern, of Hale & Kern Company, was down to Seaview yesterday viewing the remains of what was once their barge Wahkiakum. The intention of his trip was to ascertain if any thing could be saved from the ruin, but the waves had wrought such destruction with her that he despaired and returned to Portland last evening.

The county clerk was busy yesterday forwarding election supplies to the various election officers over the county. The packages contained everything necessary to carry on a first-class election, except the power to make men vote intelligently. This job is left to the voters. From all accounts they will vote right, as the negroes do not seem to have a ghost of a chance.

J. N. Williamson, Republican candidate for Congress, for this district, will address the people of Clatsop County at Fishers' Opera House Saturday evening. Mr. Williamson is to be the next congressman from this district and it will be well for the people to hear him. Fishermen are especially invited to be at the meeting. It will be one of the best meetings of the campaign.

Women of Astoria still complain that the men are careless about avoiding expectorating on the sidewalks. A big "gob" of saliva is unsightly on the sidewalk and it is filthy, besides it is an unpleasant thing to step in and it soils women's dresses. People must expectorate, as a matter of course, but how easy it is in walking along the street to step to one side and expectorate in the gutter. It does no harm there. The thoughtful men nowadays always think before they expectorate on the sidewalk. The animal never thinks, and the ordinance should be enforced against these.

John Ties, the logger who was killed by accident at Saldron's logging camp and whose body was shipped to Canby, Oregon, on last evening's train, was well known by D. R. Blount, of this city. Mr. Ties was about 40 years old, was unmarried and had two brothers and a sister, who reside at Canby. The accident was a sad one. While at work in moving logs a dog was drawn out suddenly, which struck him and killed him instantly. He was first brought to Pohl's undertaking parlors and then shipped to his people. Mr. Blount says he was a hard-working, and honest man.

J. W. Howerton, postmaster at Ilwaco, is in the city. It is Mr. Howerton's first visit to the city for several months. While Astoria looks natural, yet he sees many evidences of improvement. He says the people of the north side of the river are watching the political campaign on this side with great interest, as they would regret very much to see Oregon spoil herself by going Democratic. At this particular time such a mistake by any of the Northwest states would quater the whole Northwest. Mr. Howerton says that people of the Washington side of the river have too much faith in the good judgment of the people over here to believe that they will make a mistake and elect a ticket which in reality means nothing, for it has nothing to offer.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Arrangements have been made to run a steamer to Greenwood cemetery and return on Memorial day. Round trip 25c. Will be limited to 200 passengers. Call early for information and secure tickets at Pohl's undertaking parlors.

BIRDS OF OREGON.

Dr. Lord Gives an Interesting Lecture.

The lecture of Dr. W. R. Lord on the Birds of Oregon, at Foard & Stokes' hall, was well attended last evening. The gentleman illustrated his lecture with stereopticon views and brought out all of the points of the feathery tribe, and explained them to the audience.

Besides the lecture there were other features no less interesting and entertaining. Prof. J. C. McCue sang a solo, and Miss Jeffries played 14 songs of the Lark on the piano.

Dr. Lord is a great lover and friend of the birds.

He urged forcibly three illegitimate interests in birds—hunting, collecting and millinery decoration.

He said in part: The savage nature of boys prompts them to kill only for satisfaction of their wants.

Ladies are willing to wear plumage of birds upon their hats, notwithstanding that hundreds of poor, harmless creatures had to be deprived of life to supply these feathers.

There are three legitimate uses of birds—first, they are valuable as an economical agent in agriculture, because they destroy insects, which if left alone would in ten years destroy every green thing upon the earth; Hence the bird saves to man the growth of vegetation. Owls are better than a cat to eradicate mice around barns.

Second, we should learn to love birds for their beauty. A bird, next to a human being, is the most beautiful thing God has made. The movement of a bird is the most graceful motion to look upon. The flight of the swallow, in particular is perfectly wonderful.

Third, birds cultivate sympathy in the human heart when we learn to appreciate their mode of life. How long and diligently they work in building their nest; a bird becomes very unhappy when its nest is disturbed, after it has built it so carefully, laid its eggs and hatched its young. What a charm is its song which we may enjoy even while engaged in our regular work, and they never disturb us.

The entire evening was a charming entertainment and Rev. Lord will be remembered in Astoria as one who opened up a new line of thought amongst the children here, which will surely create a warm spirit in them toward the innocent birds.

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received by the county court of Clatsop County, Oregon, until Thursday, June 5, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the construction of an 80-foot span bridge, 12 feet wide, across the Necanicum river in section 24, Twp. 5 N., R. 10 west, in Clatsop County Oregon. Said bridge to be constructed on a site about one mile east of Carl Johnson's place, where the county road from Seaside crosses the said Necanicum river.

Bidders will present plans and specifications for said work, together with a certified check for 10 per cent of the amount of their bids, or a good and sufficient bond, as a guarantee that they will construct the said bridge provided they are awarded the contract.

The court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the County Court. H. J. WHEBITY, County Clerk.

ROBBERED OF HIS PURSE.

How often we see this startling headline in our daily papers, and how much we sympathize with the unfortunate victim, be he rich or poor, but there are hundreds of other cases, of people who have been robbed of a far greater treasure than wealth that we never hear of. We refer to those who have been robbed of their good health by a rebellious stomach. There is one medicine, however, that will conquer a rebellious stomach and make it perform its duties properly, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a specific remedy for the stomach and will cure belching flatulency, sick headache, indigestion, constipation and biliousness. Try it and see. Our Private Die Stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The City Council met last night, according to adjournment last Monday night. The house was called to order promptly at 7:30 o'clock, with all the members present except Councilman Nordstrom, of the Sixth ward.

The most important business taken up was as follows: Petitioners for retail liquor licenses were Nanson & Nyberg, S. Wilson and Henry Dase. A petition by the ladies of East Astoria, asking the council to prevent Mr. A. West, a resident of that portion of the city, from allowing his chickens to run at large, was referred to the city attorney.

A communication from the Chase National Bank, New York, asking the payment of its commission for handling the city bonds, and also a message from Mayor Suprenant, requesting that the ordinance making retail liquor licenses transferrable be repealed, were read and placed on file.

The ways and means committee recommended the payment of the following claims: Foard & Stokes, $9.10.

Sherman Transfer Company, $5. P. A. Stokes, $5.60.

Joseph O'Kier, $54.50. H. F. Scheel, $12.85.

Prael & Cook Transfer Company, $22.50.

T. H. Bidwell, $30.50. Frank Bidwell, $16.20.

Charles Warnstaff, $16. Edward Judd, $6.50.

The committee on streets and public ways' report of costs was: Board of Assessors, $54.

Sherman Transfer Company, $11.50. Foard & Stokes Company, $60.25.

H. F. Prael, $45.75. Astoria Box Company, $95.25.

The committee on fire and water recommended the payment of the following claims: Fisher Bros., 50 cents.

R. M. Gaston, 45 cents. J. M. Ellsworth, 25 cents.

Andrew Asp, 50 cents. Mr. Allen, $2.30.

C. A. Cook, $42.90. The reports were respectively adopted.

At this point of the meeting a report from the city physician was handed to the secretary and read. It showed that four cases of smallpox had been recorded in Astoria, three having been treated at the pesthouse and one at the home of Miss A. Hanson.

Among the ordinances voted upon by the council was one for the payment of $353 to C. W. Holmes for the span of horses lately procured for the fire department; another accepting the improvements recently made on Seventeenth street between Commercial and Franklin avenue, and still another for the amendment of ordinance 2675 in as much as every liquor license shall cost $600 and in no case shall be extended over one year. The latter ordinance was laid over until the next meeting.

After adopting several minor resolutions, the meeting adjourned.
