AT GRANT'S TOMB

An Ex-Confederate Pays Hero of America a High Tribute

NEW YORK, May 30.—Memorial services were held the afternoon at Grant's tomb in the presence of 5000 people. Exercises were conducted by U. S. Grant Post of Brooklyn, "America" was sung and Lincoln's Gettysburg address read. Judge Thomas Jones of Alabama delivered the oration.

Mr. Jones said in part:

"This is an hour of grandeur. When but a beardless youth I drank of the cup of defeat at Appomattox and was one of those who was 'allowed to return to his home, not to be disturbed by the United States authorities, so long as they observed their parole and the laws in force where they resided.' From that day to this there has never been an hour when I would willingly omit an opportunity to do honor to the memory of the immortal who forbore to add to the burden of our sorrows. No true soldier can deny to the illustrious man whose mortal remains lie here, the possession of all the qualities of a great commander. No ignoble emotion came to him in the hour of triumph. He did not take time, after the collapse at the little Virginia village to pass through Richmond, but hurried direct to Washington to begin the disbandment of the army."

AT THE MCKINLEY GRAVE

CANTON, May 30.—Many beautiful offerings to be placed on the tomb of the late President McKinley were received here last night and today. Mrs. McKinley took the flowers to Woodlawn and had them arranged about the tomb.

PEACE IN SOUTH AFRICA

Boer Delegates Admit That Peace Has Come.

BRUSSELS, May 30.—It is said here that Boer delegates in Europe admit that peace in South Africa has been secured and that a settlement between Boers and Great Britain will be signed in names of former citizens of the two South African republics now in Europe, including Kruger.

LONDON, May 30.—The government has not yet received a decision from the Boer conference at Veeriging which was expected today and which was to enable the Balfour government leader to make his statement concerning peace next Monday.

Kitchner is ready to again take the field if there is any delay in the acceptance of Great Britain's terms by the Boers.

THE "SOONERS" AND INDIANS

Spokane Indian Reservation Scene Of Great Excitement.

SPOKANE, May 30.—The "Sooner" troubles on Spokane Indian Reservation are a great deal more serious than has been generally supposed," said Indian Agent A. M. Andersen today. Strife between Indians and Sooners has come near to breaking point several times and it has kept me busy to prevent bloodshed. Rapture is not yet over, although it is much easier than 10 days ago. "Since the beginning of the troubles we have driven 500 Sooners off of the Reservation, and it has kept a force of 100 men moving to it."

ROOSEVELT AT ARLINGTON

Delivered Memorial Address to a Large Audience Yesterday.

HEROES OF THE PHILIPPINES

President Takes Bold Stand For the Pacific Coast.—Our Interest Must Not Be Neglected.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Memorial day was observed here perhaps more generally than ever before. President Roosevelt's arrival at Arlington was a signal for an outburst of applause. E. B. Hay read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. President Roosevelt followed and as he arose he was again greeted with plaudits of an immense audience. During his address he was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause.

The president's speech was one of his greatest. Referring to the Pacific Coast, he said:

"The Pacific seaboard is as much to us as the Atlantic; as we grow in power and prosperity so our interests will grow in that farthest west which is the immortal east. No statesman has a right to neglect the interests of our people in the Pacific; interests which are important to all our people, but most important to those of our people who have built populous and thriving states on the western slope of our continent.

"This should no more be a party question than the war for the Union should have been a party question. At this moment the man in highest office in the Philippines is the vice-governor, General Luke Wright, of Tennessee, who gallantly wore the gray in the Civil war and who is now working hand in hand with the head of our army in the Philippines, Adna Chaffee, who in the Civil war gallantly wore the blue. Those two and the men under them, from North and South, are laboring mightily for us who live at home."

CANADIAN LIBERALS WON

PREDOMINATE IN ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Cabinet Ministers of the Ross Government Were All Re-Elected.

TORONTO, May 30.—The general election of members to the Ontario legislature, which took place yesterday resulted in a return to power of Ross Liberal government. At 10 o'clock last night the figures stood: 51 Liberals, 46 Conservatives, with one place to hear from, which will probably elect a supporter of the government, giving the government in a full house, a majority of six.

No great issues were at stake but the Liberals have been in power for 20 years and the Conservatives declared the government was corrupt and one of their election cries was "It is time for a change."

The Liberals were led by the premier, Hon. Geo. W. Ross, and the Conservative leader was Mr. Jas. P. Whitney.

The development of new Ontario was probably the most complete plank in the policy of both parties and one on which both were agreed, although differing in the manner in which it should be carried out.

All the cabinet members in the Ross government were re-elected.

PENNOYER IS NO MORE

FOUND DEAD ON FLOOR OF HIS LIBRARY.

Presumably Heart Failure, But Had Been in Poor Health For Some Time.

PORTLAND, May 30.—Sylvester Pennoyer, governor of Oregon from 1886 to 1894, died suddenly this afternoon at his home here. He had been in poor health for the past year. About 5 o'clock this evening Mrs. Pennoyer, going into the library, found the governor lying on the floor. She tried to arouse him, but discovered that he was dead.

Pennoyer was born in New York state in 1831. He graduated from Harvard University in 1854 and the next year came to Oregon. He taught school for some time and about 1862 he engaged in the lumber business in which he continued until his death. He did not figure prominently in politics until nominated for governor in 1886 by the Democrats. He was elected by 4000 majority, while the remainder of the ticket was elected by the Republicans by 10,000 majority. He was re-elected in 1890 by an increased majority. He was brought prominently before the country in 1891 by his refusal to meet President Harrison at the state line when the latter visited Oregon. He was again much talked about in 1893, when he telegraphed President Cleveland the famous message: "I will attend to my business; let the president attend to his."

TO READERS.

An accident occurred to the Astorian's linotype machine early last night which made it useless for this edition. The write up of Memorial services was necessarily practically cut out as well as a number of other important features. The shortage will be made up in future.

MEMORIAL DAY IN ASTORIA

Soldiers' and Citizens' Graves Decorated Alike Yesterday.

SERVICES AT OPERA HOUSE

Astoria School Children Do Themselves Proud.—Able Addresses and a Feast of Song.

Memorial day was duly observed in Astoria. The public offices were all closed in honor of the occasion, as well as all of the mercantile establishments. A number of citizens took advantage of the day to visit the country. The city had a deserted appearance a part of the day. The day was fine and was generally enjoyed by all.

Hillside cemetery and Greenwood were both visited and the graves all decorated alike. There are no veterans buried at Greenwood and only two or three are buried at Hillside, but a profusion of flowers were strewn on the graves at both places.

The local G. A. R. Post looked after Hillside cemetery and the citizens generally decorated the graves at Greenwood. The citizens also joined the veterans in decorating the graves of their dead.

The services at Fishers' in the afternoon were among the most interesting ever held in the city. The addresses were all appropriate and the school children did themselves proud, and reflected honor upon their parents and teachers.
